

CORRESPONDENCE

WARREN

The first meeting of the Grange since the epidemic of the "flu" will be held on Saturday evening, December 14th. It is expected an important session will be held and an urgent request is extended to all members to be present.

R. A. Morse, formerly of Warren, but now of Portland, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Morris. Mr. Morse is having quite extensive improvement made on his ranch here.

The Lutheran church members have resumed their church services since the ban on meetings of all kinds has been lifted.

The young people of the Lutheran church held a very interesting and instructive meeting last Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hyskell received a very interesting letter from Sergeant F. D. McNaughton, of the Hospital Corps in France. Mac is well known here.

Arthur E. Lund, accompanied by Miss Fannie Cooper, motored to Portland Sunday. Miss Cooper will return to her studies at the Monmouth normal school this week. Rumor has it that Arthur would like to take a course at the same school. We all know.

Miss Lucy Boesel is spending a few weeks on Sauvie Island with friends.

Miss Marguerite Miller spent Sunday at St. Helens with her friend, Miss Inez Grewell.

William Hammerbeck is around again after having a tussle with the popular epidemic. He was confined to his room for over three weeks. He looks fine in his VanDyke beard. Almost as prepossessing as Lieutenant Frank Beeler.

To while away the long winter evenings a 500 club is to be organized from among Warren's social set. A meeting is called for the near future to complete organization.

Mrs. Carleton Lewis left Saturday for Gardiner, Maine, taking with her the body of Carleton Lewis, who died about two months ago. His mother, sister and brother live at Gardiner.

The telephone situation will be taken up at the next meeting of the Grange and action taken by the farmers as to what they will do.

Mrs. Gust Isaacson spent last week with friends in Portland. During her visit she took a trip over the Columbia River highway and had an enjoyable time generally.

Joseph Erickson, Jr., who is running the donkey engine at the Sherman Mill, cannot get over the summer custom of bathing and now uses the log dam instead of the Columbia river. He reports the water quite cool.

H. O. Morris wanted to test the depth of the water at Green's landing on Monday evening. He walked into it, but by the aid of 20 men which Tommy carries, he was pulled ashore. He reports carp plentiful.

The officers of the home guard were called to St. Helens by Major Howard Tuesday evening for consultation.

School opened Monday but the attendance was light.

Peter Maccaci is shipping a carload of Christmas trees to California.

SCAPPOOSE

Mrs. Getchell spent the Thanksgiving holidays in Portland.

Gypsy Johnston was the guest of Marjorie Holladay over Sunday.

Mr. Whitney and family of Portland spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Whitney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cooper.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wikstrom are enjoying a new Victoria.

The influenza ban is on again. Over 60 cases reported, but all seem to be in light form.

Mrs. Reed spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Getchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Duvenik of Spitzenberg, have a new little daughter.

Victor Watts and his cousin George Warness spent Thanksgiving with Victor's mother, Mrs. M. J. Watts. Victor leaves some time this week for Honolulu. He sails on the Bonifay, this being his first trip out.

Mrs. F. H. Wilson visited her mother, Mrs. I. G. Wikstrom, one day the past week.

Esther Lynch, Veima Lynch, Gladys Johnson and Marjorie Hollo day came home for Thanksgiving.

Harry West received a car load of feed Tuesday and distributed it among the farmers.

Watch the bulletin board for notices of church and school.

Dr. Hatfield spent Tuesday at Chapman camp, attending many cases of sickness there.

There was a special meeting called at Watts & Price hall Saturday for the purpose of voting a special road tax. The measure was defeated.

Mrs. Bessemer and children visited in Portland Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. Leonard is still in the hospital quite ill.

Pomeroy's, Blachfords and Niblocks enjoyed Thanksgiving dinner together at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pomeroy.

Mrs. Calvin of Marshland, is visiting her son and wife.

Camp 1 of Scappoose Lumber company resumed operations on Wednesday, after being closed for two weeks.

Mr. Price and Mr. Butler are both able to be about their duties again.
