CONGRESS CONTEST.

Douglas County Republicans in Session.

TONGUE IN WASHINGTON

Linn County Inclined to Favor Mr. Hermann.

The Douglas County Republican convention is in session today. A report will be received at hour of going to press.

Associated Press report: The congressional delegation contains five pronounced anti-Hermann men; three who are distinctly for Hermann and two who will vote for him probably on the first ballot. The majority of the anti-Hermann votes are for Harry Miller as first choice, but there is a strong feeling favoring Timon Ford and he will get a good vote if the support of Miller is unavailing.

The Albany Democrat says: The districting of the county will divide the delegation between Ford and Hermann, with the former probably in the lead.

There is evidently more wire pulling against Hermann than for him. It was circulated for political effect that he had lost the delegation in his own county, when as a matter of fact he had it solid. It is none of the Democrat's business, but there is nothing like fair play.

FOR DEFEATED CANDIDATES. Defeated congressional candidates should consider these openings for employment: "Oregon needs a few more useless commissioners and the following new officials are suggested in order to consume the surplus state funds: State rabbit chaser, irrigation agitator, creek crucifier, artificial rain-maker, alfalfa inspector, prune examiner, hop howler and inspector of forests reserved."—Antelope Herald.

WASHINGTON COUNTY A Hillsboro telegram says of the Republican county convention:

There was no instruction given the congressional district delegates, but the convention, by a standing vote, endorsed Thomas H. Tongue as its candidate for the congressional nomination. Every delegate in the convention stood up to be counted, and this unanimous endorsement of Tongue's candidacy created the greatest enthusiasm.

WOODBURN, April 3.—City primaries were held here last night, and nominated the following ticket, to be voted upon next Monday at the municipal election:

Walter L. Tooze, mayor; Walter Durant and O. A. Nendel, councilmen for two years, and C. L. Ogle, for one year; F. A. Ford, recorder; William Broyles, marshal; W. E. Finzer, treasurer.

It was a harmonious meeting and party lines were not drawn.

A Rapiat Lynched. NASHVILLE, Tenn.—A telegram from Tupelo, Miss., sixty miles southeast of Memphis, says this morning at two o'clock a young negro about 18 years old was taken from jail by a mob and lynched in front of the court house. The negro was in jail on a charge of attempted rape.

Teachers' Association. COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., April 3.—The Southwestern Iowa Teachers Association is to meet here three days beginning today. Prof. G. W. T. Patrick, of the Iowa State University, will deliver a lecture on "Child Study and Its Practical Results."

NEW CITIZEN.—Peter Gordon, a native of Russia, has perfected his citizenship papers in the office of county clerk Ehlen, and renounces allegiance to the Czar.

WEATHER FORECAST.—Fair Friday night and Saturday; warmer.

(BY THE BYSTANDER.)
It is still Hermann or Ford.

Both Mrs. Lease and General Weaver are lecturing on "Christ or Caesar?"

Jo. Simon wins in Portland. He should be beaten in the state convention on every proposition.

G. B. Hartman, of Lyons, is a Grand Army man, and has a place on the Linn county legislative ticket.

The other fellows had the votes. But Jo. Simon had the law and the official control of the primaries.

The people of Woodburn have put up one of their most enterprising citizens for mayor—Walter L. Tooze.

Let Jo. Simon have Multnomah county. Marion county and the rest of the state can take care of him very nicely.

It must be a moral sensation for Harvey Scott and Jo. Simon to be fighting a ring. A good deal like the devil fighting sin?

The last legislature is always a safe thing to abuse. It is gone; it will never be back. It has nothing to reward with and no power to punish.

Mr. Geer is a good man to have around when there is a hard campaign on. But he has altogether too much brains for the bosses when there is no fighting.

Let all the dirt-eaters and camp-followers get down on their knees and worship the little $800,000 Portland boss. The decent people of Oregon never will.

Alex Stauff, of Arago, is the Republican nominee for representative in Coos county. From his name we judge he is a German, and will be a hard man to beat.

The men who are abusing the last legislature were mostly fawning upon it until all chances of getting a clerkship were gone. And that's the way they'll do with the next.

Governor Pennoyer will be brought out for mayor of Portland by the Populists of Portland. Well, he'd make a better mayor than half the men down there who want the office.

Col. Geo. Goodhue's Poultry Journal for April is the best class paper ever printed in Oregon. It's the cock of the walk for enterprise and enthusiasm among Salem publications of any kind. There are some statements in it about a Salem editor that are not too true.

The Statesman has been trying to seduce itself into the belief that it was anti-ring, anti-Oregonian, anti-Jo Simon. But it felt so happy this morning over the little reformer's victory that it printed the Oregonian's squeal of triumph twice verbatim, and once besides.

In Umatilla county E. J. Davis and John S. Gurdane were renominated for the legislature. They are of the best type of clean men—anti-ring, for economy and for the people. If they are defeated for election the people of that section should quit talking about reforms.

All reports about the McKinley club at Woodburn bolting any part of the Marion county Republican ticket, are false, as several of the leaders assure THE JOURNAL that they will not only support the whole ticket but go on the stump for it. The fun is all over and the earnest work of the campaign will begin. There are no better workers since the rebuilding of Jerusalem than those same McKinley boys, or men who spend their money more freely.

W. G. Westcott, of Salem, is not a candidate for sheriff in the Democratic ticket. He says he wants the strongest man put up and will do all in his power to elect him. As usual he will this year be found spending his time and money freely in the interest of his party. In every legitimate manner, the Democrats of Marion county know "Billy" Westcott will assist in promoting the interests of his party. While he would run well on the ticket himself, he prefers to help others and in this unselfish way promote the welfare of the organization in preference to any personal ambitions.

LAD UP.—Janitors Graham and Albright, of the state house force, are still off duty.

PORTLAND PRIMARY.

Simon Wins on the Face of Returns.

HAS 74 TO 50 DELEGATES

Further Details by Associated Press Report.

PORTLAND, April 3.—Joseph Simon was victorious at the primaries, which were held to elect delegates to the Republican county convention Saturday. The convention will stand as follows: Simon delegates, 64; anti-Simon, 50. Never in the history of Portland has there been held a primary election attended by more turbulent and disgraceful scenes. From 1 o'clock until 5 yesterday evening, when the polls closed, a struggling, howling mob surged about the polls in the second and third wards, and at least one-half of the respectable voters were crowded out and prevented from casting their ballots.

Simon had enlisted in his behalf Sheriff Searse and 200 deputies, while the opposition, led by Mayor Frank District Attorney Hume and Chief of Police Minto, were assisted by the entire police force of the city, in addition to 150 special police sworn in for the occasion. During the afternoon a deputy sheriff in the second ward fired his revolver in the air which was the signal for a general rout. One man received a battered head, while another man had an ear cut off by a razor in the hands of a negro. Simon carried the first, second, fourth, fifth and sixth wards and three delegates in the eighth ward. The anti-Simon men won in the third, seventh, ninth, tenth and eleventh, and got five delegates in the eighth.

THE RESULT—LATER.

The Oregonian claims 68 delegates for the Reformers and 35 for the Frank-Hume-Minto combine. It says: "It was stated last night that the judges of the third ward refused to certify to the returns from that ward, and there may be a contest. It is possible that the Frank faction will contest the returns from the tenth ward. Their headquarters were dark last night, and no one in authority could be seen for a statement of their plans."

The fact seems to be no one can tell how the county convention will stand. The country precincts will be anti-Simon.

Mount Tabor, South Mount Tabor, Mount Tabor Villa, Russellville, and Killgaver were heard from. In none of these was there a contest.

BOARDING HOUSE VOTE.

Some of the polling places were in the lowest kind of sailor boarding houses, where the adjoining buildings were packed full of hobos and floaters that swarmed out by hundreds when the polls opened and stood in line so numerous that actual citizens could not vote if they wanted to. That is the true story of the Simon packed primaries. These voters, of course, were not taxpayers.

OREGON RIVERS. For rivers in Oregon the lower Willamette and Columbia get $50,000; Coquille, $20,000; Siuslaw, $27,000; Upper Coquille, $12,000; Upper Willamette and Yamhill, $20,000 and contracts authorized for $200,000; Columbia below Tongue Point, $50,000.

A BOLT PROBABLE. The anti-Simon faction are very sore today, over the result of yesterday's primaries, and they threaten to bolt the convention tomorrow.

PENNOYER ENDORSED.

PORTLAND, April 3.—A so-called taxpayers' convention today endorsed the nomination of Ex-Governor Pennoyer for mayor.

DEMOCRATS WILL ENDORSE.

The convention also nominated a full county legislative and county ticket. It is expected that the Democrats, at their convention tomorrow, will endorse most of the ticket, including Pennoyer.

A CATHOLIC VIEW.

Simon's Treachery to Both the Catholics and the A. P. A.

PORTLAND, April 3.—The Catholic Sentinel yesterday said: "Geo. C. Sears is running for sheriff in today's primaries. Two years ago, when the A. P. A.'s were active, our people did not know who was or who was not their friend. They voted almost as a unit for Sears, and he was elected. The same vote of our people, cast against Sears, would have defeated him. He promised two or three of our people recognition in his office. He not only broke his word, but he surrounded himself with enemies of our people."

Joe Simon has made a bad combination with this man Sears. It was Joe Simon who two years ago made a dicker with the A. P. A. vote; and, as the price, turned down Charlie Malarkey and Justice McDevitt.

The A. P. A. members in the legislature knifed Simon, beat Dolph, and killed the bill for a charter for a Portland board of public works. If Simon wins today, will his A. P. A. allies knife him again? Probably not, as it is said the A. P. A.'s get all the city offices, giving Simon the legislative offices so as to beat Mitchell for United States senate.

The cry about lower taxes and lower salaries for city officials, is a blind; it is a cry of stop thief. There is not a law as to taxes in Portland, nor a salary of a city official, that is not the work of Joe Simon. When he was making a bluff in the last legislature about cutting down salaries, he was told if he would offer a bill making the reduction commence June, 1896, it would pass without opposition; but he would not consent to such a reduction unless the bill carried his charter, which was to give him absolute control of Portland through a board of public works, the members of which he was to be allowed to name in the bill.

Mr. Simon wants to beat Senator Mitchell, and he wants to go to the U. S. Senate himself. To this end he has combined with the A. P. A.'s, many of whom being free silver men, have sold out to a goldite, the price being the city office."

GROVER STILL FIRM.

Absolutely Refuses a Third Term.

FOR A GOLD STANDARD.

And No Concessions Whatever to Bimetallism.

CHICAGO, April 3.—A special to the Times Herald from New York says: President Cleveland has written a letter stating positively and without conditions that he will not under any circumstances accept a nomination for a third term. The letter, it is said, was written three weeks ago and is in charge and care of the Secretary of War Daniel S. Lamont. It is no wise intimates any doubt of Democratic success in the future and no deviation or defection from Democratic principles as expressed by Mr. Cleveland in the past. It speaks of the public and of the party standing firmly by sound money, and he declares against the slightest concession to silverism, whether at 16 to 1 or any less ratio. It reiterates all of Cleveland's positions in favor of tariff reform and for a tariff on "tariff for revenue only" lines.

STATEMENT DENIED.

Secretary Lamont today denied that he had a letter from President Cleveland, declining to be a candidate for the presidency. From another, and unquestionably excellent source of information, it is learned that no such letter has been written by the president. President Cleveland has fully decided not to be a candidate for re-nomination, and Secretary Carlisle will go before the Chicago convention as an aspirant for the Democratic nomination on a sound money platform.

Ten Millions.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—The river and harbor appropriation bill was finished today by the house committee, which has been working on it most of the session. The total amount carried by the bill is a few thousand less than ten millions or about a million below the bill of the last congress.

A HARBOR OF REFUGE.

The appropriation for Port Orchard, at Grove Yard Point, of $203,000, is authorized, and the balance of the appropriation for a harbor of refuge on the Pacific coast to be used at this point, Tillamook bay and bar, of $17,000.

OREGON FARES WELL.

There are also provisions for contract works to the amount of 50,000,000. Among other appropriations are the Oregon Yaquina Bay contracts 1,000,000; continuing $25,000; Coos Bay entrance $95,000, dredging $14,390.

A PRIVATE TELEGRAM.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—(Special to THE JOURNAL.)—The river and harbor bill was reported today. We hold all items secured in committee, and Oregon fares well. (Signed.) BINGER HERMANN.

Arizona's Governor.

Washington.—The senate committee on territories today authorized a favorable report on the nomination of B. D. Franklin to succeed Governor Hughes, as governor of Arizona.
