ANNOUNCEMENT.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of COUNTY ASSESSOR subject to the will of the county Republican convention.

d-w J. A. VAN EATON.

THE ASYLUM APPROPRIATION.

Editor Statesman:—I notice a column in THE CAPITAL JOURNAL of last evening denouncing the supreme court for its decision in the Eastern Oregon asylum case. Is the editor of THE JOURNAL the same man who voted in the legislature for the $140,000 for that asylum? INQUIRER.

Salem, Feb. 18th.

The above is printed in the Salem Statesman, and the only reply necessary is the fact that when the last legislature was in session the Eastern Oregon asylum case was still before the supreme court and the original bill passed by the previous legislature was simply re-enacted, and no one opposed it,as it was considered merely a matter of form. The senate bill to re-enact the appropriation was read three times and passed the house under suspension of the rules on February 14th, with but one opposing vote, Mr. Tigard, of Washington county.

It was a matter of courtesy to the Eastern Oregon people and of decency to the supreme court to re-enact a bill that was still before the court. Not to have done so would have been to take the case out of the hands of the supreme court, and the fact that Governor Lord signed the bill ought to convince anyone that there could be no impropriety about a Marion county member voting for it. Besides it is admitted that more accommodations for insane are required in Oregon and had to be provided by an appropriation for a new building or wing to the present asylum at Salem, or elsewhere. The small-bore Statesman who seeks to make capital at the capital city by opposing necessary appropriations or opposing men who voted for them is in very small business. THE JOURNAL is not fighting the location of a branch asylum in Eastern Oregon. If the supreme court had declared in its first decision that a branch institution could be located anywhere in Oregon and that it would be constitutional it would have cut the whole controversy off short. But it has three times refused to construe the constitution, and the people are getting tired of legal technicalities and want a square decision.

THE JOURNAL predicts that no Eastern Oregon asylum will never be built. Some money has been levied in this year's state tax levy, but no contract has yet been made. It is much to be doubted if a contract can ever be made or enforced, or if money is collected from the taxpayer if it can ever be expended under a law so clearly unconstitutional as that creating the Eastern Oregon asylum. THE JOURNAL is not condemning the supreme court, or the location in Eastern Oregon. It is simply insisting on the constitutional limitations being applied in all cases for the protection of the whole people. THE JOURNAL has been willing at all times to accord the people of Eastern Oregon fair play and a chance to develop their resources. We favored the Eastern Oregon asylum appropriation and the appropriations for the portage railways because we believe it is fairness and justice to the producers and taxpayers of those sections. But if the constitution stands in the way it is not our fault, and we do not therefore or thereby consent to a violation of the constitution, not even if the supreme court says so.

LOG-ROLLING APPROPRIATIONS.

The people understand what is meant by log-rolling for appropriations. It is the easiest and most unscrupulous way to get public money for improper purposes.

The people well understand that the Portland ring politicians got control of the last general appropriation bill; and that, owing to the deadlock killing a great many bills carrying appropriations, they loaded some of their schemes and jobs to reward their pets and favorites upon the general appropriation bill. The lower house knocked out a good many of these, but the senate, entirely controlled by President Simon and his crew, promptly restored them.

In Oregon the governor has no power to veto items in the general appropriation bill.

The bill must be killed in-toto, and all appropriations stopped for two years or a special session held, or the governor must approve the bill.

In California the governor, under the new constitution, has the right to veto any item in the general appropriation bill. The constitution should be amended to this effect in Oregon. It will be remembered that Governor Budd, of California, vetoed nearly a quarter of a million of the items in the bill there. He was warmly applauded for doing it. Not only should he have that power but the constitution should prohibit the legislature from inserting any items in the appropriation bill but those providing for the current expenses of the state government and its departments. Then spurious legislative propositions carrying appropriations would have to stand on their merits.

Following from the San Francisco Call is of interest, as bearing on this subject:

STOCKTON, Feb. 15.—Governor Budd was present today at a meeting of the directors and members of the San Joaquin Valley Fair association, and in the course of his indirect comments on President Shippee's statement, alleged to be derogatory to his official treatment of the district associations, he made some interesting statements in regard to his veto of economy. In regard to the vote of the fair appropriation bill, the governor said that a number of the senators who came to him to urge its passage had counted upon his being favorable to aiding the district fairs out of the state treasury, inasmuch as he was on a note for $6,000 with other directors of the association.

He said that the brag had been made that they could bring an influence to bear upon him which would force him to sign the bill.

"When I heard that," said the governor, "I cussed."

The governor believed that the people were taxed to death last year and he was determined to stand by his promises of an economical administration. If it had not been that he believed that it would entail considerable hardship upon some of the inmates, he said he would have vetoed the appropriations for two of the state insane asylums, as the present system is entirely unnecessary.

Further, the governor said that he would be in favor of consolidating San Quentin with Folsom, closing the former institution, as under one management the criminals would be cared for at a far less expense to the state.

When asked why he approved the bill granting aid to the state fair, he said that that institution seemed to stand in great need of temporary aid, and that, as a state fair, it was a state institution.

He said that he considered that he had saved the state $196,000 by his record, and he would continue to veto all bills which he considered a grab into the public treasury.

After some dicussion among the directors and members of the association a committee of twenty was appointed to devise ways and means for raising the debt and continuing the fair without state aid. President Shippee did not attempt to refute any of the governor's statements, but stated privately that they would refute themselves.

THE REAL AMERICAN.

Yesterday marked the birth of the anniversary of Abraham Lincoln. With true appreciation and respect the representative American men assembled in banquet halls and public places and offered up their most eloquent tributes to the honored and beloved name of Lincoln. A period of eighty-seven years has elapsed since the birth of that great American and a period of thirty-one years since he was ruthlessly cut down in all the glory of his sterling manhood still fresh, and its commemoration will ever keep ablaze in this republic the spirit of free government and true humanity. No character in all American history has been a safer or truer guide in the maintenance and love of Republican principles than that of Lincoln; in the world's history there is recorded no better friend of humanity, nor one whose unselfish life has left such a deep imprint upon the human race. The anniversary of this great and good man's birth calls the men of this nation out of themselves; it causes them to forego, for a while, their petty propensities and mark the example of a genuine man. The name of Lincoln, at all times, appeals to the American nation with feelings born of admiration, love and pity. Our great and successful men of affairs have come out of their counting houses and other places of self aggrandizement, and have poured out their sincere tributes to the honor of his name. When all their eloquence in his praises have been spent, and all their fervid tributes paid, his name adamantine-like will endure through the coming ages and will be forever the corner stone of the American republic. Lincoln's character will never die, save when the nations of the earth have been consumed and perish.—Astoria News.

What Does It Mean.

[Sauthern Orrgon Monitor.]

State Senator C. A. Cogswell, the well known politican of Lakeview, who recently changed his party front by leavim the Democratic party and declaring allegiance to the principles of Republicanism, had a 850 write-up and double column portrait in Friday's Oregonian. It is stated that doughty senator was once a Republican but came to this section when the district was overwhelmingly Democratic, and from that time ou affiliated with the Democratic party. Mr. Cogswell's prominence increased until, after his election at jointsenator to represent Klamath and Lake counties in the state legislature, he came to be recognized as the political pooh dah of that portion of the bunch grass region. He is an attorney of recognized abilit as his career in the legislature indicates. With the aid of the Portland ring he secured a fee of $2000 in the last general appropriation bill, for legal services in reclaiming from the general government certain lands, for the state of Oregon, although it is admitted that his interest in the reclaimed lands was equal or greater than that of the state. He repaid for the assistance necessary to get this appropriation through by holding the Democrats in the legislature bound to a party nominee when otherwise they would have assisted the cause of silver by voting for a silver Republican for United States senator.

The decline of Democratic power in this judicial district has brought with it the impossibility of success of the doughty senator's ambition through that party, and besides his short association with the ring was very enticing. So a few weeks ago he had published in his home paper that he would hereafter affiliate with the Republican party. Of course, in his eminent position, his following at home would increase rather than decrease, and then, whatever he wants his metropolitan friends can help him to.

But what is it. Some papers intimate that he would be a presidential elector, others a delegate to the national Republican convention, and still others intimate he is after numerous ather offices. It is usually the case that when a staunch partisan comes over to the enemy he is hailed with delight and accorded a hearty welcome. Republicans in Western Oregon have failed to do this in Cogswell's case. Is it on account of his record, or do those who for years have been faithful in the ranks fear that his only desire is to be present at the killing of the fatted calf?

The most interesting feature of the interview referred to above is Cogswell's inclination to dictate party policy for his new love. He syas:

"There is a considerable number of Republicans now arrayed with the free silver element that the party will have to slough off. This loss will be made fully good by accessions from the Democratic party."

If his ditum is correct the "time honored principles" of both parties count for naught and the dividing line will be made on new issues and each name given a different meaning.

VALLEY LOCAL NEWS.

AUMSVILLE.

The spiritualist held a meeting in "Hien" hall this week. Miss Cooley delivered a very interesting lecture on spiritualism. Several spirits visited their friends through the influence of Miss Cooley, gave good advice to their friends, and some good information. But there was one poor, lone, forsaken spirit that could not find its friends; and its friends could not or would not recognize the spirit. We hope the poor thing has found rest.

At the church Tuesday night we were favored with a musical feast, by Professors Darby and Vanburn, who performed on the organ. The congregation were greatly entertained. The church now has two organs. The professors can now both play at the same time.

The protracted meetings continue. Rev. Cain gives us some very instructive sermons. The interest is good, and a number have decided to become Christians.

James W. Moyer has built himself a windmill on his lot. He now wants to buy or borrow a well.

We are sorry to record the death of Mrs. Geo. Baynard. The funeral took place on Monday. Her death was very sudden and unexpected. She leaves a husband and four small children, who have the sincere sympathy of the entire community.

AN ALARMING STATEMENT CONCERNING WOMEN.

HOW BAD HABITS ARE FORMED.

The New York Tribune says: "The habit of taking 'headache powders' is increasing to an alarming extent among a great number of women throughout the country. These powders as their name indicates, are claimed by the manufacturers to be a positive and speedy cure for any form of headache. In many cases their chief ingredient is morphine, opium, cocaine or some other equally injurious drug having a tendency to deaden pain. The habit of taking them is easily formed, but almost impossible to shake off. Women usually begin taking them to relieve a raging headache and soon resort to the powder to alleviate any little pain or ache they may be subjected to, and finally like the morphine or opium fiend, get into the habit of taking them regularly, imagining that they are in pain if they happen to miss their regular dose."

In nine cases out of ten, the trouble is in the stomach and liver. Take a simple laxative and liver tonic and remove the offending matter which deranges the stomach and causes the headache. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are composed entirely of the purest, concentrated, vegetable extracts. One Pellet is a dose; sugar-coated, easily swallowed; once used, always in favor. They positively cure sick headache and remove the disposition to it.

Mr. E. VARGASON, of Otter Lake, Lapeer Co., Mich., writes: "I not infrequently have an attack of the headache. It usually comes on in the forenoon. At my dinner I eat my regular meal, and take one or two of Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets immediately after, and in the course of an hour my headache is cured and no bad effects. I feel better every way for having taken them—not worse, as is usual after taking other kinds of pills. 'Pleasant Pellets' are worth more than their weight in gold, if for nothing else than to cure headache."
