WORK OF CONGRESS BROUGHT TO CLOSE

Much Was Accomplished During Session—Over Billion Appropriated.

WASHINGTON—After a final day of double pressure, congress adjourned Saturday night until December with a remarkable record of work and all factions claiming the greater part of the credit.

The president's annual message covered the whole legislative field. The program which he especially urged contained about 18 measures, of which six were adopted. The regulars claim credit for everything done that was mentioned in his message. The insurgents and democrats see the results far differently. The railroad bill, the main issue of the session, as adopted, bore practically no semblance to the original Taft-Wickersham bill, the insurgents claiming that the president had nothing left of it but the commerce court.

The great bulk of the work was done in the last month, and a very important part during the last week. In the early half of the session the house was not industrious and the senate did practically nothing at all.

A Billion Dollars Appropriated.

More than a billion dollars was appropriated, if continuing appropriations are incorporated in the totals of the general appropriation measures. Insofar as the figures could be obtained from measures which underwent changes in the last hours of the session, the total of the appropriations, exclusive of continuing appropriations, was $894,086,943.

The amount of the continuing appropriations for the last fiscal year was about $160,000,000. It is safe to say that it will not be less for the next fiscal year, and the grand total therefore will aggregate at least $1,054,000,000.

Not the least conspicuous acts of congress were the strenuous measures taken by the house of representatives to reform its system of conducting business, so that less power might be reposed in the speaker and the organization of which he was the natural leader.

Railway Bill Takes Time.

More time was consumed in considering the railroad bill than was taken by all other subjects of legislation. This measure not only creates a commerce court, but embodies power for a committee to inquire in stock and bond issues of railroads, extends the provision of the interstate commerce act to telegraph and telephone companies and gives the interstate commerce commission power to suspend increases in rates until the commission has found the reason for such increases.

Under the withdrawal act almost unlimited power was given to the president to withhold lands from settlement and to conserve water power. On the other hand, the act providing for the agricultural entry of the surface of coal lands will open to settlement at least 60,000,000 acres, but will reserve to the government the right to the coal.

POWER OF DIAZ IS RENEWED IN MEXICO

Leaders of Opposition Thrown Into Prison Under Guard of Troops.

EL PASO, Tex.—Porfirio Diaz, the 80-year-old statesman who has been President of Mexico continuously for 26 years, has been re-elected to that office. Ramon Corral undoubtedly has been chosen to succeed himself as vice-president. The result means that the policies of Diaz will continue another six years, or at least as long as the veteran ruler shall live.

Rain in the border states, where there was the greatest danger of trouble, dampened the ardor of the opposition. Further discouragement to the anti-electionists was found in the fact that their candidate for President, Francisco Madero, spent election day in the Monterey prison, and that many of the active leaders of the opposition propaganda also were in custody and under guard of Federal troops.

Whatever fight there was against the administration seems to have been concentrated on the candidate for the vice-presidency, Ramon Corral, who is being groomed by the party in power as the successor of Diaz. Corral believes in the encouragement of American investments in Mexico and in the protection of all foreign interests in the republic on the theory that they are necessary to progress. His active attitude in this respect has engendered widespread opposition to him, but by the same token, his candidacy has been favored by the capitalistic class, domestic and foreign.

Lawyer Out for Congress.

PORTLAND, Ore.—A. W. Lafferty, a Portland lawyer, whose activities in connection with the claims of the Siletz Indian Reservation settlers have attracted considerable attention, has announced his candidacy for Congress. Lafferty will be opposed to Representative Ellis, who seeks re-election, for the Republican nomination in the direct primary September 24.

Ames Would Succeed Himself.

RAILROADS FEAR A SHORTAGE OF CROPS

Retrenchments Ordered in View of Anticipated Lack of Business.

CHICAGO—Alarmed over unfavorable crop reports, railroads extending into the Northwest have decided to inaugurate one of the most rigid retrenchment policies of recent years. All Western railroads, including those running from Chicago into the Northwest and into Canada, have had experts out on their lines for the last ten days gathering data regarding crop conditions. These men have made reports to various railroad managements, which have caused general alarm as to the tonnage of the future.

Railroad crop reports indicated that along the lines of the St. Paul, Burlington, Northwestern, Minneapolis & Omaha and other roads the wheat crop, in several states, will not be greater than 50 per cent. The experts declare that in Minnesota and in North and South Dakota, for example, a large proportion of the wheat acreage is being plowed up and sown to flax.

An early drouth, followed by days of continuous hot winds, which took the moisture out of the ground and started the wheat to heading out, have been the causes of the threatened crop shortage. On all of the Northwestern roads all new construction has been ordered stopped. One road which had several hundred miles of new road graded and ready for rails has ceased work on this improvement.

POLITICAL NEWS

The democrats of North Dakota expect to elect Governor John Burke for a third term.

The election of a United States senator, representatives in congress and governor and other state officials was involved in the general primary election held in North Dakota last week. As in other states of the Middle West the contest developed a battle royal between the "progressive" and "stalwart" factions of the republican party.

That former President Roosevelt intends to take an active part in the coming gubernatorial campaign in New York state is practically assured. He fully realizes that the republican party's hope of salvation in the coming contest is Governor Hughes and he is expected to exert all his influence to persuade Hughes to relinquish the supreme bench for the present and run again for governor next fall. This question will be threshed out when Hughes visits Sagamore Hill.

The bill affects more than 20,000,000 acres, of which 280,000 are in Oregon, 729,024 in Washington and 571,520 in Idaho. The expense of the surveys is to be born by the railroad companies.

The census bureau expects soon to begin giving out to the press and the public the population returns for the cities of the country. Announcement will be made from day to day, as rapidly as totals are correctly ascertained.

ITEMS OF INTEREST THROUGHOUT OREGON

Chronicle of Important Events of Interest to Our Readers.

Townsend Takes Up Land Grants.

PORTLAND.—B. D. Townsend, special assistant of the attorney-general of the United States, and in direct charge of the Oregon & California land grant case which the government instituted to forfeit title of the railway company, has returned to Portland. Mr. Townsend has spent most of the past year in Washington, D. C., where he prepared the 820-page brief recently filed in the federal proceedings, and which had the personal supervision of Attorney-General Wickersham. He will remain here during the various stages of proceedings, until the big issue is finally adjudicated, restoring to public entry lands now worth $40,000,000 to $50,000,000, or declaring the right of the railroad company to hold 2,300,000 acres despite the specific provision of the grant law which said they should be sold for not exceeding $2.50 an acre.

Siletz Settlers Loss.

PORTLAND.—On the advice of Secretary Ballinger, President Taft declined to sign Representative Hawley's bill confirming the titles of some 80 odd settlers on the Siletz Reservation and by reason of this "pocket veto" the bill is dead.

This bill passed the house of representatives several weeks ago, was promptly reported to the senate and lay on the senate calendar for two weeks before it was called up by Senator Chamberlain and passed. The bill was engrossed, signed by the speaker of the house and Vice-President Sherman, and was laid before the president when he came to the capitol.

As the bill relates to affairs of the interior department the president referred it to Secretary Ballinger, who was present, and he advised against its approval, contending it would legalize titles that might better be handled in the regular way by the interior department.

Nineteen Measures Filled.

SALEM.—Nineteen measures referred by the legislature for popular approval or rejection, referred by the people directly or proposed by the initiative have been filed by the secretary of state up to date. The twentieth one has been presented for filing, but was rejected because it did not have a sufficient number of signatures. It is the measure proposing to annex a portion of Washington county to Multnomah county. It is understood the required number of signatures will be filed within a few days so that measure will go on the ballot.

Big Salmon Pack in Sight.

ASTORIA.—While there is not a large run of salmon, every interest is getting some, so in the aggregate the canneries and cold storage plants are at work every day.

It is not possible at this time to figure the pack accurately, but the cold storage output is fully 50 per cent ahead of this time last year and the cannery pack is about 30 per cent ahead. If natural conditions exist during the balance of the season there will be the largest pack in a number of years.

Pear Trees Have Pear Blight.

ROSEBURG.—At a regular meeting of the Umpqua Valley Horticulture Society and Fruit Association held here, Dr. George A. Bradburn, vice-president of the association, offered several specimens of young trees stricken with anthracnose, or pear blight. These trees were planted this year and were evidently sent out in this condition by nursery companies. Out of about 100 trees planted by Dr. Bradburn this year, all will be a total loss on account of the anthracnose.

Baker City to Celebrate.

BAKER CITY.—Baker City is planning to have the biggest celebration ever held in Baker county. The aviation exhibition, which will be held on the 4th and 5th, promises to be one of the greatest attractions ever witnessed in the state of Oregon.
