WHITES THREATENED

Buluwayo at the Mercy of the Matabeles

TREACHEROUS NATIVES.

Horded Together for the Purpose of Massacre.

BULUWAYO, April 18.—A feeling of apprehension as to what the next step of the revolting Matabeles will be permeates all circles here.

The fear of treachery is added to the apprehension of overwhelming numbers. Many indications point to a connivance with the war parties of supposed friendly natives.

On Wednesday evening, three Dutch scouts were sent out from here to secure some definite and accurate information of the position and movements of the natives.

A Matabele "boy" has also been caught stealing badges belonging to the Rhodesia horse, and it is believed that it was intended to use these for the purpose of disguise to further some treacherous project for taking Buluwayo at a disadvantage and killing the inhabitants.

But there is little more confidence left in the natives who belong in the town than in the hostile men who it is believed, are surreptitiously being introduced to aid from within when an attack shall be made from without.

is had with the south, both the one to Tuli and the one to Mafeking, are felt to be in peril. There are, undoubtedly, large numbers of hostile natives between Buluwayo and the settlements to the south, some of them in open revolt. The situation is felt to be most serious and threatening.

CONFIRMED. CAPE TOWN, April 18.—Military men, scouts, Dutchmen and English civilians of all classes, veteran troopers and government officials concur in the statement that the governor of Cape Colony, Sir Hercules Robinson, has not told the truth if he notified the home government that Buluwayo is no danger.

Without doubt the knowledge that a part of the Salvation Army has been sending its funds to Canada, and that the revenues of the entire force have been levied upon for Dominion work, will hurt the cause of the old army materially and be of corresponding benefit to the Ballington Booth movement.

By causing it to be known that every dollar he receives will go into American relief work, Ballington Booth should be able to give his volunteer enterprise an excellent start.

LANCASTER, Penn., April 18.—E. K. Smith an ex-banker of Columbus, was today sentenced to imprisonment for two years and five months on two convictions of embezzlement.

LIFE SENTENCE.

OTTAWA, Ont., April 18.—Mrs. Bell, for cruel treatment to her grandchildren, was today sentenced to life imprisonment. She punished a boy of 15 and a girl of 16 with the most fiendish tortures her ingenuity could devise.

Stripping them to the thinnest clothing, she would soak them in cold water and compel both of them to sit before open windows when the temperature was several degrees below zero, until their attire was frozen stiff.

On one occasion the boy was kept at work in the cold, improperly clad, until his toes were frozen and dropped off. The children were fed verminous mixed with noxious fluids, like kerosene, turpentine and worse.

A Murder Mystery.

DELUTH, April 18.—August 22, 1894, the body of a woman was found on the lake shore of Minnesota Point. When the cape, which covered the head, was removed, blood spurted from the nose and from a wound in the back of the head.

The skull had fractured with a heavy oak stick which was lying near. About three feet away was found a switch of false hair and a comb. A Minneapolis lady identified the comb and other articles as belonging to Lena Olson, of that city.

The murder was traced to one A. A. Austin, for whom the police have since been searching. It is supposed Allsop, arrested at Seattle, Wash., yesterday, is Austin.

Death of Ira Stroud.

Mr. Ira Stroud, the innocent victim of the bullet from the revolver of Owen Bond, died at Halsey at 11:45 o'clock last night, April 16, 1896, at the age of 41 years.

Mr. Stroud was for many years residing in Benton county, where both his parents are buried. For several years at times he has been connected with the Linn Dressed Beef Company, and at the time of the fatal shot was buying cattle for the company.

He was a man of reliability, steady and upright, popular among his friends, and his death is sincerely mourned. Mr. Stroud was single, never having been married.

The funeral will occur at 9 o'clock a. m. tomorrow at the M. E. Church, and will be conducted by Rev. J. T. Abbott. The remains will be taken to the Mountain View cemetery across the river for burial beside those of his parents.—Albany Democrat.

Stage Held Up.

GRANTS PASS, April 18.—The Grants Pass and Crescent City stage, coming this way, was held up about two miles this side of Kerby, about 28 miles from this city, yesterday, about 11 a. m., by a lone highwayman, who held a Winchester on Driver Pills and ordered him to throw off the mail, there being no express service on this line, and to drive on. This Mr. Pitts did, but drove only a few yards then stooped to look back, when the robber followed up and ordered the driver to move on, which he did, but only for a short distance, and again stopped to take in the situation. The robber thereupon became frightened and took to the brush, leaving the mail unopened.

The stage was driven back and the mail recovered, arriving here about an hour late. The highwayman is described as a tall man, having a deep, coarse voice. He wore a mask made of dark-colored cloth. The officers are in search of him.

IMPROVEMENT NOTES.

Street Repairing—The Court House Squares Work Proceeds.

The street commissioner is having some good work done at filling the mud holes in our business streets with gravel, removing the muck and thus perfecting where needed.

The stump-puller was set to work today removing the soft maple trees around the court house. Hereafter, farmers will have to find other places to stand teams. There are plenty of good sheds in town where horses can be cared for out of the wind and rain for 5 or 10 cents.

The court house square should be set with ornamental trees and shrubs that will not grow so high as to hide a view from one part of the city to another, or shade the windows. The grounds will be filled and graded at 24 cents a yard, cubic measure. Archie Mason has the contract.

THE WALLACE ORCHARD.

Inspected By President Bloss and Prof. Hedrick. J. M. Wallace, manager of the "Willows" fruit farm, President Bloss of the state agricultural college, and Professor Hedrick of the chair of botany and horticulture, have been out today to make a thorough investigation of that fruit orchard.

The Oregonian reporter said today, by inadvertence, no doubt that "the growth of this fine orchard seems to have been impeded recently." The gentlemen returned at 1 o'clock today, and reported that the orchard is in a fine thrifty condition.

President Bloss is considered an authority on tile drainage and was invited down to consider that feature of the work. Mr. Wallace has about 5,000 feet of tile in the orchard now and will put in a great deal more this year. The orchard, like many others is troubled some with black spot.

Mr. Wallace is in close touch with the best horticultural authority and is making it the model orchard of Oregon. He says the frost has not done as much harm as was anticipated. There will be a large crop of pears and cherries.

The apple crop will be magnificent and all other kind of fruit will be plenty. Professors Bloss and Hedrick returned to Corvallis by boat.

RIVER NEWS.

The following from the Eugene Guard may be interesting to Salem boating circles: "The recent high water has accomplished what Captain Hatch and his crew were unable to do. It has raised the government snag boat Corvallis from its bed on the bottom of the Willamette at the mouth of Meeks' slough and started it slowly on a journey down the river. The boat was keeled over on one side, but has now righted and is being shoved slowly down stream by the strong current.

With regard to proposed excursion next week between Albany and Portland, the Democrat says: "The Albany orchestra, the Albany band and the people of Albany will ride on the Albany on an Albany excursion from Albany to Portland on Friday, April 24."

Steamer Elmore came down from Corvallis early this morning. After taking on a shipment of flour and feed at the Salem Flouring mills, she left for Portland. The other boats are running on schedule time.

To AWARD THE PENANT.—The Intercollegiate Athletic advisory board consisting of one delegate from each of the Willamette Valley Colleges, met in called session at the Willamette University this afternoon. It will be remembered that no formal award of the foot ball penant was made last winter and the meeting today is called to decide to which college the penant should be awarded. At press hour the meeting is still in session and no decision has yet been reached.

His Last Drunk.

PORTLAND, April 18.—This afternoon an unknown man, in an intoxicated condition, was caught in the fly wheel in the basement of the Oregonian building and instantly killed.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a tablespoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer $100 for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75 cents.
