HE CARRIED DYNAMITE.

An Unknown Man Demanded $1,000,000 of Russel Sage.

THE DEMAND WAS REFUSED.
Whereupon he Dropped his Satchel Which Exploded.

TWO OR THREE REPORTED KILLED.
Three Trains go Through an Open Switch—Several Workmen Killed by a Falling Wall.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—At 12:15 o'clock this afternoon a small, shabbily dressed man, apparently 35 years old, carrying a brown leather hand valise, called at Russell Sage's office on the second floor of seventy Broadway, and asked to see Sage. W. R. Laidlaw, Sage's clerk, told him that Sage was busy and could not be seen. The man persisted and continued talking in a loud tone. Sage who was in an inner office came out to see what was the matter. He asked the man what was wanted. The man demanded a million dollars from Sage and upon being refused, he said: "I demand a private interview with you." Sage replied that it would be impossible for him to see the man then, but that he might possibly do so later in the day. The man continued to demand an interview then and there. Sage ordered him to leave the office, on this the man dropped the leather bag and an explosion which shook the entire block instantly followed. Sage was thrown across the room and stunned. Laidlaw was also thrown across the office, and had one leg badly lacerated. The stranger was thrown against the partition wall and was by far the most seriously injured of the three. There were three others whose names could not be ascertained at the moment, also injured. It is known that one of the clerks in Sage's office was blown out through the window. Nearly all the windows on the east and north side of the building were broken and the interior of the building is badly wrecked. It is said that two at least of the occupants of the building are torn to pieces by the force of the explosion. Sage, in a conversation after the explosion said he considered it a deliberate attempt to kill himself and destroy the building.

A FATAL COLLISION.
Three Trains Run Through an Open Switch.

WEBSTER, Mass., Dec. 4.—At six this morning a collision occurred between two freight trains and the Long Island express, on the New York and New England railroad at East Thompson. The accident was caused by an open switch. All three trains are piled up together. The engineer and fireman of one train are killed, and one passenger on the Pullman car is reported burned to death and many are injured. The cars almost immediately took fire and engines and doctors were summoned from adjacent points.

Caught By a Falling Wall.
ST. PAUL, Dec. 4.—This afternoon a force of men engaged in clearing away the debris from the ruins of the burned building formerly occupied by Farwell Oznun & Co., and Griggs Cooper & Co., when one of the walls fell with a terrific crash, killing five men instantly, and injuring twenty others, some of them seriously. Five bodies have so far been taken from the ruins and it is thought two or three more are still under the wall.

Severe Snow Storms.
ST. PAUL, Dec. 4.—A blizzard is raging throughout Minnesota, Dakota, and Manitoba. All the trains running into Winnipeg are delayed. Threshing is stopped in Dakota, and it is feared that the railroads will be blockaded.

The Railroad Commissioner's Report.
PORTLAND, Dec. 4.—The railroad commissioners have returned from an inspecting tour of the different lines in the state. They report the trackage of the different roads in good condition, and much improved over last year.

Trains Laid Off.
WINNEPEG, Manitoba, Dec. 4.—All the outgoing trains are cancelled, and the incoming trains are many hours behind time, because of the snow storm now raging.

ANOTHER GONE WRONG.

He Was a Trusted Bank Clerk With Extravagant Desires.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 3.—The detectives have not yet succeeded in fining Richard B. Rowley, the defaulting paying teller of the Co-operative Banking Association, who disappeared with $3500 of the bank's funds last Saturday evening. The bank closed its doors at the usual hour, and Rowley, as was customary, turned over to Cashier Miller the returns of the day. Miller, after looking over the account, found it correct and went home. It has been learned that Rowley, who was acquainted with the combination of the safe, opened the strong box and helped himself to the cash, leaving behind him $800 in silver, which was evidently too heavy to carry. When Rowley failed to appear Monday morning, Cashier Miller opened the safe and discovered the defalcation. The bank is secured against loss by the fact that Rowley was bonded in the American Guarantee Company of New York for $5000. Rowley belonged to an excellent family. His father was adjutant-general of the state before the war. The defaulter was chief of police of this city under Mayor Bohan, and was chancellor-commander of the Knights of Pythias of the state. The endowment rank of the order loses about $300 by him.

Another English-Syndicate Purchase.
NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—It was stated yesterday on the best authority that negotiations for the purchase of the Cooper-Hewitt iron interest in this country by a syndicate of English and American capitalists had been practically completed. The details of the transfer will be made public in a short time. The purpose of the syndicate is to associate or amalgamate a number of iron businesses and carry them on under one management. The purchase price is said to be $500,000. The names of United States Senator John P. Jones, of Nevada, General Charles C. Dodge and J. W. Mackay were given as those most prominent on this side of the water in organizing the enterprise.

Our Dear Cousins.
LONDON, Dec. 3.—At an inaugural dinner of the shipping exchange last evening, toasts were proposed to the health of the queen, Prince of Wales and the president of the United States. In proposing the last mentioned toast, the chairman said: "We must love our dears across the water, and should stand shoulder to shoulder and whip creation."

Panama Canal Shareholders.
PARIS, Dec. 2.—The report of the petitions committee of the senate insists upon absolving the government from any sort of responsibility for the disaster to the Panama canal shareholders, but urges that the senate show sympathy with shareholders by inducing the finance minister to make unofficial efforts to assist any possible rehabilitation of the scheme.

The Southern Oregon Stock Association now has a fund of $1000 on hand to be used in the prosecution of stock thieves, and at the meeting of that society held at Paisley last week, the sentiment was voiced to let no guilty man escape. These associations do much to prevent depredations among stock belonging to the members. The leading stockmen and citizens of Lake county belong to and are connected with the management of this association. Its present officers are H. R. Heyford, president; G. M. Jones, vice-president; N. A. King, treasurer, and W. M. Townsend secretary.—Examiner.

"China for the Chinese" is the motto of the ka-lo-ho society of China, the membership of which is numbered by millions. The society is secret. It has mysterious rites and symbols, and it issues decrees and inflicts punishments. One of its main objects is to prevent foreigners from living in the Celestial Empire, and another is to dethrone the present Tartar emperor and restore the ancient Ming dynasty.

The Linn County Farmers' Alliance, at a meeting held at Scio adopted a resolution endorsing the people's party. Albany was selected as the place for holding the next meeting, and Jan. 8, 1892 as the time. Twelve sub-alliances were represented at the meeting, and forty-five delegates present.

It is predicted by liquor men in Philadelphia that at least two-thirds of the saloons in the outlying districts of the city will be wiped out by the $1000 license fee next year.

THEY ARE BOTH GONE.

And So is the Money Entrusted to Their Care.

SAYS HE IS COMING BACK.
A New York Defaulter is Getting Tired of Canada.

A TENDER-HEARTED JUDGE.
He Sheds Tears While He is Sentencing a Murderer to Be Hanged— Heavy Gas Explosion.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Dec. 3.—It was learned here yesterday that J. M. Benson, treasurer of Bladen county, had absconded with $6000 of the county's money. Benson has for several years held the position of treasurer of this county, and for the past two years has been largely engaged in the mercantile business at Elizabethtown. His store has been the headquarters for the alliance of Bladen county. Several days ago it was learned that Benson was short in his accounts, and in consequence of the rumors that were afloat the county commissioners had called a meeting for yesterday, and Benson was to appear before them for an investigation. The commissioners met according to agreement, but found out soon after that Benson had disappeared during the night. It is thought by many that the money the county will lose will be a comparatively small sum compared to the sum that Benson owes the farmers of Bladen county. As he always has been highly respected and above suspicion, the farmers would put whatever money they did not need in his hands, he paying them good interest, but seldom paying the principal, and in this way quite a large sum must have been in his hands at the time of his departure. There seems to be little doubt that Benson has appropriated at least $10,000 of other people's money to the exclusive benefit of himself. Much excitement exists over his sudden disappearance, but those most interested have not the least idea where he has pitched his tent. Telegrams have been sent in every direction for apprehension of the fleeing treasurer, but nothing has been heard of him.

Had Better Not Return.
NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—The rumor that John C. Eno, the ex-president of the Second National bank, who ran away to Canada in 1884 with nearly $5,000,000, was to return to this city was news to District Attorney Nicoll, who said yesterday that he had heard nothing whatever about his contemplated return. He placed no faith in the story, for it was one that had frequently been circulated within the last four or five years. There was one thing District Attorney Nicoll would say, and that was that if Eno did return he, the district attorney, would promise the fugitive a lively time. If Mr. Nicoll remembered rightly, the evidence was mostly documentary and that always lives.

The Judge Shed Tears.
UNION, Or., Dec. 3.—Judge Fee, of the circuit court, last night sentenced Evan Carver, who was found guilty of murder in the first degree, to be hanged, the execution to take place in the jail-yard on January 21, 1892. This was the first sentence of death ever passed by Judge Fee, and his honor was unable to refrain from tears. Carver is a young man about twenty-one years of age. He had nothing to say, and took the sentence quite coolly. This is the first instance of a criminal being sentenced to be hanged in Union county.

A Tin-Plate Discussion.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—In reply to inquiry the treasury department has informed a Philadelphia firm that the department holds that imported black plates, dipped in this country for the purpose of making tin and terne plates, are included within paragraph 143 of schedule G, of the tariff act, and black plates rolled from imported bars or billets should be similarly classified. There is no provision in the law restricting manufacturers to use American tin.

Gas Explosion in Glasgow.
GLASGOW, Dec. 3.—There was an explosion of gas in the new underground railway beneath Anderson Cross in this city today. The force of the explosion was so great that the street was blown up, compelling a suspension of traffic. Six persons were injured.

Hanged for Murder.
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Dec. 3.—John McManus was hanged this morning for the murder of Eugene McGinnis February 21, 1890.
