MEMORIAL TO MR. AND MRS. ISIDOR STRAUS, VICTIMS OF TITANIC DISASTER, TO BE BUILT AFTER THE MODEL OF MR. LUKEMAN

MEMORIAL TO MR. AND MRS. ISIDOR STRAUS, BY MR. AUGUSTUS LUKEMAN

To Mr. Augustus Lukeman, one of New York's leading sculptors, was awarded the first prize in the competition for designing a fountain to be erected in Straus Park, New York city, in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Isidor Straus, who died together in the wreck of the Titanic.

Four other prizes were awarded in the same competition. They ranged in value from $500 to $1,000. In all, fifty-nine designs were submitted. The total cost of these approximates the cost of the completed memorial, which will be $20,000. The architect named in the award with Mr. Lukeman is Mr. Evaris Tracy, also of New York.

In reaching their decision the committee eliminated the idea of attempting to memorialize the qualities of the man and woman for whom the fountain is to be erected, but accepted the suggestion which Mr. Lukeman has endeavored to embody in the small park—a scheme of peaceful contemplation over a sheet of water, leaving it to the public to think over the sacrifice that the same element demanded in the disaster in which Mr. and Mrs. Straus perished.

The fountain will be of granite and bronze, an expansive granite base being surmounted by the graceful bronze figure of a woman reclining. A bronze plate will bear this inscription:—"To Isidor and Ida Straus, whose lives were unselfishly devoted to the betterment of the State and whose death was a monument to that great bulwark of the State, the family. This memorial erected in the year nineteen hundred and thirteen."

SUFFERED AWFUL PAINS

For Sixteen Years. Restored To Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Morotown, Vermont.—"I was troubled with pains and irregularities for sixteen years, and was thin, weak and nervous. When I would lie down it would seem as if I was going right down into some dark hole, and the window curtains had faces that would peep out at me, and when I was out of doors it would seem as if something was going to happen. My blood was poor, my circulation was so bad I would be like a dead person at times. I had female weakness badly, my abdomen was sore and I had awful pains. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used the Sanative Wash and they certainly did wonders for me. My troubles disappeared and I am able to work hard every day."—Mrs. W. F. SAVERY, River View Farm, Morotown, Vermont.

Another Case. Gifford, Iowa.—"I was troubled with female weakness, also with displacement. I had very severe and steady headaches, also pain in back and was very thin and tired all the time. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am cured of those troubles. I cannot praise your medicine too highly."—Mrs. INA MILL-BEAGLE, Gifford, Iowa.

A Lesson in Geography Teacher—"Where is Cork?" Jimmy ("the budding geographer")—"That's easy. In the center of the Spalding Official National League Ball." That little piece of cork has revolutionized the game. Batters in the big leagues who could not score within 10 points of the magic "300" are finding that distinction while the weaker ones are progressing proportionately. The Cork Center has solved the effort to get more batting without making a farce of the game. The fact that the big leagues use the Cork Center ball exclusively proves that it is the long sought for balance between hitting and hitting.
