X-RAYS

Mayor Schmitz made Partridge quail.

Life insurance infringes somewhat on the prerogatives of the Louisiana lottery.

If Partridge had run for office in Albany he would have been a carcass. See pheasant decision.

There has not been a mine struck in Southern Oregon since Dennis Stovall quit writing for the Telegram.

Portland isn't the whole pork. Travelers on the Natron-Woodburn branch are most of them "on the hog."

Rinaldo M. Hill is now gathering figures in Southern Oregon with which to damn that section with faint praise.

That Woodburn-Natron train ought to carry a bath house, barber shop and laundry, so that its patrons could clean up Sundays on the voyage.

When the Great Northern gets to Vancouver, it will have a straight run over a road already built—to Tacoma. Portland, please take notice before you get too gay.

The Republican majority in Nebraska is double that of last year. We make no insinuations, but yet, Bryan is away from home, and Cleveland recently spoke in that state.

In San Francisco Partridge in stenorian tones shouted "Do you want Abe Ruef for mayor or Me," and Echo took a back somersault and answered Ruef—and forgot the balance.

"Don't worry about dividends. You did not insure for dividends. You insured for protection for your family. That is safe."—Insurance Press.

The trouble is you don't get either.

The Insurance Press says: "Newspapers have many criticisms, but no suggestions about life insurance." Well, here's a suggestion, just to start the game. Why not imprison McCully, McCurdy, Clumsey Dewey and the balance of the robber gang?

Editor Lyon's was so keen to catch a glimpse, even second-handed, of the stockings mentioned in The Journal in connection with the "Peggy from Paris" opera company, that he overlooked the fact that it was the horse editor and not the chief, who figured out the latitude and longitude of those shapely galls. Go to, Walter! Go to! and remember there are others.

"I Thank the Lord!" cried Hannah Plant, of Little Rock, Ark., "for the relief I got from Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cured my fearful running sores, which nothing else would heal, and from which I had suffered for 5 years." It is a marvelous healer for cuts, burns and wounds. Guaranteed at J. C. Perry's drug store; 25c.
