W. W. ZURCHER

OSTEOPATHIC QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

What is Osteopathy?
Osteopathy is a system of treatment, chiefly by manipulation, that has met with such remarkable success in the fifteen years in which it has been known to the public in the United States, that it has won a most extensive support, and has over five thousand practitioners.

What does it treat?
It has a complete system for the treatment of human disease. In acute cases it is just as successful as in chronic.

Do Osteopaths use any means beside manipulation?
Certainly. While correction of anatomical irregularities is fundamental, many simple appliances, such as are used in the sick room by all schools of practice to give relief and comfort, are at our command.

Mr. and Mrs. Lapham of Joseph visited acquaintances Saturday in Enterprise.

Mrs. Minnie Hollembaek of Aledo, Illinois, arrived Monday for a visit with her son, Ralph B. Hollembaek, and family.

F. Y. Mulkey of Monmouth, Ore., returned last week from Rochester, Minn., where he received medical treatment in a sanitarium. On his way home he stopped in Enterprise to look over the country in Wallowa county, going finally to his home in Monmouth. He was well pleased with this section of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McDonald of Wallowa returned to their home in that city Monday morning. Mrs. McDonald gave a report of the national Sunday school convention which she attended, and which was very enthusiastically received at the union services held at the Presbyterian church here Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. McKnelly came in from Portland this week, and are registered at the Hotel Enterprise.

Mr. McKnelly was here about three weeks ago in the interests of the New York Life Insurance company and was so much pleased with the country and climate that on his return he brought Mrs. McKnelly with him. Mr. McKnelly is an Illinoisian and was for many years manager for the company in Southern Illinois.
He has written a number of prominent Oregonians during his brief residence in this state. He was very successful during his recent visit here. Among the policies written were C. P. Ragdale $20,000, Fred W. Falconer $20,000 and James A.
Pink $10,000. Others who do not wish their names mentioned bring he total up to $85,000.

Mrs. Dr. Moore and sister, Dr. Pur-lum left Enterprise Monday morning for Flora. The latter will practice osteopathy at Flora in the future. Mrs. Moore will remain here with her sister for a few days, joining Dr. Moore on their way to Kansas City where Dr.
Moore will take special work during the summer in osteopathy.
During the summer, too, Dr. and Mrs.
Moore will visit the former's mother at Santa Rosa, Calif. After almost a year in special work in Kansas City, Dr. and Mrs. Moore will locate in Portland permanently. Dr.
Moore is a member of the Oregon State Medical board, and during the recent examination held in Portland attended officially. One hundred and four practitioners were examined, 13 of whom were of the osteopathic school.

day evening to be present at the July session of the circuit court which began Tuesday morning.

Clarence S. Samuel, assistant manager of the Oregon Life Insurance company, is transacting business in Enterprise and the Wallowa Valley cities. Mr. Samuel is a genial, engaging young man and knows insurance from a to z.

J. M. Shirley of the "Palouse" country, Washington, drove through the country to the Imnaha district, east of Enterprise, passing through here Monday. Mr. Shirley may locate in the Imnaha country. He is acquainted with the Stewarts living in that portion of Wallowa county.

Mrs. J. G. Rennie and children, Clara and Alice, and Mrs. Howard Wagner, left Wednesday morning for Portland, called there by a message announcing the serious illness of Mrs. Rennie's father, R. H. Price, who had suffered a stroke of paralysis. Mr. Price was a former resident of Enterprise having brought in and operated the first transfer and baggage wagon ever in Enterprise.

Mrs. J. H. Long, nee Miss Ethel Laxwell, formerly of this city but now of Lewiston, Ida., arrived in Enterprise Tuesday to visit her mother, Mrs. Sarah Maxwell. Mr. and Mrs.
Long drove across country from their daho home.

Soreness of the muscles, whether induced by violent exercise or injury, is quickly relieved by the free application of Chamberlain's Liniment.
This liniment is equally valuable for muscular rheumatism and always affords quick relief. Sold by Bur-naugh & Mayfield and all good druggists.

The lumber industry of Wallowa is daily becoming a more important factor in the growth of the town. From a paltry shipment of 22 cars in the last 12 months, the exportation proposes to reach nearly 20,000,000 feet during the coming year.

Dr. Arthur C. Boggess, who for several years past has held the chair of history and economics at Pacific university, will not be connected with the school next year, but will probably leave for India to take up missionary work.

Teething children have more or less diarrhoea, which can be controlled by giving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. All that is necessary is to give the prescribed dose after each operation of the bowels more than natural and then castor oil to cleanse the system. It is safe and sure. Sold by Burnaugh & Mayfield and all good druggists.
