

Jeff Didn't See Any Need of Telling the Obvious

By "Bud" Fisher

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

Mrs. Carson of Butte Falls is here visiting the family of J. B. Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Potter of Ashland and family were here attending the funeral of their nephew, Henry Daley, Friday.

Wm. Farlow, of Lake creek, on hearing of the death of his mother in Pilot Rock, Wash., came out Saturday, planned to Pilot Rock and had the funeral postponed until Sunday and started so as to be present at the time.

Miss Mable Gould of Medford came out Friday took the stage for Lake creek so as to meet her sister, Miss Alma Gould who has just closed her school in that district.

Miss Lucia Chapman of Riddle, also came out on the same car and took the same stage for the Lake creek country but I did not learn the object of her visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Conroy who have been working on the Fred Palouze farm for some time spent the night at the Sunny Side Hotel and Saturday went back up near Lake creek to their old home.

Wm. Nausbaum of Lake creek was a pleasant caller Saturday for dinner and Messrs. John Torney, W. H. Fuller, O. L. Mills and A. J. Lupton all of Medford were here for dinner Saturday. They seemed to be looking for some particular tract of land and were examining the Mail Tribune abstract map I have to give to subscribers to the Mail Tribune.

Rev. Mark C. Davis our Congregational Sunday school missionary came in Friday morning to pay me a visit. He and I attended prayer meeting together Friday night. Speaking of prayer meetings Rev. Simmons, the pastor of the Baptist church here has commenced a series of short lectures at those meetings that are proving very interesting and attractive.

Arthur Horton of Brownsboro and another man came down to have some repairing done on his machinery that he has to clear his land of stumps and brush last Wednesday.

M. A. Dorland of Portland was here last Wednesday representing the High Flight flour mills of Eastern Washington.

Frank Smith who is settled on the relinquished homestead of Thomas Ralph, now of Three Rivers, was a pleasant caller Wednesday.

The E. P. A. club is surely attracting some attention now they had an addition of six new members last Tuesday night. Professor Joe Singleton surely deserves credit for what he is doing for the young people of our town and he is not teaching them the athletic sports and exercises for gain but rather he walks two miles and back four times a week just to help along those who wish to be benefited by his knowledge.

W. T. Andrews who owns a part of the old Schneider place, was doing business with Heath & Diamond last Thursday.

Bert Lockwood and wife drove down from Brownsboro Thursday and Mrs. Lockwood spent part of the day visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. James Gillaspay, later in the day taking the car for Medford.

In my last I spoke of the death of Henry Daley and promised to give a more extended notice later. The young man who has gone by the name of Henry Daley was left an orphan by the death of his mother, Mrs. Edward Simon, at the age of five months and his grand parents took him and have raised him to manhood, and he has always gone by the name of Henry Daley, and just before he was taken sick he applied to the court to have his name changed from Henry F. Simon to Henry Daley but sickness prevented the final action so his name is really Henry F. Daley Simon.

The subject of this notice was born in the town of Eagle Point, Ore.,

August 21st, 1889 and died at the residence of his grand parents Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Daley, April 9th, 1913, being 23 years, 8 months and 18 days of age. He was a young man of excellent habits and his word was considered as good as his bond. He was always noted for his politeness and especially to persons of advanced age. He was a butcher and meat cutter by trade and always was considered trustworthy. He was engaged to be married to one of our most estimable young ladies, a daughter of one of our leading blacksmiths and business men, Miss Lorilla Childreth, and expected to have been married on the ninth of February but was taken sick a short time before, and although every thing was done to restore him to health that loving hands could do Miss Childreth stayed with him from the first of his sickness to the hour of his death, and his friends did all that they could, while his grand parents spared neither money nor pains to alleviate his sufferings death had marked him for his own. The lodge of A. O. U. W. of which he was a member did all in their power to help.

The funeral services were held in the church, the sermon being preached by the pastor, Rev. L. L. Simmons to a crowded house and the remains interred in the Central Point cemetery April 11 by the side of his mother. There was about all that could get conveyances followed him to his last earthly resting place. The floral offering was as fine as could be obtained. A large number of his relatives from Ashland, Medford, Lake Creek, etc., were in attendance at the funeral. The minister announced that just a short time before his death he professed faith in Christ.

Mrs. W. A. Elliott was in Medford over Sunday to get acquainted with the new grandson lately arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elliott.

Mrs. I. T. Galligar, who has been quite ill the past three weeks, was taken to the Sacred Heart hospital at Medford, where an operation was performed Tuesday. Her friends are glad to know the operation was successful and she is slowly recovering.

G. B. Alden and W. G. Early were in Medford Thursday on business.

Mrs. Schmidt and two children arrived Sunday evening from Honolulu for a few weeks' visit with friends at the Roanoke ranch.

Mrs. Sprague returned last week from Santiago, Cal., where she spent the last three months.

Mrs. C. D. Woolverton entertained the ladies of the Recreation club Thursday. The new members, Mrs. Henry and Mrs. Lynn Smith, of Gold Hill, were present, also Mrs. Jermsa of Medford as an invited guest.

A pleasing program consisting of music and readings was given by the younger members of the club.
