DIAMOND THIEF CAUGHT

James Walters Arrested for Stealing Rich Gems

Had Sold Ten Thousand Dollars Worth on This Coast and Has Many Left

Minneapolis, Jan. 23.—James Walters was arrested here this morning charged with robbing Baroness Badstue of $6000 worth of diamonds in the Colonial Hotel, at San Francisco, three weeks ago. The police believe he is one of the most important thieves and confidence men in America. On his person, when arrested were $12,000 worth of diamonds. Walters confessed to having disposed of stones worth $15,000. He was captured at the National hotel, where he registered under the name of R. Stafford, Seattle. William Kerry, said to be an accomplice of Walters, was later arrested at the depot. Both men were preparing to leave for Chicago.

Walters says of the $15,000 worth of stones he sold in the last three weeks, he sold $10,000 worth in Tacoma, Spokane and Seattle. Attention was attracted to him in Minneapolis by his disposal of several gems.

San Francisco, Jan. 23.—A detective leaves tonight for Minneapolis to bring Walters back. The local police say the amount he stole was $10,000. He is said to be one of the most daring hotel operators in the country. When he came here several months ago from Salt Lake he had $5000 worth of diamonds. The police are now trying to learn how he came in to possession of them. Walters' home is in Los Angeles where his parents live. The police give the baroness' name as Von Horst.

Walters has confessed to robbing the baroness.

FIRE BELOW THEM

Chicago, Jan. 23.—At noon today a fire broke out on the third floor of the Frielanders. On the upper floors of the building there was a panic among the thousand occupants, who fled precipitately to the stairways and elevator. The building is sup-

TRAIL OF THE TORNADO

Thirty - Eight Dead, Twelve Fatally Injured

All Cars Blown From Side Track Except One and That Was Loaded With Coffins

Birmingham, Jan. 23.—Today's reports from Moundville show 38 dead of whom 32 are negroes. Sixty-five were injured, 12 fatally, and but two of these are whites. Aid is being sent from here today. Two hundred persons are rendered homeless and are suffering. A feature of the storm was that every car on the railway side tracks was destroyed save one, which was untouched. On opening it it was found to contain coffins.

posed to be absolutely fire proof.

A number of girls succeeded in getting down to the 18th story by flight down the stairs. The fire burned so rapidly that within 20 minutes 10 rooms on the third floor were a mass of flames, cutting off the elevators and stairways, and filling the building with dense smoke. The building is 21 stories. After the elevators stopped, the windows on the 17th story filled with men, women and girls. The police attempted to pacify the crowds and keep the streets open, but without avail. It is but half a block from the Froquois.

A telephonic report from those marooned in the upper stories of the sky-scraper says there is no danger of a panic there, although several women swooned, but were taken care of by the various office forces.

Many of the tenants suffered from inhalation of smoke, but none seriously. Walter Parker was badly burned, and William Danby seriously cut by falling glass. The firemen say, notwithstanding the supposed fire proof construction, the building would have been gutted, had not the alarm been quickly given and responded to.

At 1 o'clock the flames were under control. The damage will be between $20,000 and $30,000, largely caused by the down-falling flood of water through the lower floors.

ADVERTISING ITALIAN PRUNES AT ST. LOUIS

Dear Sir:

Representative prune growers of the Pacific northwest in a meeting held in Portland, Ore., in connection with the N. W. Fruit Growers' Association, decided to make a united effort to have a practical demonstration at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition to be held at St. Louis this summer, of the utility of the Italian prunes as a food product and its beneficial results on the general health of the consumer. Knowing that every individual prune grower is directly interested in increasing the consumption of our product, that the only valid reason for the present indifference of the American public for our prune is a lack of knowledge as to its real value, that the most successful businesses are those that advertise extensively, continually we have decided to start a prune propaganda at St. Louis.

To do this requires at least ten cars of prunes donated by growers, packers and associations. However, if we can receive donations say, at the rate of 1000 pounds per car, much better results can be accomplished. This amount is but small when compared with the results to be obtained at this exposition. These prunes should be of 40-50 size in 50 pound boxes to keep in good shape through the dry summer weather. The plan of the committee regarding donations, is to have a receiving agent in each section of prune growing territory, this agent to solicit contributions of prunes and cash, to receive, receipt and store the goods until such time as they are forwarded to a central shipping point. If a person has already disposed of his crop, a cash contribution will be equally acceptable as prunes. Prunes of a smaller size than 40-50's will be exchanged by the committee for standard goods. Transportation of the goods to St. Louis has been donated, we shall endeavor to have it donated in small lots to the central agency as well.

The plan of the committee at present is to have a prune room where the individual pack of all packers may be placed on exhibition, where daily demonstrations of cooked prunes will be served (on the same lines as the breakfast foods are advertised), with a practical person in charge to distribute suitable literature and answer all questions.

As these goods must be shipped by about the first of March, it is necessary that we act with decision and promptness in this matter, that every recipient of this letter constitute himself a committee of one to donate to a good cause and secure as many from his neighbors as is possible.

It is a golden opportunity that we cannot afford to let pass and if it is entered into with the proper spirit by every individual interested in the welfare of the industry, we can introduce our goods to the American people in an attractive form, create a permanent demand for them that will place the grower on a solid financial footing and the prune industry in the foremost rank of horticultural in the northwest.

In conclusion we wish to again impress on you the necessity for immediate, liberal and united action. "In union there is strength." Our motto, "Let no guilty man escape."

Thanking you in advance for your earnest and hearty co-operation in this matter, we remain

Yours respectfully,
B. CUNNINGHAM,
For the Committee.
