Our Correspondents

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett
Jud Edsall, who has a contract for the delivery of a large lot of sawlogs on the Williamson river in Klamath county, came in about a week ago to look after his interests in this county returned home Sunday morning.

The friends of Jasper Miller, one of the pioneer school teachers of this county, are congratulating him over his victory in his land contest with the government, the railroad company and the Big Pines Lumber company. He has at last won out and secured his homestead.

Our school board have had the school rooms overhauled, the seats rearranged so as to have the light come in on the side instead of the backs of the pupils, and, as predicted in my last have opened the fourth room with Miss Jane Knox as teacher of the third. We are now prepared to accommodate any of the children, and older ones either, in any of the grades from the first to the twelfth, and we expect to have a school here that will compare favorably with any in the county of like grades.

James Gillespy, who has been acting as engineer for the donkey engine for the P. & C., is now the night watchman for the company here, and like a sensible man who wants to keep posted on all subjects, has subscribed for the daily Mail Tribune so as to keep posted.

Chris Beal, formerly of Butte Falls, but more recently of Coos Bay, stopped off here Sunday evening but I didn't learn his destination.

Mr. H. W. Brooks, the agent for the Oregon Journal, was interviewing the subscribers for that paper last Monday here.

Mike Sidley of Lake Creek was a caller at the Sunnyside Monday.

The Misses Elsie and Frances Greb were visiting Medford last Saturday.

Mrs. C. Heron, wife of one of our leading orchardists, paid Medford a visit last Monday, and was met here at the train by her husband. He tells me that they have secured a fine large bell for the Catholic church and expect to have it hung in a short time. That they expect to have services in the church next Sunday morning.

TABLE ROCK

Frank DeFord is working for the electric light people.

Oliver Penland is at Glendale working in a logging camp. He reports that the work is very dangerous to life and limb.

Mr. Reese has been confined to the house for several weeks. The result of an old ailment.

Andy Klum is quite sick at present.

Ben Perry has been having a painful experience for a week the result of an abscess in his ear.

Miss Corcoran and Miss Howard are conducting evangelistic services at Table Rock.

Prof. G. W. Davis gave an interesting and instructive talk on Astrology before the Arrow Head society on Saturday evening.

Rev. M. C. Davis will preach at Table Rock next Sunday evening, February 2nd.

H. C. Washburn began making elder a day or two ago but broke down and had to send to Portland for repairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Gasquet of California, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Glass.

Lost, on Saturday evening, Jan. 25, a Solar bicycle lamp. Please leave at Table Rock store or with Ed Vincent and receive reward.

DEBENGER GAPLETS

Mr. E. E. Robinson, foreman of the Riverside ranch sold his team, harness, wagon and back to Mr. Gale of Beagle. Mr. Robinson and family will move to La Moine, Calif., where he will take up work in the box factory of that place.

The deep and continued snowfall in the mountains of the upper Rogue river, Trail and Elk creek has driven the wild animals and varmints down to the lower hills in search of prey. Last Thursday night while going from the Beagle postoffice to his home at Debenger Gap, Norman Gage heard one of the big grey timber wolves give three of his fierce and anything but nerve-soothing howls, and especially when it is heard coming from somewhere in the darkness close beside the path. Miss Martha Gage and Jack Dow also heard the wolf's howl but neither one had ever heard a wolf howl before and being at such a distance from the animal they were unable at the time to come to any conclusion as to what it was.

Jasper Hanna of Debenger Gap, took a load of beef to Central Point last Saturday, returning Sunday.

Dr. Bowen and Ruesel Thornton of Beagle, and Hurdette Dodge, Jr., of the Riverside ranch were visitors at the Debenger Gap ranch last Sunday.

Mrs. Arthur Jones of Beagle who has been spending the past two weeks in Medford going to school, came home last Wednesday to visit her parents and family, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Stacy but will return to Medford Monday.

Roy Stacy who has been working at the Modoc orchard came home during the stormy weather to visit his relatives at Beagle and returned to work Monday.

WILLOW SPRINGS TWIGLETS

John Sisty and D. W. Stone have been delivering a superior quality of Newtown and Spitzenbergs to the Rogue River Fruit Growers association. There is a time and place for everything. Now is the time to ship winter apples.

John Fackham who has been critically ill for several weeks is slightly improved. The good Samaritan, Mr. R. Stronier is seen going to and from the Fackham home.

The interested parents and friends visiting the school this week are Mrs. J. Berkholtz, Mrs. Pearl Bonnie, Mrs. Sylvia Lake, Mr. R. Dean and R. W. Elden.

Mr. McKee, Jr., who is a student in the New Mexico military institute at Roswell, underwent an operation two weeks ago, for appendicitis. He is however improving as rapidly as conditions will permit.

Col. Muns entertained Medford friends Sunday.

We are glad to announce that a Willow Springs man, D. W. Stone, is a director in the newly organized fruit growers association.

Mr. Cobb Law announces that the road is opened now from Scenic avenue to the Gold Hill road. It shortens the distance one-half a mile and will be thoroughly appreciated by all.

Grange No. 477 is taking up for this month the subjects, "Co-operation," "Destruction of Pests," and other topics of vital importance to the fruit growers and farmers. The paper by Mrs. Pearl Bonnie which appears in another column is a fair sample of co-operation.

CENTRAL POINT ITEMS

Mrs. Cornish of Philadelphia who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Hoesselgrave left Tuesday evening to visit her daughter, Mrs. Foster on Elk creek.

The Klamath Falls basket ball team left for Medford Tuesday morning.

The game here was won by Central Point, score being 18 to 15. After the game they were given a reception by the members of the junior and senior classes at the close of the reception they were all invited to see three reels of pictures at the Savoy Theater. All present spent a very enjoyable time.

The ladies' auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. will give an oyster supper Friday evening at the Y. M. C. A. gym.

Miss Babue, Mr. and Mrs. D. McKellop and A. E. La Porte were among the people from this vicinity shopping in Medford Tuesday afternoon.

Frank Wait was a business visitor here Tuesday and left for Medford in the afternoon.

SCHUBERT SYMPHONY CLUB TO VISIT HERE

Negotiations are under way for a return performance about Feb. 20, by that pleasing musical organization, The Schubert Symphony Club and Lady Quartette, of Chicago. Many Medford people have heard this popular company and no doubt everyone knows of the high favor in which its twenty-four years of success has placed it. The great variety and excellence of this company's program has endeared it to the hearts of American music lovers, until today it stands undoubtedly among the first in their affections. Their new program is said to be the best they have ever presented, and no doubt their house will be large if they are secured for an entertainment here.

ALBANY CONSERVATORY AT GIVE RECITAL SATURDAY

Representatives of the Conservatory of Music of Albany will give a recital in the Presbyterian church, Saturday, Feb. 1st, at 8 p. m. Albany college is surpassed by none in its splendid conservatory of music. All lovers of music should hear this recital. Mrs. Hans Flo is a vocal instructor and will render a number of pieces. Miss Wagner is a graduate of the Conservatory of Antwerp, Germany, in instrumental music. Admission 25c. Do not fail to hear this high grade recital.
