LIBERTY THEATRE

Home of Good Pictures

—FRIDAY, OCTOBER 24th—

Fritzi Brunette in "The Woman Under Cover"

"Playing the Game" was an appealing story of the speaking stage. It is even more brilliant as a play called, "The Woman Under Cover."

also a GOOD COMEDY

—SATURDAY, OCTOBER 25th—

William Farnum in "The Rainbow Trail"

One of the best and most popular western stories written by Zane Grey. The story is complete in itself but at the same time is a sequel to "Riders of Purple Sage."

and a MUTT and JEFF COMEDY

—SUNDAY, OCTOBER 26th—

Tom Moore in "Go West Young Man"

Zip! Bang! All heads duck for cover. Here comes tenderfoot who followed Horace Greeley's advice when he said "Go West, Young Man." They said couldn't make good, so he showed 'em.

two-reel Comedy, "MATCHING BILLS"

—MONDAY, OCTOBER 27th—

Gladys Brockwell in "The Forbidden Room"

If you were a woman defending the right—and pursued by a rotten police force—what would you do? See the answer in this picture.

also 2-reel Sunshine Comedy, "SHADOWS OF HER PAST"

—TUESDAY, OCTOBER 28th—

Montagu Love in "Through the Toils"

A wonderplay of romance and adventure

KINOGRAMS—Current Events

—WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 29th—

J. Warren Kerrigan in "Prisoners of the Pine"

A romantic drama of the Wisconsin-Canadian battle camps. This picture carries with its many scenes, a balmy, invigorating breath of health of the great forests of the northwest.

a two-reel Harold Lloyd Comedy, "BE MY WIFE"

—THURSDAY, OCTOBER 30th—

Lucille Stewart in "The Eleventh Commandment"

Besides the ten commandments of the Decalogue there is another, unwritten, an eleventh, which every woman knows—to disobey which is often to miss the door to infelicity and even tragedy. Do miss this picture. You'll like it.

and a good Comedy, "T'WAS HENRY'S FAULT"

COMING OCT. 31st ONE OF THE BIGGEST BEST PICTURES OF THE YEAR. WORTH SEEING FOR HERALDS
