Adjourned till Monday. Early this morning Mr. Dubois's supporters showed manifestations of happiness.

Another report is that in case Claggett should conclude not to accept the conditions stated above, the southern representatives would support Wells of Latah for the short term.

Another rumor is that a deal is on foot between two Democrats in the legislature and Dubois' eighteen pledged Republicans.

After watching the fight for a week, your correspondent believes the first vote next Tuesday will show the strength of the different candidates as follows:
