

City and County Brief News Items

NOTICE.

To the patrons of School District No. 21, Enterprise, Wallowa County, Oregon:

For the purpose of making a correct enumeration of all the children of school age in the above district, you are hereby requested to make out a list of all your children from 4 to 19 years old inclusive, giving their full names and ages and names of parents or guardians.

C. M. Lockwood, clerk of above said district, will call at your residence on November 25th (next Wednesday) for the list.

By order of the Board of Directors,

C. M. LOCKWOOD,
Clerk District No. 21.

BURNAUGH & MAYFIELD.

Fred Savage, bookkeeper for W. J. Funk & Co., returned from Portland, Wednesday, where he had been to see his father, whose leg was fractured in three places by a horse he was riding slipping and falling on the limb.

G. E. Mayfield of Elgin arrived on Monday night's train for a visit with his son, Mayor Byram Mayfield. When Mr. Mayfield was in this valley last, some 30 years ago, the settlers were few, the towns none and the Indians plenty.

J. P. Sanders has returned to his first love, the draylag business. He is using an ordinary wagon for the present but expects a fine, brand-spanker new dray of the latest Broadway fashion in a few weeks. His splendid team has a good familiar look on the streets again.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Funk and baby went to Hot Lake Wednesday for a stay at the sanitarium in hopes that the baths would benefit Mr. Funk's health. He has been suffering from rheumatism. County Commissioner Sam Litch, who accompanied his partner to Hot Lake, returned Friday night.

Mrs. Herman Sonne, nee Ethel McCully, left on Monday's train for her home at Baker City, after a visit in Joseph and here with relatives and friends. She was accompanied by Mrs. Tony Morgan, who after a short visit in Baker City with Mrs. Sonne, will return to her home at Turlock, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wagner spent Monday in Lostine. Mr. Wagner intended going on out to Elgin on business, but got left at Lostine while trying to find a conveyance for Mrs. Wagner from the depot to town. No harm done for he got another trip the next day, going out to Elgin on Tuesday's train.

F. S. Bramwell of La Grande, president of Union Stake, L. D. S., who came in Saturday to conduct services in the opera house, was accompanied by Mrs. Bramwell and their three children. They were the guests of their old friend, L. J. Jordan, and family. F. C. Bramwell, register of the U. S. land office, was also accompanied by his wife and child. All returned to La Grande Tuesday morning.

The Electric theatre has two very attractive programs for this week. The Mystery of a Diamond Necklace, that was a part of Friday night's performance was pronounced to be one of the finest films ever shown here, and on Saturday night the program includes the famous piece, "In the Days of Louis XIV," that has won great praise in the papers of the large cities. Shrader & McCully are sparing no pains or expense in securing the best for their patrons.

BURNAUGH & MAYFIELD.

The Thanksgiving ball given by the band will be preceded by a concert from 8 till 9 o'clock, when the ball opens with the grand march. The balcony is reserved for spectators.

The opera house was crowded to the doors Friday night and everybody seemed to enjoy the program given by the Jubilee Singers. It was the same troupe that was here last January.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. McReynolds were the guests of honor at a welcoming surprise party at Mr. and Mrs. Oren Wagner's, Saturday night. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed. Light refreshments were served.

Mrs. Kate Connor, who came from her home in Iowa last September to visit relatives at Elgin, came into Enterprise on the first train and is a guest of relatives, her niece, Mrs. Lon Wagner, and nephew, T. C. Long.

W. O. Bishop was in Enterprise Friday night. Mr. Bishop returned a few days ago from Nome, Alaska, where he had been three years in the meat business. He says Nome is on the down grade and might see the bottom at that. It is a "busted" mining camp. Mr. Bishop is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Bishop, of Wallowa.

Six members of Eagle camp, M. W. A., went to Joseph Thursday night and visited Chief Joseph Camp. The visiting neighbors were treated royally and participated in an oyster supper that will not soon be forgotten. The wives and sweethearts of the Joseph members were present, and a delightful program of music followed the supper and "talks on the good of the order."

Emerson Reavis has a tenth birthday anniversary Friday and his Sunday school class of the Presbyterian church were his guests to help him properly celebrate the occasion. His mother, Mrs. A. C. Miller, and Mr. Miller were also guests and helped partake of the delicious supper. The boys had lots of fun playing games, one of which, putting nuts in a can balanced on your head, was especially jolly. Howard Lewis won first prize, a French harp, and Gilbert Steel the booby, a plow made of a potato and toothpicks. In the evening the boys were given an advance Christmas treat by Mrs. Miller, who took the entire party to the Jubilee Singers. The members of the class are Emerson and Herbert Reavis, Morris Knapp, Clifford Knodell, Gerald Graves, Howard Lewis, Clayton Hendrickson, Gilbert and Robert Steel.

WEDDING BELLS.

Jack Cole, one of the best known farmers of Lost Prairie, and Miss Myrtle Thomas of Flora, were married in the parlors of the Lewis Hotel in this city Tuesday afternoon of last week, Rev. W. P. Samms officiating.

Miss Mae Duncan and Mr. J. S. Williams, two estimable young people of Joseph, will be married at the home of the brides' parents on Thanksgiving afternoon, Rev. A. L. Howarth officiating.

Taft's Plurality is 397.

Taft carried Wallowa county by 397 instead of 407 as given in the News Record of November 7. An error of 10 in addition was discovered after the paper went to press. Taft's total vote was 999 instead of 919.

COLLECTING OLD DEBTS.

Sheriff Edgar Marvin and Deputy Charles Crow are making a reputation as collectors as well as sleuths. In the past few weeks they have collected $743.16 of taxes delinquent prior to the 1907 roll, by sending out the written letters. On November 9, the sheriff made a turn-over of $7641.37 to County Treasurer Bell.
