

The Daily Capital Journal

SALEM, OREGON, MONDAY, DECEMBER 23, 1907.

NO. 294.

Gaynor and Greene Must Serve Four Year Term

ARRESTED EDITOR FOR CONTEMPT

ARRESTED THE JURY

THE PUTNAM, EDITOR OF THE MEDFORD TRIBUNE CRITIC, DISTRICT ATTORNEY GRAND JURY AND WAS BURN IN JAIL AT ROSE.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Medford, Or., Dec. 23.—George Putnam, editor of the Medford Tribune, was arrested last night at the request of the grand jury of Jackson county, and will spend the night and part of the day in jail before he could see his lawyer for his release.

Putnam was on his way to Portland to spend the holidays, and was arrested here when he was informed that he is wanted in Medford on a charge of contempt of the grand jury appearing in the Tribune on Thursday, in which the grand jury and district attorney were named, because they failed to appear on the case. S. Bannam, president of the Medford Valley Railway Company, was arrested upon the person of Putnam at Medford. As a matter of fact, the grand jury had adjourned upon the case. An indictment against Putnam is said to have been returned by the grand jury yesterday.

Putnam was taken to jail, where he passed the night and was released yesterday afternoon. W. I. Vawter, ex-representative of Jackson county, came to the editor, and, with the assistance of the banks, effected his release from his bond.

Dec. 23.—My arrest in spite of work, the result of the grand jury and the charge for failure to indict on a charge of "murderous assault," said the editor, and, with the assistance of the banks, effected his release from his bond.

Dec. 23.—My arrest in spite of work, the result of the grand jury and the charge for failure to indict on a charge of "murderous assault," said the editor, and, with the assistance of the banks, effected his release from his bond.

Dec. 23.—My arrest in spite of work, the result of the grand jury and the charge for failure to indict on a charge of "murderous assault," said the editor, and, with the assistance of the banks, effected his release from his bond.

HAVING A GOOD TIME.

"Scotty" Has a Bank Roll That He Is Reducing.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Vallejo, Cal., Dec. 23.—A man who is known to the men about town as "Scotty" is cutting quite a dash by throwing money away by the handful in the different resorts of the town. As a change he purchased turkeys at $4 each and turned them loose on the principal streets as a gift to the lucky persons who caught them.

"Scotty" is said to be a paid-off boiler maker, recently in the naval service, with a bank account of $800, which he says that he will squander, and then go to work at the yard to earn some more, so that he can have the pleasure of throwing it away and watch the crowd scramble for it.

C. W. TRICKETT.
Assistant attorney general of Kansas who closed up 250 saloons in the face of a hard fight by the liquor interests.

KAISER'S SISTER A WITNESS

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Berlin, Dec. 23.—Interest in the trial of Editor Hardin, on a charge of libel, was suddenly increased today, when the name of the Kaiser's sister, Princess Charlotte of Saxe-Meiningen, was dragged into the proceedings.

The prosecution declared that the charges made against Count Moltke were based upon statements made to him by Attorney Kleinholz, who is Princess Charlotte's personal counselor. Counsel representing the editor immediately asked the court that the princess be summoned to court as a witness for the defense.

The request came with such suddenness and caused such a stir in court that the presiding judge declared court adjourned, so that he might have an opportunity to consider the request. It is likely that the court will consult the Kaiser before giving his answer. If the princess is ordered to give testimony, it will be taken privately, and then read in court.

The Johns Put Up.
(United Press Leased Wire.)
New York, Dec. 23.—Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller and Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., sat in the Rockefeller pew at the Fifth Avenue Baptist church yesterday, and heard the pastor, Rev. Dr. C. F. Aked, say he would not contemplate a permanent ministry in this church unless $7000 was raised before the congregation left their pews. The $7000 was collected in cash and written pledges within a few minutes.

Dr. Aked showed considerable feeling in demanding a change in the administration of the finances of the church. Aked said the $7000 was needed to pay off a deficit in the church account.

THE TROOPS WILL BE RECALLED

PRESIDENT IS FIRM

THE PRESIDENT REFUSES TO RECONSIDER HIS ACTION, DESPITE APPEALS OF GOVERNOR SPARKS, THE SHERIFF AND THE MINE OWNERS.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Goldfield, Nev., Dec. 23.—In spite of the plea sent by Governor Sparks, Sheriff Ingalls and prominent citizens of this city to the White House, asking that troops be kept in Goldfield, announcement comes from President Roosevelt that he will not reconsider his action in withdrawing the soldiers.

The determination on the part of the President to hold to his decision had a depressing effect on the mine owners today. Sheriff Ingalls is preparing for trouble. He is now swearing in 150 deputies for patrol duty. E. C. Mahoney, vice-president of the Western Federation of Miners, is in Goldfield, directing the miner's fight.

Mahoney declares the miners are anxious for peace, but that they will not surrender to the mine owners as long as the card system and the anti-federation pledge are in effect.

The situation here remains quiet. The Combination mine and mill are working with a short force.

Rioting in Mexico.
(United Press Leased Wire.)
Gaudalajara, Mex., Dec. 23.—Rurales have been rushed to the village of Subuatiand to suppress rioting, which is said to have started through a railroad agent and a priest having trouble with local business men.

The authorities here accuse the priests and nuns with inspiring the trouble by attempting to rescue a priest from jail.

HE WANTED DIAMONDS RETURNED

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Aberdeen, Wash., Dec. 23.—Louis Fogel, who has been in the clothing business here for years, and whose family is prominent in Jewish social circles, was convicted in the superior court of highway robbery by a jury that came in Sunday morning at 5 o'clock, after being out 20 hours.

Robbed a Postoffice.
(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Jose, Cal., Dec. 23.—Safe blowers blew open the safe in the post-office at Campbell station early this morning, and escaped with $200 in money and $700 worth of stamps. The robbers used nitroglycerine in forcing the strong box.

A Long Time to Wait.
(United Press Leased Wire.)
Ely, Nev., Dec. 23.—The two miners entombed at Ely cannot be rescued for at least 20 days more. They are being fed through an air pipe, and in this way it is hoped they can be kept alive until rescued.

FORTY-SIX BODIES RECOVERED. List of Dead Will Not Be Less Than Two Hundred.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Jacobs Creek, Pa., Dec. 23.—A total of 46 bodies have been taken from the mine in which approximately 200 miners were entombed by an explosion Thursday. Ten were recovered today.

The position of the bodies indicated that when the crash came many of the doomed men knelt in prayer. The work of the rescuers is progressing more rapidly today, and it is hoped that this afternoon several more bodies will be found.

AUGUSTUS P. WILLSON.
The new governor of Kentucky, a Republican, who decisively turned the Democratic tide.

Burned to Death.
Sawtelle, Cal., Dec. 23.—T. L. Hemmerly, aged 63, a veteran of the United States marine corps, with a Civil War record, was burned to death in his home last night. The origin of the fire is unknown.

JAPANESE STORE
Curios and Fancy Goods
444 Court Street. Yokobama Pressing Parlors. Phone 361

BARK CASTOR
ARRIVES AT ESQUIMAULT

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Port Townsend, Dec. 23.—The British bark Castor, long overdue at Astoria, has been sighted at the entrance of the Straits of Fuca, according to a dispatch received from Tacoma. The vessel is on its way to Esquimalt, B. C.

Grave fears for the safety of the vessel had been entertained among shipping men since at attempt, 35 days ago, to cross the Columbia river bar was frustrated by the severe storms which prevailed at that time, and which forced the vessel to put off shore.

Wreck at Tillamook Was Part of Her Cabin Lost on Trip Down.
(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, Dec. 23.—The San Mateo, which it was feared met with disaster off the Oregon coast, is safe in port here, preparing for another trip to the north. On the trip down the San Mateo encountered severe storms, and lost a portion of her cabin. This was cast up on the shore near Bay City, Or., and led to the belief that the vessel was lost.

SAN MATEO SAFE.
Wreck at Tillamook Was Part of Her Cabin Lost on Trip Down.

PRISON FOR GREENE AND GAYNOR

MADE GREAT FIGHT

CONTRACTORS WHO CONSPIRED WITH CAPTAIN CARTER AND ROBBED THE GOVERNMENT IN THE WORK OF HARBOR IMPROVEMENTS AT SAVANNAH.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Washington, Dec. 23.—After waging one of the most fiercely contested legal battles in history, Benjamin D. Greene and John F. Gaynor, accused of embezzling money in connection with the construction of the Savannah harbor, must go to the penitentiary.

The United States supreme court today sealed their fate by upholding the decision of a lower court which fined them $575,748, an amount equivalent to that which they were accused of embezzling, and sentenced them to prison for four years each. The trial at Savannah lasted three months.

HENEY WILL RETURN TO PORTLAND

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Washington, Dec. 23.—Francis J. Heney arrived in Washington at 7 o'clock today and lunched with the President at 1:30. He came direct from Chicago on the same train with Bonaparte, and talked with him concerning the land fraud cases. He goes hence to Arizona to try a civil case on January 2, and then to San Francisco and Portland, arriving at the latter place January 13.

"Are you here concerning the Bristol matter, Mr. Heney?"
"No," said he.
"Has your visit to do with your recent charges against Fulton?"
"No," he answered. "I have had an engagement a long time ago to come. This time general land fraud business brings me here."

"Did Bristol have in his possession evidence needed in the land fraud cases or did you?" At first the special assistant attorney sidestepped this question and then finally admitted "some of the papers were not among land office records relating to the cases had not been in Bristol's possession. 'I've had them,' he said.

Heney did not deny he might talk the Bristol case over with the President, but answered there was no friction between the interior and justice departments over the cases in Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Newell, of Portland, are the guests of Mrs. Newell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. McFritre, during the holidays.

SAN FRANCISCO BANKS OPEN.

Resume Business Without a Flurry of Any Kind.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, Dec. 23.—The legal holidays are over. Today the banks resumed business in the old style, and resumed their old responsibilities, without gubernatorial or other protection against their depositors, save the resources at their command.

The clearing house association, speaking for the banks, declares there is plenty of money in the vaults of all the commercial concerns and there is no reason to apprehend any run.

"It simply means that normal conditions have been restored, and business will be resumed as usual," states the clearing house association.

MME. TETRAZZINI.
Italian prima donna who has been engaged by Oscar Hammerstein for the Manhattan Opera at a salary of $40,000.

RAYMOND HITCHCOCK IS CLEARED

New York, Dec. 23.—Without making even a feeble attempt to defend himself, Hugo C. Voecks today pleaded guilty before Judge Rosabky to the charge against him that he attempted to extort $1500 from Raymond Hitchcock, the comedian.

The court announced that Voecks will be sentenced tomorrow. Voecks, who is 20 years old, is the brother of Elsie Voecks, one of the girls the comedian is said to have entertained at his country residence. The recent arrest of Hitchcock grew out of the charge made by the father of the girl that he had mistreated Elsie.

Fed Child to the Hogs.
Lincoln, Neb., Dec. 23.—The finding today in a wheat field near the home of Olaf Oleson of a human tongue, which is pronounced by experts to be the tongue of a child of about the age of Oleson's 5-year-old daughter, Tillie, led Sheriff Bauman to arrest Oleson and may clear up the mystery surrounding the child's disappearance. It is believed now that the little one was murdered and fed to the hogs.

PATTON BROS. BULLETIN

We offer today a most interesting and unusual sale of books for the remaining holiday shopping days—books at prices that will suit most any purse—books selected with utmost care and purchased at a price to enable us to sell at prices to make others squirm.

IN OUR BOOK STORE TODAY.
We offer you an unusual bargain in classics, usually sold by most concerns at twenty cents. Today and the remaining holiday shopping days

IN OUR POST CARD HALL.
You will still find a good sale display of
"CHRISTMAS POST CARDS."
We still have nearly all the same cards complete. They make most desirable gifts to the absent ones.