The Teacher

Who advised her pupils to strengthen their minds by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, appreciated the truth that bodily health is essential to mental vigor. For persons of delicate and feeble constitution, whether young or old, this medicine is remarkably beneficial. Be sure you get Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

"Every spring and fall I take a number of bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and am greatly benefited." — Mrs. James H. Eastman, Stoneham, Mass.

"I have taken Ayer's Sarsaparilla with great benefit to my general health." — Miss Thirza L. Crerar, Palmyra, Md.

"My daughter, twelve years of age, has suffered for the past year from

General Debility.

A few weeks since, we began to give her Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Her health has greatly improved." — Mrs. Harriet H. Battles, South Chelmsford, Mass.

"About a year ago I began using Ayer's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for debility and neuralgia resulting from malarial exposure in the army. I was in a very bad condition, but six bottles of the Sarsaparilla, with occasional doses of Ayer's Pills, have greatly improved my health. I am now able to work, and feel that I cannot say too much for your excellent remedies." — F. A. Pinkham, South Molmosey, Me.

"My daughter, sixteen years old, is using Ayer's Sarsaparilla with good effect." — Rev. S. J. Graham, United Brethren Church, Buckhannon, W. Va.

"I suffered from

with lame back and headache, and have been much benefited by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I am now 80 years of age, and am satisfied that my present health and prolonged life are due to the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla." — Lucy Moffitt, Killingly, Conn.

Mrs. Ann H. Farnsworth, a lady 79 years old, So. Woodstock, Vt., writes: "After several weeks' suffering from nervous prostration, I procured a bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and before I had taken half of it my usual health returned."

BEN BUTLER'S RAGE.

He Could Not Speak Against Sleek Cattle and Pretty Girls.

"I was up at a state fair at Manchester, N. H.," said ex-governor Warrington, of Louisiana, the other day, "away back in 1873," writes a correspondent of the Washington Post. "It was the usual sort of a New England fair—an agricultural horse-trot with brass band and political speeches. Ben Butler was up for the speech. The audience was on the grand stand, one side the race track, and Ben Butler and the rest of us big guns in the judges' stand on the other side.

"Fellow citizens of my native state," began the bold Ben, "I shall address you to-day on the subject of federal, state and municipal taxation."

"Butler sailed along and had got well warmed up, when a corn-fed farmer drove along the track with twenty yoke of oxen and a cart piled up with corn, pumpkins and other farm products and a couple of buxom country girls on top. He was proud of that turn out and took his time getting by the grand stand. Of course, Butler had to stop till it got out of the way. Then he began again and warmed up once more. By that time another farmer had got down the track with thirty yoke of cattle and a still bigger cart loaded away up with big squashes and pumpkins and four slashing-looking red-cheeked girls on his load, each one holding a red ear of corn in her hand. Well, that outfit made a big sensation on the grand stand and attracted more attention than Jim Robinson driving a twenty-horse circus chariot would. Of course, Butler had to stop again. He was getting mad.

"Can't this thing be stopped?" he asked, "I don't want to be headed off by every Jake in New Hampshire who wants to make a holy show of himself!"

"So some one was sent off up the track to stop further interruptions, and Butler got along as far as fifty, and was getting red in the face, when what should come along the track but another caravan. This one had nearly forty yoke of oxen, every one a seven footer, as sleek as bulls and as fat as butter. The cart was full of grand stand knew them all and went wild with delight. To say that Butler was mad would be useless. He got his eyes almost wide open.

"If another one of those infernal cattle shows comes along," said he, "I'll leave the platform. I will be switched if I'm going to be broken in upon every ten minutes."

"This time a messenger was sent up the track, who headed off all the rest of the procession, and Butler went along serenely for a quarter of an hour longer, when a big brass band struck up back of the grand stand. It was a visiting band from somewhere up state; it thought it was some pumpkins, and it just put in and blew for dear life. Lord, what a noise it made! But Butler wasn't going to be 'phased' by a big brass band, even if two-thirds of the crowd were craning their necks for a sight of the musicians. Just then the fire-bells over in Manchester set up clang-whanging, and every engine in the city paraded out into the fair grounds. Down the track they tore at full speed, one after another, fires up, smoke rolling out of the stacks, bells clanging, and horses laying their bellies almost on the ground, while every boy in Manchester chased along behind, yelling like demons, and those on the grand stand tumbling over each other to see where the fire was."

"That was the end of it. Butler tore up his notes and danced all over the platform, blue with rage, and swearing like a trooper, while I climbed down behind the stand where I could laugh."

A Strange Coincidence.

It will be remembered that a few days ago manager C. J. Smith, of the O. R. & N. Co., received a dispatch from Lillian McGarry, dated at Johnstown, Pa., asking about James McGarry, who drifted ashore on a life raft from the ill-fated steamer Albatross. She supposed him to be dead instead of which he is alive and well. Mr. McGarry now has telegraphed to the point nearest Johnstown, to learn if Lillian McGarry was among those who lost their lives in the great flood which swept that city to destruction. That these circumstances should be so peculiarly allied to each other is strangely coincidental.—Telegram, I.

In a single issue the Ice Trade Journal notes the present or near prospective opening of fifteen new ice manufacturing establishments. Most of them are in the south or southwest, where ice can be made artificially and cheaper than it can be imported. In quality the national product still has the advantage.

It is beyond question that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral heads the list of remedies for diseases of the throat and lungs.

There are two idle superstitions about cramps that come in the legs and start a man out of his bed quicker than anything else. One is to stick a jack-knife in the headboard of the bed on retiring for the night, and the other is to arrange the slippers very carefully, bottom up, at the foot of the bed.

An excellent remedy for headache from constipation and gastric derangement, as in fact it is for most of the troubles originating with the digestive organs, is Simmons' Liver Regulator. It is what the name indicates—a regulator of that most important organ, the liver. It is a vegetable preparation and is very valuable family medicine for the various ailments arising from derangement of the stomach or bowels. As a headache remedy few things equal it.

A gentleman living near Beaver Falls, Pa., is said to have the power of curing rheumatism "by gently blowing upon the patient's face and rubbing the afflicted parts in silence." One blow and a rub make a cure, but after each case he suffers exactly the same pains he has treated. He ac-

Some one has discovered that the music of the topical song, "When You Come to Think of It," in "The Brass Monkey," is taken from Beethoven's First Symphony. It must be a great relief to the symphony.—Somerset Journal.

A DUTY TO YOURSELF.
It is surprising that people will use a common, ordinary pill when they can secure a valuable English one for the same money. Dr. Acker's English pills are a positive cure for sick-headache and all liver troubles. They are small, sweet, easily taken and do not gripe. J. W. Conn, Druggist.

A woman who had been bitten in Philadelphia by a dog died of fear.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.
THE BEST SALVE in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by J. C. Deмент.

The Ohio state levy for taxation for 1889 is 27 mills, the lowest rate assessed for the past forty-nine years.

That taint of scrofula in your blood can be wholly eradicated by Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

The greatest surprise of the day is the statement that the Eiffel tower is not in fact the Eiffel tower, but the Mongier tower. It was a young engineer of that name in Eiffel's employment who first conceived the idea and worked it out.

An ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure. Pfunder's Oregon Blood Purifier expels all impurities of the blood and should be used in all diseases of the stomach, liver and kidneys. Take it.

Talk about those subjects you have had long in your mind, and listen to what others say about subjects you have studied but recently. Knowledge and timber should not be much used till they are seasoned.

A CHILD KILLED.
Another child killed by the use of opiates given in the form of soothing syrup. Why mother give their children such deadly poison is surprising when they can relieve the child of its peculiar troubles by using Acker's Baby Soother. It contains no Opium or Morphine. Sold by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

The largest circulation on record is that attained by the volume "Hymns, Ancient and Modern." Twenty million copies have been sold in the eighteen years of its existence.

DYSPEPSIA.
It is that misery experienced when we suddenly become aware that we possess a diabolical arrangement called a stomach. The stomach is the reservoir from which every fibre and tissue must be nourished, and any trouble with it is soon felt throughout the whole system. Among a dozen dyspeptics no two will have the same predominant symptoms. Dyspeptics of active mental power and a bilious temperament are subject to Sick Headache; those, fleshy and phlegmatic have Constipation, while the thin and nervous are abandoned to gloomy forebodings. Some dyspeptics are wonderfully forgetful; others have great irritability of temper. Whatever form Dyspepsia may take, one thing is certain,
The underlying cause is in the LIVER.
and one thing more is equally certain, no one will remain a dyspeptic who will

SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR.
It will correct Acidity of the Stomach, Expel foul gases, Allay Irritation, Assist Digestion, and, at the same time,
Start the Liver to working, when all other troubles soon disappear.
"My wife was a confirmed dyspeptic. Some three years ago by the advice of Dr. Steiner, of Augusta, she was induced to try Simmons' Liver Regulator. I feel grateful for the relief it has given her, and may say all who read this and are afflicted in any way, whether chronic or otherwise, use Simmons' Liver Regulator and I feel confident health will be restored to all who will be advised."—Wm. M. Kerst, Fort Valley, Ga.
