COME.

The Wallowa County fair is going to be a hummer.

"Back East" they would have to qualify such an assertion by "if the weather is favorable."

But out here in glorious Oregon the weather is always favorable. Even Sunday School Picnics are held off on the day and date set far in advance.

The moral of all this to people living in the effete and weather stricken East is "Come to Oregon"; and for people already in this land of fair skies, Come to the Big Wallowa County Fair.

GREAT RIDE.

There is no prettier, more enjoyable ride in Uncle Sam's broad domains than the one from Wallowa Valley to Flora. In bright, bracing, autumnal weather, under miles and miles of stately, fragrant pines, beside the brink of awe-inspiring Joseph Creek canyon, no greater outdoor treat can be found.

And with the North End fair at the end of the ride next Wednesday or Thursday, that is just the

Chicago at	$33.00

and from other cities correspondingly low. These are Westbound, one-way fares only, but anyone here can prepay for relatives or friends in the East, if desired. Consult local agent.

Now Is the Time to let the world know of our vast resources and splendid opportunities for home building. Write to everyone you know in the East. Send them good instructive printed matter, and tell them that the cost of getting here is but little more than half the usual cost, and to call on a representative of the O. R. & N. Co. for all desired information, or address

WM. McMURRAY
General Passenger Agent Portland, Oregon

When you are in need of good printing come to this office and have it done right time to take that ride. You never will regret it if you go.

BIG DOINGS AHEAD.

Even our home people don't realize the magnitude of the stock sales that will occur each forenoon of fair week.

Just think of 800 high grade horses of them pure bred, and the hundreds of cattle, sheep and swine that will be auctioned off.

It will be the biggest thing of the kind ever in Oregon.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.
(Articles under this head are Paid Advertising.)

L. Couch of Wallowa.
This paper is authorized to announce the candidacy of L. Couch for county commissioner, subject to the decision of the Republican voters at the primary election.

W. T. Bell, Treasurer.
W. T. Bell, present treasurer, announces he is a candidate for the nomination for the office of county treasurer, subject to the will of the Republican voters at the primary, September 21.

If State Printer Dunlway has made a saving to the tax payers of the state of $40,000 in three years why does he not show it by facts and figures? All this great saving is credited to utterances by the state press through articles probably written or inspired by the State Printer himself. In fact all such savings were made by the Secretary of State under conditions over which Dunlway had no control. The figures quoted by William J. Clarke, the Republican, flat salary candidate who stands alone as pledged to this great reform are taken from the records in the Secretary of State's office. They are "material and contain facts and figures which the voter and taxpayer should know," says Judge Gallo-way (democratic) circuit judge of the Third District.

Republicans and others should read the arguments, published in the Current Practices pamphlet, supplied by William J. Clarke and Willis S. Dunlway, and then decide who was telling the truth. Which one is the taxpayers' friend?

OPEN LETTER NO. 2--RUSK TO HOCKETT.

Joseph, Oregon, Sept. 12, 1910.
To Dr. C. T. Hockett, Enterprise, Oregon.

Dear Doctor:—Having been a delegate from Wallowa County to the late Republican Assembly at Portland I am surprised that you neglect to defend the assembly scheme a public debate with me. Your silence leads me to believe that you prefer to keep your assembly views out of sight as much as possible. I am opposed to assemblies: you favor them. I favor the people's choice for U. S. senator. Do you? If you do, were you not lonesome among the delegates to the late Republican assembly at Portland? Do you know of any assembly, state or county, that has named or favored a single, solitary man who favors the people's choice for Senator? Being an assemblyman you don't believe the people are capable of choosing their state candidates directly. How about their ability to choose their U. S. Senator? Can they do that or should this be thrown back into the Legislature? Come, let us throw away our political "gum shoes" and declare ourselves upon these questions.

Yours very truly,
JOHN P. RUSK,
Republican Candidate for Re-Nomination for Joint Representative Union and Wallowa Counties.

Laid In a Stock.

When the late Pierre Lorillard was a boy, his mother, being annoyed by moths that destroyed the woolen clothing and other material of the household, agreed to pay him a cent apiece for every moth he would kill in the house and bring to her. The same bargain was made with his brothers, Jake, George and Louis. In course of time Mrs. Lorillard noticed that while the other children collected from her at intervals from 10 to 25 cents, Pierre drew on her frequently for a $1 at a time, indorsing his drafts with 100 dead moths. Investigation revealed the bent of the future financier as well as his early adaptability to methods governing the acquisition of wealth. Having procured from a furrier some pieces of fur thrown away because they were infested with moths, Pierre secreted them in an old chest in an unused closet. There the quickly accumulating moths were banked, to be drawn upon whenever the inventor and perfecter of the enterprise required pocket money.

Knighted Actors.

It is an odd fact that of the English actors knighted all but one had first to legalize the names under which they had won fame. The question arose with the first proposition to confer knighthood on a gypsy. It would be absurd so to honor one John Henry Brodrick. Yet legally no such person as "Henry Irving" existed. No such obstacle had to be overcome when, on the occasion of Victoria's diamond jubilee, Squire Bancroft knelt before his queen and arose sir squire. However, the three actors knighted by King Edward bore cognomens of their own invention. Sir Charles Wyndham was born Culverwell, and Sir John Hare, Fairs. As for Sir Herbert Beerbohm Tree, his brilliant wife once put it "Tree is a fantastic thing we just tacked on. We're all plain Beerbohms—plain as brother Max"—Argonaut.
