CHICAGO

CHRISTMAS LETTER

Chicago, Dec. 23.—Nearly 4,000 letters addressed to Santa Claus were confided to the Chicago postoffice facilities this year by trustful children whose sentiments were expressed by one, thus: Papa says 'twon't be no use for me to go ahead and hang my stocking up this year, for Santa Claus is dead.

In accordance with the postoffice department's ruling, officially recognizing Santa Claus, the letters were sent over to charity organizations, churches and individuals. The addresses used to reach the merry old fellow were various, including "Care of Jack Frost, Toyland," "North Pole, Ireland, care Chimney Department."

The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Healthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood. Weak Kidneys Make Impure Blood. It is to be considered that only the kidneys and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

In the society mansions on the Lake Shore Drive. Now a benefit entertainment is being planned which will rival the much advertised "pageant vivants" in which society leaders posed as famous paintings, some in gowns that cost their husbands more money than it would take to buy a good farm in the corn belt.

Imports of German toys, French furs, Russian furs to a value of a million and a half dollars is the new record which the Chicago customs house will make this December at the rate set for the first twenty days. If the financial flurry could have foreseen the imports would not have been so heavy, perhaps, for it has caused some brisk scrambling for currency to pay the duties.

Of the 38 vessels that were lost during the navigation season on the Great Lakes this year, all but one were freighters and of these, the Cypress, a steel ore barge, was the only new one. There was a striking unanimity shown by the old wooden boats in their yearning to burn. The losses aggregating $1,692,000, and the claims for damages in collisions staggered the marine insurance companies.

With the perennial issue of Sunday closing of saloons of Chicago again in our midst, Kansas, by her attorney general, has sent a message that has no uncertain ring. "The failure to enforce the state law of Illinois is an act of treason," thundered Mr. Trickett to the upturned faces that represented eight Chicago churches and did not crowd the church pews either.

The trial now is expected to take not less than 110 days. Figure it yourself, with merely the hotel bills for the jury at over $40 a day. But every day the lawyers devote hours to sparring, wrangling, to "objecting" and when their objections are overruled, to "excepting."
