London, Nov. 11.--A London supplementary declaration to the armistice terms was signed to the effect that if the German battleships are not handed over, owing to a munitions state, the allies will reserve the right to occupy Heligoland as an advance base to enable them to enforce the terms.

GREAT CELEBRATION ARRANGED FOR TONIGHT
There has been a continuous celebration in the city today, and tonight the hilarity over the joyful news that the war is over will reach its climax at a big bonfire at the railroad park. The band will be out, and everybody with their "noise-makers" will be present. A word of caution has been sounded, owing to the influenza epidemic, and everyone is cautioned to wear a gauze mask. As a result of the recent celebrations in other cities over the war news, there is said to have been many more cases of the dread disease reported.

AMERICA GAINS EVERY POINT FOUGHT FOR

PRESIDENT SAYS IT IS OUR DUTY TO ASSIST IN ESTABLISHING A JUST DEMOCRACY

CROWDER CANCELS DRAFT CALLS

Men Who Have Not Completed Training to Be Turned Back to Civilian Life

Washington, Nov. 11.--The following proclamation has been issued by President Wilson:

"My Fellow Countrymen: The armistice was signed this morning. Everything for which America fought has been accomplished. It will now be our fortunate duty to assist by example, by sober, friendly counsel and by material aid in the establishment of a just democracy throughout the world. The president further states: "Thus the war comes to an end, for having accepted these terms it will be impossible for the German command to renew it. Armed imperialism is at an end. Its illicit ambitions are engulfed in black disaster." (Signed) "WOODROW WILSON"

MAY TAKE TWO YEARS FOR ARMY TO DEMOBILIZE

WAR DEPARTMENT MAKES PLANS FOR RETURNING SOLDIERS TO CIVIL LIFE

ARMISTICE HAS ENDED DRAFT

Release From Army to Follow Selective Plan in Organizing--Will Educate the Men

Washington, Nov. 11.--America's armies will be a year or two years returning and demobilizing.

That is the general war department estimate today, though the department is doing nothing toward demobilizing until it is assured that Germany has fulfilled the armistice terms.

Demobilization plans, however, are all made.

In fact, they were mapped out along the mobilization plans by the general staff. On the whole, the demobilization will follow the selective system. Men longest overseas and those most needed in industry will be the first returned.

The shipping problem will offer some difficulties.

Britain plans to withdraw her transports from the American service, taking care of her Australian, Canadian and Indian troops. Hence, the process of returning will be slowed up immediately. Still another phase of demobilization which spells a year or two years of foreign service for many troops is the need for police duty abroad.

One phase of the demobilization calls for return of men to this country for sending them to camps and feeding them back into industry as industry adjusts itself.
