Jordan arrived Thursday from Enterprise and will remain until after the session of the Latter Day Saints conference, which will convene tomorrow and continue over Sunday. The St. Patrick's dance given in the opera house Tuesday night was a very enjoyable affair. The music by the Enterprise orchestra was excellent, and the supper served at the Hotel Enterprise at midnight was a swell spread. Owing to the inclement weather the attendance was not as large as expected. J. F. Bater, for many years a resident of Enterprise, head miller at the E. M. & M. mill, and a stockholder in the company, made his many friends here glad by a visit from Saturday until Tuesday. Mr. Bater has charge of the flour mill at Union. He is a very genial, pleasant gentleman as ever, only a little younger and merrier. He and Mrs. Bater are both well and like their home in Union. He accompanied L. J. Davis, the circuit judge candidate from his town.

The protracted meetings at the Christian church, conducted by Rev. E. Owens of the Baptist church, were discontinued Sunday night.

The Ladies Aid society of the Presbyterian church will meet with Mrs. A. C. Atiller Friday afternoon. There will be a smart program and refreshments will be served.

Dermine Cream, the best preparation for chapped hands and face, is sold by Burnaugh & Mayfield.

H. L. Graham, the Elgin cattle buyer, was buying cattle in the county this past week. He bought a fine bunch of W. C. Dorrance of Elgin.

The ladies are nicely fixing up one of the rooms in the opera house building for the library, and it is hoped to have all in readiness for opening one day next week.

The band boys have been at big expense in securing the Mammoth Minstrels and you can best show your appreciation by buying your tickets early.

The Presbyterian church was well filled with a pleased audience Friday night. The program was good and a neat sum was realized from the sale of baskets.

Varnish stains and brushes, and Lacquer—makes old furniture look like new—at Burnaugh & Mayfield's.

Joe Clemons, deputy game warden for Wallowa county, was transacting business at the court house Tuesday. Mr. Clemons was on his way to his ranch 15 miles beyond Zumwalt.

J. J. Chapman and M. O. Courtney, directors of district No. 19, Noble, northwest of Enterprise, were in to see Superintendent Kerns, Saturday. They were looking for a teacher for a three month spring term of school to begin April 8.

The new stone road just west of town, from the brickyard to the Trout creek bridge, will be surfaced with gravel. At present it is too rough for travel, but it is expected to become a first class roadway after surfacing.

Wallowa Lodge, No. 82, A. F. & A. M. had work in the third degree Saturday night, and enjoyed a luncheon after the work. J. F. Bater and L. J. Davis of Union were visiting brethren. Mr. Bater for many years was an active and enthusiastic member of the local lodge.

Mrs. Stella Hanville has been re-engaged to teach in the Enterprise public schools during 1908-09, and Miss Mabel Murray of Eldora, Ia., has been engaged as second primary teacher. Miss Murray has been highly recommended. She will come to Wallowa county this summer after the close of her school at Eldora.

A week from Saturday night has been fixed as the date for the Metropolitan Mammoth Minstrels at the Enterprise opera house. It will be undoubtedly one of the very best entertainments ever given on that stage and worth coming many miles to see. There will be many startling novelties, besides the best of singing, dancing and comedy.

"It was all Orish" at the St. Patrick's day social at the Methodist church Tuesday night, given by the Epworth League. The program was redolent of memories of the Emerald Isle. Gerald Holmes won the volume of Moore's poems by capturing the most snakes. The refreshments were appreciated, and the receipts were close to $20.

The street crowd was entertained Monday in watching the deftness with which painter Moore executed the handsome lettering of a large sign on the front of Hartshorn & Keltner's hardware store. He is certainly an artist in his line. Moore and Irving, who compose the Enterprise Painting company, are first class painters and their shop on River street is crowded with work. It would seem that every carriage in the city will be resplendent in new paint this spring.

Bays Roadster Stallion.

Joe Moxley of Prairie Creek bought the trotting-bred stallion of Jack Johnson of Imnaha, advertised for sale in last week's News Record.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson from near Lepp were in this city Friday and Saturday.

Church services closed Friday night. Rev. Martin will meet in regular service Sunday evening at 7 o'clock.

Miss Jennie Olsen and Roy Haun returned from Bendleton Saturday. Miss Olsen has been taking a course in domestic art while Mr. Haun has been studying business methods. They each speak very highly of that school and feel well paid for their labor.

Mr. and Mrs. Magill returned to their home Wednesday. They have been spending the winter in Illinois where Mrs. Magill underwent medical treatment for throat trouble. She is much improved in health although the treatment proved very severe at times.

School Items.

There is a great deal of sickness in the community, not serious but yet severe enough to keep a good many out of school, especially from the high school room. Ralph Haun has been out several days, as has Grace McCubbin, both being afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism.

The school year is rapidly drawing to a close and yet how much there is still to do; at the very best some will fail. How many are added to this number because they have not will power to apply themselves. Pupils wish to make their grades, but some of them lack enough energy to put forth the necessary effort. When these pupils reach maturity the same fault will still cling to them.

We have four taking the commercial course—that is the special course. They are making good progress.

Miss Hutchins, an accomplished music teacher, recently from Portland, has favored us with most excellent instrumental music at two of our Tuesday morning assemblies.

Forest Ranger Examination.

Wallowa, March 16—The U. S. Civil Service commission announces its intention to hold an examination to obtain a list of eligibles for the position of "Forest Ranger" on April 23 and 24, 1908. For this section of Oregon the examination will be held at the office of the Forest Supervisor at Wallowa. The examination will be along thoroughly practical lines and will consist of questions regarding the uses of the forest, supplemented by a field test to show the applicant's fitness to perform the actual work of a Ranger; in the field test the usual tests in riding and packing will be given. Application forms and other information can be obtained by addressing the Forest Supervisor at Wallowa, Oregon.

(Signed) HOWARD K. O'BRIEN, Forest Supervisor.

GROUSE.

Grouse, March 13—The farmers on the bench lands near the river are beginning work, fencing, plowing, etc.

The cattlemen have put their stock on the range in the canyon. They seem to be doing fairly well. Stock is in better condition this spring than usual, owing to the mild winter.

Hay is plentiful and our people prosperous; taxes only about half as high as last year; and no excitement over politics. The local option question is agitated to some extent, but with no fears of defeat, as all seem to agree on that subject. The writer will spare no pains in advocating the temperance cause upon which the prosperity of our Great Republic must stand or fall. Open the saloons means to close the churches, fill our prisons, increase our taxes, make widows and orphans, increase poverty and disgrace. La grippe is making great headway in this section.

Mrs. Thomas Malloy died last night. The burial will be tomorrow at the cemetery in front of the Baptist church near this place. Mr. Malloy and two of the children are down with la grippe and are very ill.

Joseph Young and family, J. M. Silver and family, E. D. Silver and family, Leonard Smith and family have all been laid up with la grippe; in fact nearly every family in the neighborhood has been afflicted with the disease to some extent.

Candidate for Renomination.

I hereby announce that I will be a candidate for renomination on the Democratic ticket for the office of County Assessor at the primary nominating election to be held in this county April 17, 1908. If nominated and elected, I will pursue the present policy of the office and assess all property according to law and to the best of my ability. Respectfully, S. F. PAGE.
