

BOGGS' WITNESS, DAVIS, SAID TO HAVE SOLD BOOZE

Meno Davis, star witness for the prosecution in the cases brought by Mayor Efert and City Attorney Boggs against George F. Millar, councilman from the Third ward will probably be arrested on a complaint by Ernest Reinking, a minor, for selling liquor. Davis is said to have carried a pint flask of whiskey to Reinking and sold it to him for 25 cents.

It is reported that Davis has sold considerable liquor to minors heretofore and that his sudden spring into the limelight in connection with the Millar case brought about his own arrest.

While Councilman Millar has nothing to do with the proposed arrest of Davis, it is reported that Millar had a score of witnesses waiting to impeach Davis' testimony and sworn that he was not only unreliable but that he had been mired up in several disreputable escapades in connection with the Royal Rooming house and the sale of liquor to minors.

Young Reinking stated Friday afternoon that he had purchased the whiskey from Davis. He was taken to City Attorney Boggs who prepared a complaint and asked Reinking to sign it. This the boy refused to do until he had consulted his father. At noon today he had not returned and the authorities now state that they will probably arrest both, one for selling and the other for purchasing liquor.

CREATING DEMAND FOR HOME PRODUCTS

Mrs. Edyth Tozier Weatherred, representing the Oregon Manufacturers association is spending a week in Medford in the interest of Oregon industries and will on Tuesday next address the ladies of Medford at the library building.

Mrs. Weatherred's work consists in inducing people to buy home-made products, to build up local and Oregon payrolls. She not only aims to interest the people in Oregon manufactures, but to interest the manufacturers in the people of Oregon.

Mrs. Weatherred seeks the co-operation of the men and women through various clubs and organizations. It is her endeavor to create and stimulate the habit of asking for home manufactured commodities of every kind, and when these are unobtainable or do not meet the desired standard then preference is to be given other western states.

YOUTHFUL TRAMPS ARE UNDER ARREST

Three boys, all minors, who had started out to "see the country" were arrested Friday afternoon by a Southern Pacific detective at Ashland and taken before Juvenile Judge Frank L. Tou Velle at Jacksonville Saturday. Judge Tou Velle decided to hold them until he could communicate with their parents.

The boys are George Goodwin, aged 17, of Vancouver, B. C.; Mynda Goodman aged 16, of Vancouver, B. C.; and Ralph Hall, aged 17, of Three Rivers, Mich. Goodwin had $19; Goodman $21 and Hall $42.

After hearing their story Judge Tou Velle decided to hold them until he could communicate with their parents. They were hearing their way south in a freight train when arrested.

REGULAR TRAFFIC IN HUMAN BABES

SACRAMENTO, March 22.—After hearing statements that children have been sold in California as slaves as before the war and that traffic was common in baby farms and orphanages, the California legislature passed without opposition a law providing a penalty of five years in the penitentiary for all engaging in such traffic. The trade was due to the fact that the state provides a monthly sum for maintenance of destitute children.

SPRING STYLES AND FASHIONS THE PRINCIPAL ATTRACTIONS ON EASTER SUNDAY.

For weeks and months women everywhere have been busily engaged in preparing their spring wardrobe. Easter Sunday is always the day for the great display of these new styles and fancies of fashion. In the larger cities rows of railors are often seen on the main thoroughfares taking note of the newest styles as the throngs of both wealthy and poor pass by in their new spring gowns.
