SEEKING THINGS

Some people have to get high up, or "drink hard" to see things, others can see them from a level.

Such a man would see the splendid opportunity now making goo-goo eyes at him from the streets of Ashland.

One hundred percent of the visitors to Ashland like the city and its environments but we can only accommodate a few of them.

New comers, attracted by the true stories of our climate and waters and beauty are seeking accommodations to sojourn. Not all wish to buy or build immediately. We have no apartments or modern furnished houses to offer them.

Nor are the hotel and rooming accommodations adequate.

We have built up the out door attractive features. Our schools, our parks and our springs are attracting the people, but it looks like many will pass on for want of accommodations.

It is remarkable that owners of such buildings as the Austin hotel and the business block opposite can not stir up courage enough to grow with the city.

A completion of the unused space in the Austin, a remodeling of the upper floor of such a building as the Vaupel store building into modern apartments would readily bring handsome returns and serve to hold the visitors pouring in. It would serve to stimulate some one who can see from the level the overtures of Miss Golden Opportunity.

An apartment house is needed in Ashland. It must come. He who builds now will certainly be a benefactor and receive large returns. Who has the courage? We will fill the building.

PEOPLE'S FORUM

WORDS OF GOOD CHEER

Editor of the Ashland Daily Tidings,
Dear Sir: It gives me great pleasure to send you a check for five dollars to pay for a year's subscription to our latest arrival—the Ashland Daily Tidings—and to say that no business man, as a steady advertiser, or citizen having the best interests of Ashland at heart can, for a moment hesitate to put his hand to the plough and help to secure a permanent resting place for a venture that bodes good to us all.
There never was a time in our country's history when it stood absolutely in need of that generous and self-sacrificing spirit which has stood firmly by it on many trying occasions, and never more so than in the terrible war just concluded, which brought so much suffering and devastation to the world at large.

The Daily Tidings can, now it is thoroughly equipped and up-to-date, do much to instruct, direct, and entertain the body politic, and the managing editor will, most assuredly, put forth his primest efforts in this direction.

The town newspaper, equally with the town pump (pouring forth a generous flow of refreshing water) is so small a factor in singing the praises of a community bent upon doing something and being somebody in its day and generation, and we trust that the day may never come when the said newspaper and its health-giving companion—the said pump—will ever cease their united efforts in making "Ashland! My Ashland," a veritable paradise for tourists in search of rest and quiet.

Fraternalty yours,
H. G. GILMORE.

KIND WORDS FOR ASHLAND'S DAILY

(From Portland Oregonian.)
ASHLAND, Ore., Sept. 4.—(Special.)—The Ashland Tidings, established in 1876 as a weekly and conducted for the past several years as a semi-weekly, is now an evening daily with full wire service.

The establishment was recently moved from the quarters it has occupied since 1876 to commodious new quarters in the Camps block. The Tidings is owned by the Ashland Printing company. B. R. Greer is editor.

Only once before in local history has a daily newspaper been published in Ashland. During a snow blockade in the '90s, when several trans were tied up here and no newspapers were coming in from the outside world, the isolated community was supplied with the world news by the Tidings through daily editions.

The appearance of the new daily puts the stamp of permanence on the remarkable year of prosperity which Ashland has enjoyed. Thousands of tourists have visited Ashland during the past summer, attracted by Lithia par k and the mineral springs. The money left by these, and by the biggest fruit year in history has given prosperity to every line of business. The city is overcrowded. Houses are impossible to get and real estate is moving fast.

THEY DON'T DO THAT WAY IN ASHLAND

J. W. Clark has moved his belongings from the Young building into the old band room where he is selling the entire lot. He reports that so many people are taking in roomers here, there is not enough patronage to profit him in keeping the rooming house open.—Gold Hill News.

ARTISTS DEPICT FIELDS OF FIRE

During the world war eight well known American illustrators and painters went to the front with the troops of the American Expeditionary force, as official historians of brush and pencil, and as a result five hundred paintings and drawings represent the work of these artists in France. These pictures recently were turned over by the army to the Smithsonian Institute where they will be preserved. The artist corps was composed of Captains W. K. Aylward, W. J. Duncan, Harvey Dunn, George Harding, Wallace Morgan, Ernest Petzotto, Andre Smith and Harry Townsend, all then whose names were known to the public.

Forty of the best of these pictures, loaned by the war department to the American Legion Weekly, will be reproduced from time to time in that periodical. The first appeared in the issue of September 5, and were painted by Harvey Dunn. Copies of the American Legion Weekly containing the reproductions of these pictures may be seen in the Commercial club, and those who weren't there may see war as it was in these paintings which are the result of brush and palette plied on actual fields of fire.

Even after the week have inherited the earth some blustering trust official will come around and collect the rent.

State Will Follow Federal Duck Law

SALEM, Ore., Sept. 8.—The Federal seasons for duck shooting will be followed by the State game authorities, according to an announcement made by Carl D. Shoemaker, State game warden. For all of Western Oregon, or game district No. 1, which takes in all the counties west of the summit of the Cascade mountains, the seasons open on October 1 and close on January 15, both days inclusive. For Eastern Oregon, or game district No. 2, the season opens on September 15 and closes on December 31st, both days inclusive.

The courts have uniformly held that the federal law is supreme and if seasons are to be changed they must come through the federal government and not the state. Sportsmen throughout Oregon will, therefore observe the federal laws and seasons with reference to the shooting of ducks. However, all other provisions of the state law, with the exception of the opening and closing dates, will be enforced as there is no conflict with reference to bag limits, hours for shooting and methods of pursuit. The bag limit for migratory birds is twenty-five in any one day and not to exceed thirty in any seven consecutive days.

HOUSING PROBLEM IN JAPAN GROWS SERIOUS

(By the United Press)
TOKYO. — (By Mail.) — The seriousness of the housing situation in the big cities of Japan may be judged from the fact that recently one of the trans-Pacific liners brought 130 passengers for Yokohama when not a single room was to be had at the leading hotels of Yokohama or Tokyo. The new arrivals had to take what they could get at the obscure hotels and at the Japanese inns.

The hotels are crowded with resident guests unable to find houses. Many families, coming to Japan are obliged to put up at hotels or with some newly-made friends for months before they can find suitable places to rent.

KIDNEYS WEAKENING? LOOK OUT!

Kidney troubles don't disappear of themselves. They grow slowly but steadily, undermining health with deadly certainty, until you fall a victim to incurable disease. Stop your troubles while there is time. Don't wait until little pains become big aches. Don't trifle with disease. To avoid future suffering begin treatment with GOLD MEDAL. HOLLISTER'S OIL CAPSULES now. Take three or four every day until you are entirely free from pain.

The housewife of Holland would almost as soon be without food as without her "Real Dutch Drops," as she quaintly calls GOLD MEDAL HOLLISTER'S OIL CAPSULES. They restore strength and are responsible in a great measure for the sturdy, robust health of the Hollanders.

Do not delay. Go to your druggist and insist on his supplying you with GOLD MEDAL HOLLISTER'S OIL CAPSULES. Take them as directed, and if you are not satisfied with results your druggist will gladly refund your money. Look for the name GOLD MEDAL on the box and accept no other. In sealed boxes, three sizes.

This well-known preparation has been one of the national remedies of Holland for centuries. In 1894 the government of the Netherlands granted a special charter authorizing its preparation and sale.

"Don't Cheat Yourself" says the Good Judge

There's nothing saved by chewing ordinary tobacco. A little chew of that good rich-tasting tobacco goes a lot farther, and its good taste lasts all the way through.

Little chew—lasting—satisfying. That's why it's a real saving to buy this class of tobacco.
