EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

The last time that I wrote I was in Grants Pass but now I am in the little village of Three Pines. When I left home last Friday morning I went directly to Jacksonville, our county seat, to pay my taxes and after that was done returned to Medford and took dinner with one of my old neighbors, John Ashpole, and in the run of our conversation Mrs. Ashpole remarked that the first thing she did when she received the Mail Tribune was to look for the Eaglelets, and that when she opened the paper and found none she was always provoked, and she couldn't see why I could not write six times a week instead of only four times a week. After spending a few hours visiting with the family I took the train for Grants Pass, arriving there at 6:20 p. m. and the next morning I went to Dr. M. C. Findley's office to consult with him regarding my eyes, remaining there most of the day. Although I went there a little after 8 o'clock in the morning I found that there were several ahead of me and during the day I met with quite a number, some acquaintances and some strangers from different parts of the country, among whom were J. A. Eliason of Ashland, George Dixon of Yreka, Cal., Mrs. E. Badger of Roseburg, Ore., Mrs. C. R. Cox of Three Pines. She had had one of her eyes hurt and had a local M. D. treat it and he finally came to the conclusion that he would have to remove the eye when she came to Dr. Findley and she is now rejoicing over having her eye saved and being able to see out of it again. I also met E. E. Crawley of Sams Valley, L. B. Deen of Riddle, H. Openshaw of Roseburg, Ore., Miss Lillie McCall of Ashland, Miss Dora Parks, a teacher of Rogue River (Woodville), Matt Tapols of Galice Creek, Miss Susie Abel of Merlin, besides a number of others whose names I did not learn. The most of these persons were there to have the doctor treat them for their eyes. of the Modoc were recently visiting home folks in this city. S. S. Aiken of Prospect spent Saturday here. Oliver Miller of Table Rock was transacting business here Saturday. C. B. Gay of Medford spent Sunday morning with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gay in this city. Geo. Merriman of Medford was a Sunday guest of his son Tom and family. Paul Krutzier, Sr., spent Sunday here visiting old friends. The Medford baseball team played the Central Point team here Sunday. The score was 5 to 4 in favor of Central Point. Mrs. Major Andrews and Mrs. Kenworthy of Medford visited the Women's Relief Corps here Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. F. Miller, Mrs. F. J. Taylor and son, Mrs. I. N. Murray, Mrs. Will Kelsoe, Miss Elliot, A. R. Parker, and Roy Hebb spent Sunday afternoon in Medford.
