German Evangelist.

Evangelist H. B. Roller, of Huntington, Ind., will preach in the German M. E. church, corner of Union and Church streets tonight at 8 o'clock. He will also preach at same place and hour Wednesday and Thursday evenings. All German people cordially invited. He is the only evangelist of the German M. E. church; has traveled in Europe, and is an interesting and entertaining talker.

Glory Tickets.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to James C. Clark and Fanny L. Peyser, and one today to Hartley Bonney and Edith Moffett.

PERSONALS

S. A. Parks was in Albany yesterday. Mrs. John McCully, of Joseph, Or., is visiting friends in this city.

Attorney Geo. W. Wright, of Albany, is in the city on legal business.

Captain J. M. Poorman, of Woodburn, was a Salem visitor yesterday.

G. W. Wright, of Albany, was in the Miss Sarah Savage, of San Francisco, is visiting friends in the city. City last evening on legal business.

Mr. A. C. Jennings, one of Irving's leading citizens, came in on the local this morning.

Ex-Governor Lord was a passenger on the local this morning, bound for the exposition.

Hon. J. A. Cooper and Editor Walter Lyon, of Independence, were in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Isabelle Simon, who spent the winter with Salem friends, has gone to Los Angeles for a few months.

Warden F. H. Curtis and Tom R. Wilson, bookkeeper at the pen, returned home last evening from a short visit in Portland.

Mayor Water, of Salem, is in the city in the interest of the proposed gas plant, for which he was recently granted a franchise.—Eugene Guard.

Miss Gay Piper, of Portland, who has been visiting in the city the past week, left on last night's overland for Redlands, Cal., where she will spend most of the summer.

Prof. Tex. Stoudenmeyer left last night for California where he has taken a position in the Venice band at Los Angeles. He will be back in the fall and has not left Salem for good.

Rev. Bower, of Albany, is spending a few days in the city. He is accompanied by Rev. Adams, of Waitsburg, who is spending a few days in the Willamette valley, visiting old friends.

Ben Ling, the popular messenger and clerk at the local Western Union Telegraph office, departed last evening for Spokane, where he assumes his new duties as clerk in the same company.

Gus Heides of South Salem has just returned from a trip to his old home in Ohio. He went east over the Union Pacific and came back over the Northern. He says he has seen no country like Oregon since he left and is very well satisfied that this is the best land out of doors.

Mrs. Mabel Laughlin, nee Cronise, arrived in Corvallis last Friday evening from La Grande, Ore., her present home. She will be here a month, the guest of her father and brother and many friends, who extend a warm welcome.—Gazette. Mrs. Laughlin has many friends in this city.

THE INSANE ASYLUM.

Payroll and Bond Not Yet Filed and Suit Not Began.

Superintendent Calbreath, of the Insane asylum filed his report with the board at its regular monthly meeting Monday, which was adopted. It is a matter of considerable interest, as upon the filing of this report, it was expected Superintendent Calbreath would make a tender of the payroll, accompanied by his indemnity bond, as provided by law, to the secretary of state, and ask that a warrant in his favor be issued for the amount. Upon the secretary's refusal to issue the warrant, which is expected, suit will be at once commenced to compel him to do so. The matter is a piece of friendly litigation, to settle the matter of the law in the case. Up to 2 o'clock today the payroll and bond had not been presented. In the meanwhile Attorney Carson has been busy, and the necessary papers have been prepared to compel the secretary to issue the warrant, or the courts to sustain him in refusing to issue it.

The report shows there were 1365 patients in the institution, an increase of 10 during May.

Fish Commissioners.

The board of fish commissioners met today, but there was nothing come before it except routine matters. The salmon run is light, and there is nothing to quarrel about, not even the big dam on Rogue river, which last year effectually blocked that stream, or the big king-fisher, the gentleman from Curry and Cook, who owns the lower half of the river.

THE CITY IS GLOOMY

St. Petersburg, June 1.—Today was the thirty-third birthday of the Czarina, and for the first time since she left her girlhood home in Darmstadt to become the wife of the ruler of all the Russias, the anniversary was allowed to pass with almost no public recognition. The course of events in the Far East has enshrouded the capital in deepest gloom, and the public evinced no inclination to take part in the holiday rejoicings customary on the birthday of the Empress. The only public observance was the display of flags on government buildings and the holding of Te Deum services in the churches. The Empress herself passed the day quietly in the bosom of her family and in reading messages of felicitation and good wishes from her royal relatives in Germany and England.

X-RAYS

Van Cortland did look in the mayor's left hand.

Doctor Mayor Harry Lane, good morning!

If you don't get what you like, like what you get.

The big day at the exposition will be when Salem gets there on the 14th.

The "liars and scoundrels" evidently went to the polls in Portland yesterday.

"He went up the new cut road, and I went down the Lane"—an old song, probably familiar to Mayor Williams.

Portland Democrats are speechless with astonishment. A Republican landslide slipped under them, instead of over.

A man in Tennessee was fined $20 a few days ago for snoring in church. Thus one by one are our sacred rights curtailed, and the feathers plucked from the wings of our great bird of freedom.
