EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett. Fred Polzane, one of our progressive orchardists, was doing business in our town last Monday and while here visited our school, he is one of the directors. He took dinner with your correspondent and while here gave me his idea as to how to conduct the business of the district. He is in favor of levying a heavy tax and having everything on a high plane. I learned this Thursday morning that there is talk of trying to bond the school district, pay off the indebtedness, and some are talking of building another school house, but from what I can learn by listening on the street to what is said, a majority of the tax payers are opposed to both moves. Scott Bruce has moved to Portland with his family and Mr. Diamond who has been in partnership with Mr. Heath in the mercantile business, has moved to Medford. John Rader and his daughter Miss Inez brought in a lot of butter and eggs for Mr. Heath Wednesday. Mrs. E. Packard and son who have been visiting Mrs. Henry Meyers on Lake creek came out Wednesday and returned to their home in Medford. Mr. Bertison of Lake creek was in town Wednesday doing business with our hardware merchants and Henry Childreth, one of our blacksmiths. Lyman O. Orton who owns the old Ervin place just north of our town called at the Sunny Side for supper Wednesday night and Harold L. Hardwick, a traveling salesman for the Pacific Hardware and Steel company of Portland, was here doing business with our new hardware man Roy Ashpole Wednesday and spent the night at the Sunny Side. Fred Heath spent Wednesday in Medford. L. H. Dervesse and his brother J. L. Dewese, who are settled on a tract of railroad land near the site of the old Jacobs sawmill on the Obenchain road were in town Wednesday having some repair work done on their wagon. George Fisher one of our blacksmiths, has been spending a few days with the "old folks at home" on Indian creek.

CENTRAL POINT POINTERS.

Many people of Willows Springs attended the ball game here Friday afternoon. There will be an Epworth League rally Sunday evening at the M. E.

PHOENIX

Mrs. Lizzie Stancliff is on the sick list this week. Miss Fouten was a caller in town Friday. B. S. Brown and family have been suffering from la grip this week. Rev. A. Whiddon and wife were callers in Talent Thursday afternoon. Miss Marlon B. Towne attended the Michigan university alumni luncheon given in Medford Monday evening. Mrs. O. E. Hazlewood and Mrs. S. L. Bacus were callers in town on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. George A. Morse spent Friday with Mrs. G. Fuller. Mrs. John A. Gamhill recovered sufficiently to be able to be removed home Tuesday. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Emory of Alameda, Cal., who was called here when Mrs. Gamhill was taken to the hospital, two weeks ago. Work is progressing quite rapidly on the digging of the trenches for the laying of the city water mains. J. G. Miller of the Ashland Miller Broom Manufacturing was in town Friday, soliciting orders for his brooms. He reports a bright outlook for his factory this year.

Call for Mail Tribune vacuum cleaners at Mr. Abbott's hardware store.

church. Four of the district officers at least will be present and will take part in the meeting. All are cordially invited to attend this meeting. Mrs. Smith and daughter Grace are visiting relatives at Edgewood, Cal. The ball game between the business men of the north and the business men of the south was the greatest event of the season. We will predict that there is no city on the coast that has as good ball players as our business men. The score was 28 to 10 in favor of the south side. It was a regular holiday for Central Point, as most everybody was at the game. Mrs. H. Price spent Friday morning in Medford. Mrs. Stout and child, Miss Sam, Mrs. Howell, Mrs. M. H. Parker, and Miss Blackford were among the Central Pointers in Medford Friday afternoon. W. J. Albert of Ashland spent Friday afternoon here. Jonas Olson of Portland is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paulus Olson, in this city this week.
