SPECIAL COUNCIL MEETING

A special meeting of the city council was held Saturday night for the purpose of acting on the collection or bonding of assessment for the South Commercial street improvement. Notice of the levy of assessment, to be legal, must be given property owners at least ten days before the levy, and, to avoid delay, a special meeting of the council was called.
Nine councilmen were present at the meeting. On motion of Hughes it was ordered that notices of assessment be sent property owners in the improvement district. Those liable to assessment will then have the option of pay-

There are ginger worms and red-pepper bugs—queer boarders—that have to be looked for, not in Schilling's Best, but in making it. There are eggs of these queer boarders, too small to be killed by grinding. Don't keep spices warm, or they'll hatch.

Announcement

Having purchased the Hunt Meat Market and moved the same to 277 Commercial street, I wish to announce to the people of Salem and Marion county that I have my market stocked with all kinds of fresh and salt meats, and invite a share of your patronage.

ing the amount in cash or having it secured by bonds drawing an interest not greater than 6 per cent.
The money for the improvement of the street, $10,400, is now due, and as soon as the Warren Construction Company, which has the contract, commences work, payment in various amounts will have to be made the contractors.
The Warren Construction Company, in its contract with the city, guarantees to complete the work within 90 days from the 18th of September. Almost two thirds of that time has passed, but the company has not commenced work. However, the company states that, once it commences, the job can be done in less than 30 days. The work of preparation, such as the construction of the rock crusher, and the building of a car line for the transportation of rock to the city, has taken up a considerable portion of the 90 days. This part of the work is now completed, and the crusher is at work.

Son Lost Mother.
"Consumption runs in our family, and through it I lost my mother," writes E. B. Reid of Harmony, Me. "For the past five years, however, on the slightest sign of a Cough or Cold, I have taken Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which has saved me from serious lung trouble." His mother's death was a sad loss for Mr. Reid, but he learned that lung trouble must not be neglected, and how to cure it. Quickest relief and cure for coughs and colds. Price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed, at J. C. Perry's Drug Store. Trial bottle free.

MAJORS GREAT NOVEL

When Knighthood Was in Flower Staged Tuesday Night at the Grand

Miss Roselle Knott, who appears as "Mary Tudor," in Kester's dramatization of Major's great novel, "When Knighthood Was in Flower," is one of the most talented and beautiful actresses of the day. In the opinion of some of the greatest critics in the theatrical world her portrayal of the madcap "Princess Mary" excels that of Julia Marlow, by whom the play was brought out. Miss Knott is possessed of just the nature necessary for the exacting requirements of the part and her ability to shade and repress is remarkable, considering the various emotions, at times violent, again bright

"Georgia Minstrels.
Don't make the mistake of the old proverb, "Don't wait until the horse is stolen before putting a lock on the stable door;" don't wait until after Wednesday, November 15th, which is the date of Richards & Pringle's Georgia minstrels, and then say: "I wish I had gone, as everybody said it was great." Go and buy your tickets right now and be right. All the good things in minstrelsy will be served in a palatable manner. The parade will take place at 11:30 each day.

Bob Fitzsimmons' famous namesake, the wonderful boxing kangaroo, will be the star attraction tonight at the Edison theatre. The marvelous ability of kangaroos to fight in regular manly fashion is well known. Bob Fitzsimmons is peer of them all. He is a business-like fighter, knowing and observing all the rules of ring etiquette. After he has donned the gloves, his one object is to score a knock-out. He fights in a sportsman-like manner, manner, however, and has never been known to strike a foul blow.
Howe and Edwards, in a fashionable playlet, "Why Brown Was Blue," are part of the bill. They are assisted by a clever acting monkey, which, while intensely comical, is almost human in intelligence.
Miss Catherine Howe is clever, and

Are you tired of paying Blunder Taxes?

Many a business man pays as much money for the luxury of blundering as a steam yacht or a private touring car would cost.
"Blunder Taxes" cannot be evaded—whatever else waits, these must be paid. If a business man gets into the habit of making the same blunders more than once, the taxes will soon amount to confiscation.
"Blunder Taxes" are levied with amazing frequency upon store advertisers. Among the blunders which are assessed at "full value" in advertising are these:
Selection of poor mediums;
Using too little space in good mediums;
Devoting less attention to preparing the daily store advertisement than to the storing of some empty boxes in the basement;
Stopping the ad altogether for one or more days now and then;
Figuring the advertising appropriation on the basis of what you can "afford" after all other expenses are provided for;
The use of "programs," schemes, circulars, posters, fence-signs, placards and jim-cracks, under the impression that you are securing real publicity, and that somewhere, somehow, sometime someone will be influenced by some of these things to come to your store and buy something.
YOUR "BLUNDER TAX" BILL GROWS SMALLER AND SMALLER AS YOUR USE OF NEWSPAPER PUBLICITY GROWS BIGGER AND BIGGER.
Continuous Publicity In The Journal
Will prevent paying "Blunder Taxes"

JAMES B. HOWARD AND THE GOEBEL MURDER.
The long fight for life waged by Caleb Powers, accused of complicity in the murder of William Goebel, revives interest in the fate of James B. Howard, the Kentucky mountaineer who is now serving a life term in prison for the same murder. On his first trial Howard was sentenced to death. A second trial was secured, he was again convicted, and life imprisonment was prescribed as the penalty.
