CLOVERLAND GIRL DROWNED IN POND

ELIAS SARGENT'S OLDEST DAUGHTER BREAKS THRU ICE—WATCH GROUSE STOCK.

Grouse, Dec. 15—A telephone from Cloverland received this morning says while Elias Sargent's two oldest children were returning from school yesterday evening, they stopped by the way and were playing on the ice on a small pond by the roadside. The ice broke and Abbie, the girl, was drowned. Her body was not found until 3 o'clock last night. She was about 11 years old. The boy was found in time to save him alive but badly strangled and chilled.

The county court of Asotin county in a special session, issued an order for every dog in the county to be confined, so as to protect them from coming in contact with animals supposed to be infected with rabies.

The farmers in the Grouse country are watching their stock very carefully as it is all out on the range in the canyons and doing fine, no snow and the ground soft. There has been some stock lost, supposed to have been bitten by coyotes having hydrophobia, but no wounds have been discovered so it is not generally believed that coyote bites were the cause. Great care should be taken and animals should not run at large which have been in contact with coyotes, or which show signs of derangement in any shape. We can't be too careful when it is well known that something uncommon is the matter with those beasts.

This part of the estate, which will be about $1,000,000, is under the terms of the will to be devoted to the propagation of the faith.

Boston.—That George Glover, son of Mary Baker G. Eddy, late head of the Christian Science church, may contest the will of his mother on the grounds that she was incompetent to make such an instrument, was the statement of Attorney Frederick W. Peabody.

ARIZONA ADOPTS ITS CONSTITUTION

Phoenix, Ariz.—The constitutional convention of Arizona adjourned after being in session 61 days, and finally adopting a constitution, designated by the majority members as the most progressive ever framed, and by the minority as the most socialist.

One Republican only, John Langdon, of Globe, signed the document and he was given an ovation which lasted several minutes when he did so. One Democrat, Ellinwood, of Bisbee, declined to sign, explaining on the final roll call that he voted with the opposition because he believed the recall as applied to the judiciary would destroy the independence of the courts of the state and invite the disapproval of President Taft.

Among the progressive provisions of the document are: Initiative and referendum, the recall of all elective officers, direct primaries and direct advisory primary for United States senators.

ALASKA STEAMSHIP OLYMPIA GROUNDS

106 Lives, Including Officials of Alaska Court, Imperiled by Disaster.

Cordova, Alaska.—The Alaska S. S. Company's steamer Olympia, with 106 persons aboard, is ashore on Bligh Island, Prince William Sound. There are 52 passengers aboard the Olympia. Among those who sailed from here for Valdez and Seward are United States District Judge Cushman, Mrs. Cushman and members of the Third District Court, who are on their way to the Valdez. The crew of the Olympia consists of 54 officers and men, Captain Daniele being in command.

The Olympia sailed from Cordova at 6 o'clock Sunday night, having arrived from Seattle earlier in the day. Although the night was clear and a full moon shed a bright light, navigation was made dangerous by a 50-mile gale, which was blowing from the north.

Between 12 and 1 o'clock Monday morning the operator on duty at the navy wireless station picked up the distress signal of the Olympia. He answered at once. Operator Hayes, on the Olympia, then sent an urgent appeal for help, saying that the Olympia had struck on Bligh Island and was in an exposed position. Heavy seas are breaking over her, making the position of those on board all the more perilous.

Several vessels are on the way to the assistance of the Olympia. Many of these are small craft, and it is doubtful whether they will be able to weather the furious gale.
