

All Over The County

SCAPPOOSE

Dan Mitchell has a fine, new Commercial truck.

Marjorie Holaday left Friday to resume her college work at U. of O.

The Pomeroy families went to the state fair Thursday.

George McFadden moved this week, to the Adams' ranch.

Mr. Knoer is occupying the Price cottage vacated by McFadden's.

Mrs. J. E. Miller and daughters, spent the week end in Portland with Mr. and Mrs. Saint.

The C. E. will hold a social Friday evening, in the lecture room. Come and enjoy yourself.

The girls club known as Tri L, is growing. If you would like to become a member, inquire about it.

Dix Holaday, Leland Lapham, Herman Miller and Norman Miller are new students at O. A. C. this fall.

Valdis White is on his way home to Scappoose at last. Valdis is one, if not the last of our boys to be released from service.

Burl Smith won a trip to the state fair at Salem, and we hear he is doing things there. Will give an official report later.

Watts Price is again a student at O. A. C. Watts left school to enter the service. His many friends welcome him back.

Friends of Miss O'Regan will be interested to know that she is teaching again this year, at the home of Frank L. Smith.

Joaquin Miller and family of Prescott, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Miller, the forepart of the week.

Mrs. Lyons, who has been visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Metcalf, returned to her home in Montana Monday.

Miss Thelma Aaland of Tacoma, spent the week end as the guest of Vera Price. Miss Aaland is a St. Helens' hall student.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Fluhrer of Mayer, spent the week end with their sister, Miss Stovell, Miss Stovell is our sixth and seventh grade teacher.

Gilbert Mc, who was reported very ill with appendicitis last week, was operated on Thursday at Good Samaritan hospital. He is doing well and will probably be home by the latter part of the week.

The State Library association is placing a library in the Community church. This will be open to the public week days from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. Let your wants be known and we will try and accommodate you.

Helen Watts, who spent two years as a student at U. of O., is now a student at Oberlin, Ohio. She visited her brother and sister, Rev. and Mrs. Cooke, at Western Springs, Illinois, and says they are delightfully situated.

A farewell reception for Mr. and Mrs. Washburn was held Tuesday evening in the Community church. Both Mr. and Mrs. Washburn have always been active in the affairs of the community and their friends regret their leaving. They move to Portland Saturday of this week.

Marshal Dana, an editorial writer of a Portland paper, will speak in the church, October 7th on "The League of Nations. He is a crack-jack speaker and you will want to hear him. There will be no charge except a collection taken to defray expenses.

Community Church—Geo. V. McClure pastor: Sunday School 10:15; Mrs. Rose Watts is our new superintendent. Come and worship with her. Morning Worship, 11:15; S. E., 7 o'clock; Evening Service, 8 o'clock. Rev. McClure will preach the second sermon of a series of sermons on "Fundamentals." Also Mr. Brainerd, who is a fine musician will preside at the piano. We are very fortunate in have his help.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Grimm celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary, Saturday evening, September 20th, by entertaining friends at their home. Part of the guests were in humorous costumes. A district school and spelling bee was one of the stunts that caused much merry making. Mr. Holaday as school master failed to keep very good order. The guests enjoyed a pleasant evening and wish Mr. and Mrs. Grimm many years of wedded bliss.

WARREN

Herman Carlson had a number of people from Warren as his guests at the fair at Salem on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. and Miss Bessie Jacobson attended the Salem fair this week.

W. J. Fullerton attended the Cowitz county fair on Thursday and Friday.

A. L. Larson and family and Miss Anna Larson and Miss Signa Extrum spent Thursday and Friday at the state fair.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Tarbell attended the state fair on Thursday and Ralph and Glen went up on Friday.

Mrs. John Farr has for her guest this week, Mrs. Neer, her mother. Mrs. Neer is suffering from a broken arm caused by a fall.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Tarbell and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Morris attended the Yankton grange meeting last Saturday night.

W. C. Cooper, who has completed his contract for grading from the P. W. Boesel ranch to McNulty creek, is busy with men and teams finishing the grading from Honeyman to Scappoose.

Alpheus Wellborn, who has carried the rural mail route this summer, has again entered St. Helens high school and Mrs. S. Wellborn is now making the daily rounds.

CLATSKANIE

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barnes, who have spent the summer at Mohler, Oregon, where Mr. Barnes has been employed, are spending the week in town with their mother, Mrs. G. W. Barnes.

Mrs. C. F. Mann and three daughters visited Rainier on Saturday last. Mr. and Mrs. Mann and family attended the big picnic of Railroad employes at Cascade Locks on Sunday. About 1,000 railroad men and their families enjoyed the day together.

Mrs. J. M. Brouser and Mrs. J. C. William of Rainier, were in town on Wednesday, visiting Mr. Brouser, who is a foreman of the Warren Construction company, in charge of the road construction project now in progress here.

Floyd E. Dorris, field secretary of the Oregon Tuberculosis association, was in town on Friday last in the interests of the campaign which seeks to interest the schools of the state in a scientific warfare for the extermination of the white plague.

Rev. McDonald arrived in town yesterday from Chicago and was a guest at the Methodist parsonage. He comes to take charge of the work of the Methodist church on the lower Columbia between Clatskanie and Astoria.

CLATSKANIE

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barnes, who have spent the summer at Mohler, Oregon, where Mr. Barnes has been employed, are spending the week in town with their mother, Mrs. G. W. Barnes.

Mrs. C. F. Mann and three daughters visited Rainier on Saturday last. Mr. and Mrs. Mann and family attended the big picnic of Railroad employes at Cascade Locks on Sunday. About 1,000 railroad men and their families enjoyed the day together.

Mrs. J. M. Brouser and Mrs. J. C. William of Rainier, were in town on Wednesday, visiting Mr. Brouser, who is a foreman of the Warren Construction company, in charge of the road construction project now in progress here.

Floyd E. Dorris, field secretary of the Oregon Tuberculosis association, was in town on Friday last in the interests of the campaign which seeks to interest the schools of the state in a scientific warfare for the extermination of the white plague.

Rev. McDonald arrived in town yesterday from Chicago and was a guest at the Methodist parsonage. He comes to take charge of the work of the Methodist church on the lower Columbia between Clatskanie and Astoria.

GOBLE

There was a big dance at the Grange hall last Saturday night and it is understood that dances will be held in the hall during the winter.

Road Supervisor Fritz Antiker is moving his road crew and machinery down Goble way and will start work on the Neer City road.

Harry Cooper, who has been serving in the navy and Cass Fowler, who served in the army, are recent arrivals in Goble, after doing good service for Uncle Sam.

Mr. Hugh Thomas and Mrs. Harry Nelson were recently united in marriage. They have many friends in this neighborhood who tender congratulations and best wishes.

Wesley Hill has resigned his position with the Columbia Timber company and will soon leave for Bend, Oregon, where he will go into the auto stage business.

The Beaver Homes Grange continues to grow and new members are added at most every meeting. At the present progress of growth, the local grange will soon be one of the strongest in the county.

A number of neighbors met at the place of M. J. Barker recently and in one day raised a fine barn, 30x40 feet. The Barkers served a fine chicken dinner to the willing workers. Goble is strong for the community spirit and the progress of the neighborhood demonstrates this fact.

YANKTON

Yankton exhibitors were well pleased with the premium awards at the fair.

Mrs. Floyd McAbay of Portland, is a visitor at the home of her mother and greeting old Yankton friends.

The new residence of H. O. Stewart is almost complete and the family will soon occupy their new home which is a credit to the neighborhood.

The Yankton school opened last Monday with a good attendance. Professor Earl Brown is principal and there are two other teachers.

There will be services at the Yankton church each second and fourth Sunday of the month. Every one is invited to attend the services.

Vina Little is a happy young lady. She received second prize at the county fair in the canning exhibit. Vina is only nine years old, but it appears that she understands canning.

Yankton is represented at the state fair which is being held at Salem this week. Than Brown took some of his fine thoroughbred stock up to the capital city to show Oregon people that Columbia county raises fine cattle.

DEER ISLAND

Mrs. May Newton has gone to California to spend the winter.

Mrs. Mary Lee, mother of Ben Lee, visited her son last week. Mrs. Lee was on her way to California.

Mrs. McBride of Marshfield, Oregon, visited her son, Clyde Hanson, last week and took in the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Birt and Fred Adams and Mrs. George Mills, motored to Salem Tuesday to spend several days at the fair.

A bear wandered into Deer Island Monday, but before any one could get a gun he had disappeared into the brush in the Clover Hill slough.

The piling for the bridge across to the island is in and a large force of men came out Monday to rush work on the structure.

Mrs. Charles Brown and little son, Charles Jr., left for Monroe, Missouri, Saturday morning. Mrs. Brown's many friends will surely miss her cheerful presence and hope she may be happy in her future home.

Among our young people who are ambitious for an education is Vera Gattens, who spent last summer, when other young folks were having a good time, studying the eighth grade work which she completed and Hang onto it—bring it to this bank and deposit it to your credit. You will be surprised to note how fast your bank account grows and when the opportunity comes for a money-making investment, you will have the funds to take advantage of the opportunity. Every convenience and our large family of depositors.

Every convenience and consideration is shown our depositors

First National Bank
Scappoose, Oregon

THE QUICK TURNOVER

of our grocery stock assures our customers of fresh goods at all times. Rapid sales in large volume of articles in daily demand enable you to purchase from us with confidence. Not only freshness but quality as well as economy prices prevail at this store.

Fresh Pure Country Honey, 35c, 3 for $1.00
Fels Naptha Soap ..... 10c
Gravenstein Apples, per box ..... $1.25
Just a little saving on each article and most every other article in our store

THOMAS H. ROY
PHONE 42 MONEY SAVING GROCERS

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 27—

Harry Carey "In Bare Fists"

In this feature Carey traveled the hill country routes. Suffered his cattle—those few he possessed—to be stolen and his sweetheart to be wooed. Why? Come out and let him tell you the reason. DON'T FORGET "THE RED GLOVE" TONIGHT
SECOND EPISODE

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 28—

Just for Tonight

Another one of the great Fuldwyn pictures featuring Tom Moore, in which he plays nobleman with rare skill, giving fine portrayal of Lord Roxenham. Don't miss this one.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 1—

"A Splendid Sinner," featuring Mary Garden

This feature was written especially for her by Kate Jordan. A powerful story of Bohemia and the battlefront of France. A production said to be on a scale of magnificence unusual even for Golem. Mary Garden, as the vampire, becomes an angel of mercy. If you have red blood in you this will please you.

PRICES—10 and 20 cents

SUNSET THEATRE

LITTLE HOUSE OF BIG FEATURES
P. A. DIXON, Manager

First Complete Display of Coats for Children, Women and Girls

The First Notable Selling Event of Attractive Fall Merchandise at This Store

Our great good fortune in buying sufficiently large quantities before the present price advance, has enabled us to make this first showing of Fall Coats, Millinery, Dress Patterns, Shoes and Knit Goods, an event of down importance to every woman who seeks for the most satisfying results in style and price.

The Correct Fashions in Fall Coats Shown in this Array Autumn Models

Simple perfection in line and making seems to be the style to which all new coats conform. You will be delighted with the richness of the materials as well as the gracefulness of the styling, both of which tend to make the new fall coats alike becoming to every type of personality. Here are some of the finest in the new fall coat styles. Priced each

$8, $10, $12.50, $14, $15, $17.50, $18, $19.50, $22.50 to $45

Fall Styles in Children's Coats

Exceedingly attractive styles and wonderful values are these new fall coats for girls and misses—two coats alike, which appeals to girls as well as to our older folks. There is a wide range of color to choose from, including browns, greens, Burgandy, grays, blues and blacks. The materials are wool velour, velvet and corduroy. School days and the coming of cool days behooves every mother to look at these coats while the assortment is complete. The prices are indeed reasonable. We invite all mothers to see these coats now.

$7.50 and up to $16.50.

A Showing of Dress and Suit Fabrics

Distinctly the Latest Colors

FRENCH SERGES

About 44-inches wide, exceptionally good quality, in midnight blue, dark green, wine and black, per yard ..... $2.50

STORM SERGES

About 50-inches wide, all wool, just fine for a separate skirt. Per yard ..... $2.50

ALL-WOOL TRICOTINE

Width about 48 inches. Just the fabric you want for a beautiful suit or dress. A garment made of Tricotine will have a distinctive appearance which is only possible with this weave.

HEAVY ALL-WOOL UNFINISHED VELOUR for Coats. Width about 53 inches. Extra heavy, splendid value. Comes in light and dark brown. Per yard ..... $3.50

A Wonderful Array of Millinery at Prices Which Are Very Moderate

Notwithstanding the general opinion as to inflated Millinery Prices, we can prove to you that you need not pay enormous prices for Hats—that here you can buy fashionable millinery at more than fair prices.

Why?

Because we bought samples—no two hats alike—every one a Pattern Hat. We got a reduction by buying samples. Every one who visits our millinery department is astonished at the reasonable prices, and such beautiful patterns.

BILLY BUSTER SHOES for Boys are far better than the average shoe and as good as any made. They are neat in appearance and will wear.

TABER'S

AHEAD IN STYLE BY MANY A MILE

New arrivals in Men's, Women's and Children's SHOES. Shows bought months ago, and far below the present high prices.

