A SILVER MAN.—Silver all over, inside and out, is Seth Hammer, the Salem lawyer. Now he is a silver knight and wears a shimmering silver suit. Upon examination it proves to be a beautiful check of the finest wool made by Lane, the tailor.

PROBATE.—J. J. Shaw administrator of the estate of W. J. Herron today petitioned the county court for an order to sell property of the estate at Astoria at private sale, to secure funds for expenses of administration.

CHICAGO WHEAT.

September, opened 90c.; closed 89 1/2 c.
December, opened 82 1/2 @ 83 c.; closed 82 1/2 c.

May, opened 86 1/2 c.; closed 86 1/2 c.

The Liverpool market opened with spot wheat easy. Futures dull. No change in figures since yesterday's close.

There is no new feature in the market today. The gold syndicate still seems to be bearing.

THE GRAIN MARKET.

The Salem mills dropped to 40 cents Tuesday and have been paying that today.

The Southern Pacific's low rate on oats is causing some shipments to California.

Salem brewery is paying 35 to 40 cents for barley.

THE FRUIT MARKET.

continues to be firm. The Oregon Fruit & Produce Co., ships only on consignment and sends two carloads of silver prunes and pears east tonight. The first carload of pears was shipped this week from Shaw Station. Thirteen Goodell refrigerator cars of fruit will go east this week from Salem. O. F. & P. Co., send eight and E. H. Rhodes ships five cars of Wallace orchard pears. Melon shipments from California continue.

The first two cars of pears shipped from the Wallace farm went direct to London consuming 17 days from the time of shipment from Salem to England. Only first-class fruit can stand that sea voyage. Those pears left here August 24 and should be in London September 10. Fruit now crosses the Atlantic in six to seven days. This lot's arrival will be anxiously awaited.

THE MONEY MARKET.

is quite easy. A great deal of money is being put out on hops by Salem banks, one bank loaning $150,000 to $200,000. Bankers figure that at the lowest hops will bring 6 to 7 cents and possible 9 to 10 cents. There is no trouble in men of good standing getting money to make their crop with.

SALEM PRODUCE MARKET.

Live bees sell for 2 1/2 to 3 cents; sheep for mutton $1.50 per head; live hogs, 3 1/2 cents; calves are scarce, worth 4 cts dressed with hide on; horses, no market. Bacon at wholesale is worth 8 1/2 cents; hams 1 1/2 cents; lard 8 1/2; should 6 1/2. Tallow is worth 5 cents, tried out.

OREGON WOOL IN BOSTON.

From the American Wool Reporter we take the following quotations of Oregon wools at Boston: Eastern Oregon 12 1/2 to 13 1/2; do average 10 to 11c; do heavy 9 to 10c; valley No. 1 12 to 13c; do No. 2 14 to 15c; do No. 3 15c; lamba 12 to 13c.

WESTERN OREGON.

Weather: Light sprinkles of rain occurred on the 20th and 21st, in most places not being more than a few drops; it was not sufficient to do any damage, nor to even lay the dust. The wind blew from the south for several days, which, together with the rain falling over the forest fires of Western Washington, decreasing there the supply of smoke, the smoky condition of the atmosphere has been much relieved during the week, but the past few days it has been increasing again, especially in the southern counties, and within a few days dense smoke will again prevail over the entire portion of Western Oregon, except along the immediate coast. The temperature was lower than during the preceding week; this is especially true of the maximum temperature which averaged from 68 to 80 degrees, as against 70 to 90 degrees of the preceding week; the minimum temperature ranged from 46 to 60 degrees. The season of high temperature for any length of time is now about over for this year, and for several weeks longer temperatures such as have been experienced during the past week may be expected. General or destructive frosts do not, as a rule, occur much before October 15th, except on the higher elevations, where frost may occur, to do damage, from and after September 20. The general movements of the atmosphere, i. e., the course of the storm era, indicate the near approach of the commencement of the rainy season. As a general thing rains do not become heavy and general until the latter part of October, but it is probable that September will have more than the average rainfall.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder

Crops: Harvest of cereals is over and threshing is now being completed. There will be little threshing to be done after the close of the current week. Though the season has much dryer than usual, yet there is a fair degree of satisfaction expressed by the correspondents over the general results of the year's labor. The corn is doing very well. It would be materially benefited by rainfall.

Peaches and pears are ripening rapidly. The weather is moderately favorable to them, yet a greater amount of sunshine would be beneficial. Prunes are ripening and within the next ten days pruning will be in active operation.

Hops continue to be in a fair state. The weather is in their favor; warm, sultry weather produces greater activity among the lice, and there has been an absence of them this year; lice are present, however, yet most of the hop-yards are in good condition. Active preparations are now in progress for the picking of the hops, which will commence within the next ten days.

Owing to the long period of dry weather the grass has dried up, more so than usual, and as a result the dairy interests are affected quite materially. Several correspondents report a decreased milk supply from the cows.

STATE HOUSE NEWS.

Governor Lord Will Be More Strict With Bills.

Weather forecast for Thursday, fair; stationary.

J. A. Rumble, Joseph, Or.; E. J. Cowle, Geo. W. Hoyt, Portland, and J. A. McCall, Ashland, were today appointed notaries.

An expensive bill of $116, presented at the executive office yesterday for the arrest and return from Walla Walla of a man wanted at The Dalles, was allowed by Governor Lord with much hesitancy. The governor expressed himself as intending to scrutinize more closely than ever, all bills against the state in connection with requisitions, and will particularly object to allowing the railroad fare and other expenses of an officer in visiting Salem to secure a requisition, because the matter can have as careful and prompt attention by mail, at almost no expense. Stricter rules for procuring requisitions will, it is understood, soon be adopted. There will be no variation from this course, except in very important cases.

Married.

DOWE—SEARS.—Frederick J. Dowe and Miss Maude Isabella Sears, of Marion county, were married today in St. Paul's Episcopal church, by the Rev. Laurence Sinclair.

A select company met to witness the ceremony among whom were the parents of the bride who was given away by her mother.

HANGED HIMSELF.—August Duller, a patient of the Insane Asylum, hanged himself by a small rope on the back of a chair. He made a noose, put it around his neck, laid down and strangled himself. The coroner's jury acquitted the asylum authorities of all blame.

VERY PRODUCTIVE.—A. W. Veach, of Englewood, yesterday sent THE JOURNAL the finest limb of plums of the season. It has two branches not over a foot long, and contains over 60 big plums. It broke off from its own weight.

NEW WALK.—Hon. J. Q. Wilson has begun work putting down a cement walk on the south and west sides of his residence. This will be a good improvement, and, by the way, Liberty street is setting the pace on cement walks this year.

A LONG RIDE.—J. W. Danton and family, consisting of a wife and four children, left today by team to Ventura, California, where they will make their future home. They will be joined at Eugene by Henry Rogers.

VALLEY LOCAL NEWS.

North Howell Prairie.

Rev. Royal, of Brooks, was a caller in the neighborhood last Saturday. Eddie Bartosch, of Portland, is visiting relatives and will spend the hop picking season here.

J. Cutforth burned one of his feet quite seriously last week by stepping on the ground over a root to a burning stump. He sank in over shoe top and his shoe filled with hot ashes and dirt.

The McPoland threshing outfit are doing some satisfactory work and at present are on the farm of Geo. Weeks, the rustling dairymen.

The Stevens and Waltman crew are now on Webster Smith's place and have thrashed the most of the grain in that part of the prairie.

John Johnson, of this place will begin picking hops next week using the same crew that will pick for P. K. Johnson, his father, who owns a yard near Mt. Angel.

The Epworth League will give a benefit social on Thursday evening of this week. Ice cream and cake with watermelons will be served by the young ladies who are also preparing a musical and literary program.

Aumsville.

THE JOURNAL agent and correspondent struck Aumsville last week. We told him that we would subscribe for THE JOURNAL if he would remove the present correspondent, which he immediately promised to do.

Thrashing is finished in this immediate vicinity, the yield has been satisfactory. All got more grain than they expected. All they want now is for silver to increase in price so that they can get a good price for their wheat as they believe that the moon regulates the quantity of wheat and silver the value.

Mr. Crum has moved from Aumsville to "Klas" addition to Aumsville.

We are going to have a bicycle ordinance in Aumsville. It will forbid any one carrying a light or bell on the bicycle, for people, whenever they see a light, or hear a bell, always jump in front of bicycles. The Aumsville riders are intelligent beings and can guide a bicycle in safety providing people are not frightened by a light or bell to jump in the way.

Most people who visit Salem on a bicycle, furnish themselves with a bell and light. This thing should be made

Last week we saw a track in the dust, which looked as if made by a long snake. Following it up it proved to be Bert Heath on a bicycle doing some fancy work.

Thomas Johnson looks natural in the mill again.

Charlie Cole lost something last week.

The Aumsville mill is paying 46cents per bushel for wheat and the Stayton mill 48 cents per bushel. A large amount of wheat has been taken in.

People visiting Aumsville will remember that they can get first-class meals and accommodations at the Southern Pacific hotel.

John Porter was in town last week.

The Santiam Mines.

W. P. O'Donnell, who is interested with Manager W. B. Lawler in the Santiam mines, returned to the work today on his way back from Portland, where he had been to get some assaying.

A new 30-inch ledge of very rich ore was recently struck in the Red Bull mine, which makes a satisfactory assay. The machinery for the forty stamp mill arrived at Albany today and will be hauled to the mines from Mill City, as the bridge on the road from Gates is in bad shape. Sixty men are now at work and on Sept. 2 the crew will be increased to 75 men. Good miners can secure employment there now. The mill will be in operation by Nov. 1. Many visitors and prospectors are in that country now, and it is expected that when the work of this company becomes known many local enterprises will take hold of mining in this section.

THE JOURNAL AND YATMAN

Let's see: last time Yatman got $1,500. How much will he strike the town for the second time?

We are very sorry to have to call Brother Hofer down on the above statement. It is not correct, and we think that when Mr. Hofer finds it out he will make the necessary correction. After Mr. Yatman left Salem the finance committee who had the matter in charge made a report and had it published in the Statesman. From that report we make the following extract:

For railroad and sleeping car fare from San Francisco to Salem... $32 50
Eleven days board at Hotel Wil-lamette 33 80

Total.....$66 30

In addition to the above there were three free will offerings given Mr. Yatman. What these amounted to no one knows, but it is certain they did not exceed $15 a collection. That, then, would aggregate say $45. Now $45 added to the $66.30 would make the whole expense of Mr. Yatman's meetings amount to $111.30. Of this Mr. Yatman actually received no more than $45—probably not that much. This is a very different thing from $1500.

Mr. Yatman is an excellent man and a powerful preacher, and while here did a vast amount of good. Our people will be glad to welcome him back to Salem. They will give him a rousing and enthusiastic reception. He will speak but on one occasion—Tuesday, the 17th of September. If Mr. Hofer has any doubts about his popularity in Salem, all he will have to do will be to attend the meeting when this grand evangelist arrives.—Salem Post.

We gladly accept and publish the above correction from our respected contemporary. It was our impression that Mr. Yatman sold books and took a good deal more money out of the community. With so many of our regular churches poorly supported, and the Y. M. C. A., certainly also a very worthy institution, being almost abandoned because the rent and secretary cannot be paid, it is certainly time to spend less on the wandering evangelists like Mills and Yatman who come
