ATTACKS TOOZE IN YAMHILL

Salem Correspondent Prints List of Republicans

Men Who Lead Fight in That City Were Turned Down for Mayor and Postmaster

The only Republican paper in this congressional district that is putting up a nasty personal fight against Walter Tooze, of Woodburn, as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress is the Newberg Graphic and the editor of that paper LAYS THE BLAME FOR NOT GETTING A THIRD TERM AS POSTMASTER OF NEWBERG AT THE DOOR OF MR. TOOZE. Tooze is a friend of the man who got the office instead of the editor of the Graphic.

The last Graphic has taken about two pages devoted to Mr. Tooze, with a two-column letter from Salem signed "Marion County," that seems to be inserted in the interest of Prof. Hawley, WHO IS THE ONLY MAN WHO COULD BENEFIT BY THE PUBLICATION. The Journal will not print the stuff nor similar stuff about any aspirant, because it believes in a friendly campaign, so that it can support in good faith as any Republican editor should be able to do, the Republican nominee, no matter who he may be, as is the intention of the Journal. Whether it be Tooze, Hawley or Huston, the nominee should make his campaign in such a way as to have the cordial support of other gentlemen who seek the nomination.

Stick to Record and Principles. Before going into this attack on Tooze, The Journal will say that it has no desire to print one word that it would not say to the face of any aspirant of Republicans or Democrats or citizens of any party in Oregon. LET ALL BE FRANK AND FAIR AND JUST AND GOOD NATURED, because any other kind of pre-primary campaign will lead to the defeat of the principles for which Republicans stand and which involves the prosperity and progress of the state and nation. In all that the Graphic prints not one word is said attacking Walter L. Tooze on his record of dogmatism to the interests of the party, or the faithful advocacy in ten campaigns of the principles of Republicanism, in nearly every county and city and village of Oregon for the past twenty years. He is accused of not supporting one man once for a county office, but as he nominated that man in the county convention, and supported him at the polls, declining for himself the position of state senator on the ticket, that this man might win—and only declined to support him for a second term, because of broken promises. THAT IS A BETTER RECORD THAN THE AVERAGE active Republican leader has in this state. From the standpoint of a record of good, faithful work for the Republican party in Oregon Mr. Tooze need not be afraid to go on the stump with any of the aspirants and plead his own case. Will they do that and leave it to the people? Not much. Their record will not compare favorably with Tooze's.

Is It Hawley Versus Tooze?

The Graphic attacking Tooze and boosting for Hawley will probably be sent all over the district, and has big headlines as follows: "TOOZE IN MARION COUNTY—MOST OF THE PROMINENT REPUBLICANS ARE AGAINST HIM—WILL BE BEATEN IN HIS HOME COUNTY BY 1000 VOTES." There is then printed a list of Senators and Representatives who are proclaimed as being opposed to Tooze for congress, and by infer-

PANIC IN NEGRO CHURCH

Cry of Fire Causes Rush for Stairway--18 Tramped to Death

(Four O'Clock Edition.)

Philadelphia, Jan. 22.—A wild panic following a loud shout of "fire!" brought death to 18 colored persons and injuries to nearly two-score of others last night in St. Paul's Baptist church on the west side of Eighth street, between Poplar street and Girard avenue. The terrible rush to gain the street was of brief duration, and that more were not killed is due to the fact that the church was not crowded.

At the time the disaster occurred, not more than 300 persons were on the second floor of the building, which, with the gallery, was capable of accommodating 600 to 700. The fire was a trifling one, and was extinguished before the firemen arrived. The smell of smoke added to the panic, and despite the heroic work of Rev. Mr. Johnson, pastor of the church, who tried in vain to allay the fears of the frightened worshippers, the terror-stricken people made a desperate rush to leave the church, only to be choked upon the narrow stairway.

Those in the rear leaped over the prostrate forms of those who fell, and when the rush was over, 18 lay dead on the first floor and stairs of the building. Death in nearly every case was due to suffocation or trampling.

The disaster occurred while a collection was being taken up. The pastor had just concluded his sermon, the text of which was "Why sit we here until we die?"

National Fanciers' and Breeders' Exhibition.

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 22.—The tenth annual exhibition of the National Fanciers' and Breeders' Association opened here today with remarkable success. It is admitted that the present exhibition is the largest and most interesting ever held by the association. The entries are more numerous than ever before, and the character of the exhibits far above the ordinary average displayed at such shows. The most prominent breeders and fanciers of poultry, pigeons, cats and pet stock are represented in the exhibition. The list of prizes is larger than ever, and all classes have been liberally provided for. Besides poultry, pigeons and pet animals, many kinds of feed, incubators, appliances used in poultry raising, etc., will be on exhibition during the week of the show.

Willing to Trade Profits.

In old times the railroads in Eastern Oregon sold no tickets, the conductors taking the fares in cash. On this side of the mountain it was different. But over east it got so bad that the manager of the O. R. & N. Co. once proposed to take the salary of one popular conductor and in return give him the profits of the whole road, but he wouldn't do it. Bill Anderson, a Salton saloon keeper, says he wants to do something like that with his bar-keepers, take their wages and let them have the profits of the saloon, and they won't do it. Evidently the saloon business is not at the top notch just now.

Minister's Body Arrives in Halifax.

Halifax, N. S., Jan. 22.—The British battleship Dominion, carrying the body of Mr. Prefontaine, the Canadian minister of marine and fisheries, who died while on a visit to France, arrived here today, and was received by the authorities with impressive honors. All the flags were at half-mast, when the battleship arrived in the harbor. The heads of the provincial government received the body, which was brought ashore in a launch. The body was taken to the municipal building, where it will lay in state until tomorrow. A reception will be tendered the officers of the Dominion this evening.

For County Treasurer.

The names of Bent. Patten, of Macleay; Robert Witzel, of Turner, and Wes Smith, of Turner, are being mentioned for the office of county treasurer.

To Foreclose Mortgage.

M. Christensen vs. Elna Arnold and Charles Arnold is the title of a suit for the foreclosure of a mortgage, filed in the circuit court this morning.

STORMS IN THE EAST

Trains Delayed, Thermometer Says 16 Below and Growing Colder

Chicago, Jan. 22.—This city is practically isolated by a sleet storm. Telephone and telegraph wires are down, and communication east and south is broken entirely, and the west is nearly as bad. Transportation is demoralized.

Elevated trains were entirely stopped at an early hour, and the surface lines are hardly adequate to handle the throngs seeking to reach the business districts, and there were a number of accidents. A crowded suburban train on the Chicago & Western Indiana was hit by a switch engine, and many were injured.

Heavy Fog in New York.

New York, Jan. 22.—This city and the entire coast is enveloped in fog. There were several collisions, both of elevated trains and ferry boats, but no one was hurt.

All Trains are Late.

St. Paul, Jan. 22.—Trains are from one to 25 hours late, both east and west. It is nine degrees below zero, and growing colder. Business is demoralized.

Sixteen Below in Nebraska.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 22.—It is 16 degrees below zero throughout the state, and growing colder, with a gale from the north.

Theoretical vs. Practical Knowledge.

It is a matter of common knowledge that there are many shrewd practical men who will not employ men of high technical attainments. They openly state that they prefer draughtsmen and managers who have very little, if any scientific knowledge of engineering. This attitude is partly due to prejudice and partly to the fact that technically educated men often make themselves unpopular for one or more of the following reasons: They suffer from swelled heads and are very apt to compare their academic knowledge and methods with those of their employer or senior in the profession to the disparagement of the latter. They forget that his theoretical knowledge has probably got rusty through giving attention to other but equally important work for many years. Even if their seniors have never been possessed of such knowledge they are nevertheless entitled to the highest respect in virtue of other knowledge they possess of which the conceited youngster straight from college knows nothing. The college trained youth seems to forget too that the nomenclature of science today is very different from that in vogue a generation ago when his seniors were trained; hence many of the older engineers may have a very intimate knowledge of the theoretical side of engineering and yet know but little of the scientific technical terms used at the present day. The technical knowledge possessed by the raw student may not be in such form as to be of much or of any service to him in actual engineering work. One occasionally meets highly mathematical men who lack all sense of proportion as regards the accuracy required for every day purposes. They prefer a long, but apparently exact, mathematical treatment to a short cut which is sufficiently accurate for all practical purposes. Such men give one the impression that they would rather have a tooth drawn than make use of a convenient approximation. — John Goodman of Manchester Association of Engineers.

Wants to Be District Attorney.

James D. Slater, of La Grande, today filed with the secretary of state his petition for the Democratic nomination for the office of district attorney in the tenth judicial district. This district comprises the counties of Union and Wallawa. Mr. Slater is a brother of Attorney W. T. Slater, of this city.

Our George Is Busy.

A message from Governor Chamberlain this morning states that he will leave Los Angeles tonight for Salt Lake City. The governor is to be temporary chairman of the "Sealing American Conference," which is to convene in the Mormon city Thursday.

BRAZILIAN BATTLESHIP BLOWN UP

Caught Fire and Flames Reached the Magazine --- Three Hundred Reported Killed

London, Jan. 22.—A dispatch from Rio de Janeiro says the Brazilian battleship Auguidaban was blown up today. Three hundred are reported killed. It is understood that the ship took fire, and the flames reached the magazine.

PANTHER CAUSED DEATH

(Four O'Clock Edition.)

Eugene, Or., Jan. 22.—John R. Goldson, a sawmill owner, while hunting in the mountains west of here yesterday, was accidentally killed by a shot from his own rifle, in a hand-to-hand contest with a badly wounded and infuriated panther. The rifle stock bore marks of the panther's teeth. Goldson thought he had emptied the chamber, and struck the beast, when the shell exploded.

HANDY WITH HIS REVOLVER

Boise, Ida., Jan. 22.—Henry Neubaumer, a wealthy returned Alaskan miner, shot Ollie Powell, his sweetheart, who had rejected him. Lafayette Gray, his successful rival, and the mother and sister of Gray, in front of the Gray residence at 9 o'clock this morning, and immediately afterwards blew out his own brains. Neubaumer supplied the money and clothes and educated the Powell girl. He had made a strike at Dawson, and was to have been married in November. The night before the wedding she ran away with Gray, the pair coming to Boise. Neubaumer followed them, and a tragedy was prevented then by the police. He returned to Alaska, but came back to Boise Wednesday. All victims of the tragedy are dead, except Ollie Powell, who is wounded in the left arm.

May Still Be Alive.

Victoria, B. C., Jan. 22.—Second-Mate Edward, of the lost ship King David, is of the opinion that Chief Officer Wolstein and the six men who went in a small boat to seek aid nearly a month ago may still be alive. He thinks that their boat was blown out to sea, but being well stocked with provisions they were in good shape to stand any weather they might encounter.

GREAT STICKLERS FOR THE LAW

(Four O'clock Edition.)

Chicago, Jan. 22.—"God forbid that the son of our martyred president should be here to prosecute citizens of the United States in the manner of this prosecution," fervently exclaimed General John C. Cowen, counsel for the Cudahy Packing Company, in the federal court, in the trial of the beef case this morning. Pointing his finger at Garfield, he continued in the same vein, eulogizing the commissioners' father, and blaming the sons, arraigning the government for compelling men to testify, and then seeking to make criminals of them by depriving them of their constitutional rights. Cowen said he first learned the doctrine of compulsion from Garfield's father, to whom he went to school as a boy. He learned then that when a command was given and backed by competent authority, it must be obeyed. He said Commissioner Garfield was armed with such authority when sent to Cudahy with commands that he lay his business secrets bare and promising immunity. He declared the government had no right to indict the defendants upon the evidence thus secured, and said the packers' pleas would operate as an injunction against the government. Former Judge Hynes, one of the packers' counsel, characterized Garfield as a trickster.

In Honor of Queen Victoria.

London, Jan. 22.—Today being the anniversary of the death of Queen Victoria, who died January 22, 1902, a memorial service for the late queen was held at the Progress museum today. Dean Elliot conducted the services in the presence of the king and queen and other members of the royal family. The musical parts of the ceremony were under the direction of Sir Walter Parratt and with the assistance of the clerk and chorists of St. George's chapel. After the services the king and the queen and most of the members of the royal family returned to the castle. The museum was open all afternoon to visitors who had been fortunate enough to obtain tickets of admission.
