BAILLIE UNABLE TO IDENTIFY YEGGS; SUSPECTS FREED

After being confronted with twelve looters arrested at Ashland Monday Rev. Mr. Baillie, the minister who was held up at Phoenix Sunday, could not identify any as being in the band that demanded his money. The minister was called to Ashland again Tuesday morning to see if a man, a negro arrested there Monday night is one of his assailants. Descriptions of the negro-lead Sheriff Singler to believe that at least one of the party is captured.

Station Agent Labrets reported for work at Phoenix this morning, and aside from a cut on the head is in as good shape as ever. Singler will go to Ashland after the negro if Mr. Baillie identifies him.

ROGERS SECRETARY FLEES FROM SUBPOENA

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—Emulating the example of Wm. Rockefeller in avoiding subpoena servers, Miss Catherine I. Harrison, wanted as a witness before the Pujio money trust investigating committee, has today eluded a host of secret service men, and is believed to be on her way either to Canada or Europe. Miss Harrison for 25 years secretary to H. H. Rogers, the oil magnate, and is believed to be in possession of evidence covering several of Rogers' financial deals, which relate to matters under investigation by the committee.

MINNEY COMPANY TO ASK FRANCHISE FOR ASHLAND LINE

Formal acceptance of the street railway ordinance granting a franchise to the M. T. Minney company was made Tuesday morning. In addition the company has deposited its check for $2,500 as an evidence of good faith and will have an engineer on the ground in a short time. W. I. Vawter, attorney for the company, is at present working on a franchise proposal to be offered to the city council of Ashland for acceptance or refusal. It will not be of the nature of a blanket franchise but will simply ask for the right to enter and leave Ashland over certain streets.

MAY ROBSON FINDS WARD IN HOSPITALITY

SANTA BARBARA, Calif., Jan. 14.—Gratitude for kindness shown her while she was a patient in the Cottage hospital here caused May Robson, actress to announce today the endowment of a room in the institute to be known as the "May Robson ward." The room is dedicated to the use of women who are without funds for proper hospital care. Miss Robson underwent an operation at the Cottage hospital two years ago.

HAINES OF WASHINGTON TO CARRY VOTE EAST

OLYMPIA, Wn., Jan. 14.—J. Haines, one of the Roosevelt electors, was chosen today to carry the vote to Washington. Haines received five votes while Bigger of Bellingham got four. Miss Scott of Tacoma got one.

WELL KNOWN WOMEN OF SOCIETY IN DOMESTIC WRANGLE.

serious differences, with vague hints of a possible divorce suit, have arisen between James Cunningham Bishop and his wife, who are well known in the social life of New York. Mrs. Bishop is renowned for her remarkable beauty. Mr. Bishop, who is in the banking business, caused the publication of an advertisement in the newspapers to the effect that he would not be responsible for any indebtedness incurred by any one except himself. Mrs. Bishop admits that this notice is aimed at her and decries Mr. Bishop's literature as "the scolding act of petty revenge."

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

R. W. Hitchcock who owns a farm and orchard about two miles south-east of our town, who has been to Portland for some time, returned last week.

T. D. Singleton, who owns a part of the old Loffland place along the P. & E. railroad, west of town, was doing business with our merchants the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorman came in the last of the week with a lot of apples from the Corbin orchard.

The Ladies' Improvement Club of Eagle Point held their first meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. Joe Morrison Wednesday, January 8th. There were twenty ladies present. Lunch was served by Mrs. Mable Wamsley. The next meeting will be held at the residence of Mrs. J. F. Brown on Wednesday, January 15, at 2 p. m. Every member is requested to be present on that occasion.

Mrs. Lonira Danylyne and her little daughter, who have been visiting the family of Joseph Hannah near Trail, came out on the E. P. & P. stage last Thursday and spent the night at the Sunnyside on her way to her home in Gold Hill.

J. S. Tucker, who formerly lived on what is now known as the Euyart ranch on Rogue river, but now of Carbon, Shasta county, California, was another passenger on the stage from Grants Pass. He had been up to his old place, and was on his way home. As usual he stopped at the Sunnyside over night, taking the car for Medford Friday morning.

G. W. Ager, one of the school supervisors, in making his monthly rounds, spent Thursday night with us.

Died, at his home north of Eagle Point, January 6, 1913, Andrew J. Clarno, aged 36 years 10 months and 4 days. He leaves a wife and two children, two brothers and a sister. Mr. Clarno has been afflicted for several years and his death was not a surprise to any who knew him. The remains were interred in the Central Point cemetery on Thursday, January 9, Rev. A. C. Howlett officiating. His grandfather, John Engleson, died January 1, 1913, in Curry county, making the fourth death in the family in a little over a year.

Mrs. Jake Jones and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Elizabeth Jones, are visiting relatives in Gold Hill.
