SOCIAL REVELATIONS.

Some Personal and News of the Doings of Oregon People.

Miss Ida Bailey went to Independence last evening on the Altona. Mrs. Olive S. England has returned from the state grand lodge at Astoria.

Miss Kate Wheelan, of Independence, is in the city, the guest of Miss Josie Creighton. Banker A. Bush and daughter Miss Sallie, went to Portland on the Salem local this morning.

Mrs. M. E. Adams returned to her home at Marion this morning after a short visit with Salem friends. Mrs. Brooks of the Waldo Hills is visiting her grandson, Clyde Brandenburg who lives near the penitentiary.

Mrs. N. J. Burford, of Brownsville, is in this city, visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. B. Gardner, on High street.

Mrs. E. H. Flagg was called to Astoria, by the death of her uncle, Mr. Searoy, a fisherman, who was killed in an encounter with Union fishermen.

Mrs. Minnie Neville and little son, Albert, leaves tonight on the overland for Dunsmuir, Cal., where she will make her future home with Mrs. Ingham, who with her sister, Mrs. Dr. Philbrook, accompanies her.

In these hard times poor people flourish and even editors are favored. There was born at Gervais, Friday morning, May 22, 1896, to Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Clarke, a daughter, Mr. Clark caused the Gervais Star to twinkle.

"BELLE OF SARATOGA." Willamette chapel tonight—grandest musical treat of the season—admission 10 cents—to help the musical society.

LEBANON MUSICAL. Prof. Z. M. Parvin assisted by Miss Marguerite Alliderson and Mrs. Akers and Lundell, of Albany conservatory of music, gave a musical at Lebanon last evening. Owing to inclemency of the weather only a small crowd was out but the excellence of the entertainment more than made up for the small attendance.

CHICKEN SUPPER. A large crowd attended last night at the First Presbyterian church, where the only item on the program was the chicken pie. It was the first opportunity of the members to meet Rev. and Mrs. Steele and a pleasant social time was had by all. The new pastor and his family were made at home in the cordial Salem way. The Congregational society also gave a chicken pie dinner and had good attendance from 5 to 8 and realized a nice sum.

MINNONTITE CONFERENCE. P. P. Steiner, Pendero, O.; J. A. Amstutz, Bluffton, O.; Rev. S. K. Springer, Berne, Ind.; Rev. C. Kaufman, of Oortown, S. D.; Rev. J. J. Balzer, of Mountain Lake, Minn., arrived in the city this morning as delegates to a conference of the Minnontite church to be held at the Waldo hill church. The conference will meet Sunday holding over Thursday, Wednesday a Sunday school convention will be held. Rev. J. C. Baer, of Bluffton, O., traveling minister for the general conference of the Minnontite church, is also in attendance. Rev. A. A. Sonimer, of San Diego, Cal., arrived here Friday and will also attend the conference. Delegates from Coifax, Wn., arrived last night and a number came down from Eugene today.

A PLEASANT TRIP. Judge and Mrs. L. D. Henry arrived on the Saturday morning overland, from an extended trip through the East. They started the 18th of November, first going to St. Paul, where the judge attended the Northwestern Immigration convention, he being a delegate. They visited Mr. Henry's mother and sister, in Sioux Falls, S. D., also the judge's brother, in Missouri. They stopped in Chicago, and at Chataqua Lake, and visited Judge Henry's mother and sister, in Manchester, N. H. After going to Springfield and Boston, Mass., they returned by way of Cincinnati, Birmingham, New Orleans, Los Angeles, San Jose and San Francisco. They have enjoyed their trip very much, but are glad to reach Salem, and to be at home again.

REV. GRANT ON SALEM. Rev. Grant has concluded his three steroptical lectures at Salem. He had distressingly small audiences and in the afternoon showed some temper because with all the public schools dismissed in his behalf he had not a hundred present. Friday evening he was again greeted by a small crowd and said he had concluded to take some pictures of Salem, but now he would not do so and would show only a cypher on Salem when he lectures on Oregon in the East. It is to be regretted that Rev. Grant came at such an unfavorable time. He is an able man and his mission is no doubt a commendable one. But hard times and a surfeit of lectures, entertainments and free shows operated against the Grant lectures.

OPEN LITERARY MEETING. Last evening the Philodorian Literary society of Willamette university entertained its friends in a royal manner. A most pleasing musical and literary program was rendered, Misses Myra and Ethel Raymond played a lively duet and the recitation "Engineer's Making Love" by Miss Esther Collins was exceptionally well delivered. Miss Bessie Burkhardt read an amusing paper on "Prophecy" which was greatly enjoyed. The surroundings of each member of the Philodorian society ten years hence, was told by Miss Burkhardt much to the amusement of the parties particularly concerned as well as the visitors. Miss Georgia Davenport, one of Salem successful young vocalists, sang a beautiful solo and kindly responded to an encore, Miss Clara Scott, one of our accomplished elocutionists, recited a pleasing selection. The drama "A Scene from the Merchant of Venice" by Misses Mabel Carter and Miss Ethel Hughes, representing Portia and Narissa, respectively, was indeed a rare treat. These highly successful elocutionists are entertainers of unusual ability. A selection by the Heritage Lady Quartette was omitted owing to the non-appearance of the vocalists, after the program a very pleasant social hour was spent by the young folks.

Coxey at Salem Monday 2 p. m. PERSONAL. Geo. Dunsford visited the Reform school this morning.

Receiver F. R. Anson will spend Sunday in Portland. Attorney Park returned from a business trip to Albany.

ERIE MEDICAL CO., BUFFALO, N. Y.

TO "LIEUTENANT" (?)

S. R. Hammer, My Dear "Lieutenant" (?)

In THE JOURNAL of the 22d inst you have published quite a lengthy communication concerning myself and incidentally touching upon your social standing and your legal and military career. Although my friends have unanimously counseled me to ignore your letter I shall treat you more courteously by following the advice of King Solomon to "answer a fool according to his folly." To answer you categorically is rather a difficult matter, because your letter, like your pleadings in court, is diffused contradictory and nonsensical.

In the first place you say that in the Plum case Mr. Plum committed perjury, and Mr. Hamilton deceived him in fixing the fee. You say I asked Plum $300 for a fee. Then next that he refused to pay that amount. Then that Mr. Hamilton was referee, and that he fixed the fee at $1,200. A school boy would see at once that you were a misguided seeker after truth, but you seem to be quite unconscious of it. Look at your position. Every one except a befuddled pettifogger, like my dear friend the lieutenant, can see how absurd these statements are. You are generous (?) enough to say that I did not write the names of these parties to those documents, or fill in the amount $1,200. Now my dear lieutenant, try again, and get your decimal points in position. Do you yet comprehend that your own letter, when it states that I only asked a fee of $300, and that the referee fixed it at $1,200, shows conclusively that you were either drunk or crazy when you wrote it. In addition to the apparent absurdities on the face of your letter, I wish to direct your attention to the fact, that in order to cast a slur upon me, it was necessary for you to charge Mr. John A. Plum with the crime of perjury, and intimate that Mr. Hamilton was dishonest. It is likely you will hear from both of these gentlemen in a different way in a very short time. It may be hereafter shown as it has been in the past, that you are a moral leper, devoid of all character, except an unenviable one.

The only defense that you can successfully interpose is, that you are an imbecile; and everybody who knows you will believe it. If you are ever tried outside of the limits of this county, for any of your shortcomings, by all means obtain a change of venue to Marion county, where every man, woman and child will freely grant you a fool's pardon.

Next you say I am an immigrant from Toronto, Ontario. That is true Lieutenant. What is wrong about that? I am Irish by birth, but resided in Toronto for some years. I have seen many people in both Ireland and Ontario, but I am sure that neither of those countries can produce such a paragon of nothingness as you, and all these United States, with their vast territory and teeming population, can only show one of your species. I have come here without your permission, and intend to remain. I do not like to be invidious, but I cannot refrain from saying that the merchants and business men of this city have derived more benefit from my living here for the last seven years than from a whole colony of such nondescripts as you during a whole lifetime. Moreover, I am only one of five millions who are coming. Some day the whole Dominion of Canada will annexed to and become a part of this Union, and then if you are alive doubtless the name of the New Nation will be the United States and Hammer.

The other matters mentioned in your screed are too trivial to be noticed. Your statements are devoid of truth or common sense.

One of the points you wish me to discuss is your legal ability. I can't do that, Lieutenant. You haven't any. It is hard to explain a minus quantity.

Next comes your military record, but as that is not written in the annals of history, I can only refer to some of your comrades. They say that you spent all your time on the reservation, and as this paper is read by decent people I must not go into details.

Socially your standing is somewhat like your legal ability,—minus again. Next time you undertake to speak of the high regard in which you imagine the citizens hold you, just tell us new comers how and why and for what cause you are no longer a mason; nor considered fit to associate with honorable men.

Some of my opponent's friends in the country precincts of this county are saying that the Republican members of the bar of this city are opposing me; and I am glad now that you have come out openly so that people may see your false pretensions. Your friends will now know to what "bar" reference was made.

In conclusion I wish to say to you that I never like to engage in a combat with a skunk, and therefore if your next communication should be unanswered you have my excuse in advance.

Yours, etc., JOHN A. CARSON.

SALEM, May 23, 1896. P. S.—Convey my congratulations

Will be the admission at Reed's opera house Sunday night, when Herrmann the Healer will once more demonstrate his power to heal the sick. Coming from all over the state to be cured by Herrmann the great Healer. His office at the Willamette Hotel, daily crowded with anxious visitors. And still the Godlike work of healing afflicted humanity goes bravely on. Day after day crowds of the most prominent and refined of the city of Salem and vicinity may be seen waiting their turn for consultation. Many are just commencing treatment, who for years have considered their afflictions hopeless and uncurable, but who were led to take this treatment after personally witnessing the many phenomenal cures performed upon the public stage, and then investigating their condition afterwards, for the purpose of satisfying themselves as to the permanency of a cure by animal magnetism; while others may be seen emerging from the treatment rooms, their story, some bidding the boy and the girl their eyes, a "God bless you" and an expression of praise and gratitude sufficing their joyful comment, that is most happy and pathetic in the extreme.

So much has been written concerning the wonderful powers of Herrmann the Healer, and the many marvelous cures he has performed during the past week; that to those who reside out of the city it reads like a romance. So startling have been many of his cures that not only the laymen, but the medical world as well, stand aghast in utter surprise and bewilderment at the power, so strong and marvelous as to be able to break up congestion in a few moments' time.

His private rooms at the Willamette hotel have been crowded the past week with patients from every town and hamlet within a radius of fifty miles of Salem, who have been daily being accomplished by Herrmann the Healer are taking advantage of his appearance here and through his office with patients afflicted with nearly every disease in the catalogue of chronic complaints.

In this 19th century science has made rapid progress in treating with disease in every form. Research and study have brought to light many remedies that are invaluable to suffering humanity, but, without doubt, the greatest and grandest discovery made in the annals of medical science for the amelioration of chronic diseases, centers upon human magnetism as the one great healing power whose potency is unquestioned and unrivaled.

The citizens of Salem and the surrounding towns have had an ocular demonstration of this magnetic power the past week, and an opportunity to judge for themselves, by personal observation and interviews with many of our prominent citizens, relative to the permanency of good and lasting results as a result of their treatment, both upon the public stage of Reed's opera house and at his private office in the Willamette hotel.

The many surprising cures he has accomplished, of cases that had been pronounced hopeless and given up as incurable by all other modes of treatment, has resulted in all doubts as to its efficacy that existed prior to its appearance here. The people have been convinced, skepticism has vanished and today the public are firm believers in the wonderful curative power of vital magnetism, as possessed and exemplified by this great Healer.

The management, realizing the lamentable fact that there are still a great many poor people in Salem afflicted with diseases supposed to be incurable, but which would readily succumb to magnetism, and who were disappointed in not being able to obtain the healing of their own friends; have, have generously decided to treat the poor and admit absolutely free; therefore, the poor who are the most seriously afflicted, such as the lame, deaf, cripples on crutches, and those suffering with rheumatism, paralysis, and neuralgia, will be admitted free and treated free upon the stage of Reed's opera house tomorrow, Sunday night, May 24.

When sick, is the time we need the best advice and treatment; therefore we say, inform yourselves, you who are sick, visit the reception parlors any day and witness with your own eyes the healing of your own friends; go to their homes, talk with them, and then act as your best judgment dictates.

Dr. W. K. Vance, the physician in charge, not only treats the deaf, lame, blind, and rheumatic, but at all times, in his personal direction, Herrmann, the Healer, treats nearly all chronic diseases of this marvelous gift from birth, which yields to this strange power. Catarrh, incipient consumption, chronic bronchitis, chronic diarrhoea, neuralgia, nervous prostration, dizziness, Bright's disease, epilepsy or fits, tics, hysterics, liver complaint, kidney troubles, scrofula, grows throat disorders, impotency, and in fact nearly all chronic diseases yield to animal magnetism in the hands of this famous magnetist.

Herrmann, the great healer in Salem for 10 days only, at the Willamette Hotel. The management of this wonderful of all Magnetic Healers has secured private parlors at the Willamette Hotel where all those who desire private treatment may call from 10 a. m. until 4 p. m. For a few days only, until Thursday afternoon, with full diagnosis of your disease in all cases, $1. Tickets can be secured at reception parlors Willamette hotel. Ladies' reception parlors only on Ferry street, every day only, 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. For ten days only, the office at hotel, will open and close sharp on Sundays.
