

COTTAGE GROVE LIKES MEDFORD

"The prettiest little city I was ever in," was the comment made by J. W. Eddy upon his return from attending the Old Fellows' convention at Medford last week.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS.

Oliver McCabe started last Wednesday for the state of Washington. Mrs. George Von der Hellen, who has so successfully handled the primary department of our school, has gone to Los Angeles to spend the summer.

The Eagle Point band gave a dance last Tuesday and I understand that they had a pleasant time, although they were somewhat crowded. The dance was given to raise funds to buy the uniforms for the members of the band, which amounted to over $100.

Our school closed yesterday (Thursday) and Mrs. Buddha, the teacher of the primary department, gave the children of her room a picnic dinner at her residence, and the children say that they had a very enjoyable time, but express their regrets that they have to part with her.

Last Sunday as I was on my way to church J. M. Deanberry came dashing along in an auto with J. A. Smith, his daughter, Mrs. Sarah Hall, of Medford, and his niece, Miss Madge Gulbranson, of Petaluma, Cal., on their way to the Sunnyside for dinner, and when I returned from church found Mr. and Mrs. Fred Engle and ex-Senator L. L. Mult, wife and little son, of Ashland, and a few minutes later Attorney E. D. Briggs and wife and daughter, Miss Nellie, and Mrs. Billie, and J. C. McNair of Ashland and George Davis, wife and daughter, Miss Hazel, and Dr. J. M. Keena and wife, besides Mayor Von der Hellen, wife and two children, and a stranger whose name I failed to remember, beside several of the citizens of Eagle Point, who just came in for a good chicken dinner.

Sunday afternoon I got into the auto with Mr. Smith and his daughter and went to Medford, attended the Baptist church and the next morning took the 7:30 train for Grants Pass to have Dr. Pindley treat my eyes, arriving at his office at 8:40 a. m., and was fortunate enough to be the seventh name on the list that morning. During the forenoon I was there I had the pleasure of meeting Mrs. W. S. Rader, Mrs. K. J. Pool, Mr. and Mrs. Bird, Mrs. T. Williams and Miss Kate Coburn, all of Yreka, Cal., and Mrs. W. J. Bary and Mrs. J. F. Haight of Troy, Cal., and Mrs. J. W. Pardee of Canyonville, Or., beside several others whose names I did not learn.

When I met them, as soon as they learned my name they would say: "Howlett; Oh, you're the man who writes the Eaglelets for the Mail Tribune," and when I would answer in the affirmative they would generally say: "Oh, I knew you, for I have been reading the Eaglelets for a long time."

Died—May 27, 1913, on his homestead, near Trull, Rubin P. Daw, of typhoid pneumonia, aged about 43 years. He leaves a wife and several children to battle alone in this world.

Jeff Might Have Known Better Than Suggest It

A 3x2 grid of comic panels. Panel 1: A man asks, 'SAY, JEFF, LISTEN! I'VE GOTTA RAISE TWO BUCKS. HAVE YOU GOT #2?'. Jeff replies, 'NO! I AIN'T GOT A CENT.' Panel 2: The man says, 'LISTEN, JEFF, I'M IN TROUBLE. IF YOU'VE GOT TWO BUCKS DON'T HOLD OUT FOR THE LOVE OF MICE LEAD IT TO ME. THIS IS SERIOUS.' Jeff replies, 'HONEST, I AIN'T GOT IT BUT I'LL TRY AND THINK OF A WAY FOR YOU TO RAISE IT.' Panel 3: The man asks, 'HOW, LET ME THINK, HOW CAN YOU RAISE TWO BUCKS?'. Jeff replies, 'LET ME THINK.' Panel 4: The man says, 'I GOT IT, MUTT, I GOT IT!'. Jeff replies, 'HOW?'. Panel 5: The man says, 'GO TO WORK.' Panel 6: A dog is shown running away with a bag full of money.

ROGUE RIVER ITEMS.

(From the Argus.) Isaac Wright went to Wisconsin and South Dakota points for a visit. Mr. Wright has two sons and a daughter in that part of the world whom he has not seen for 22 years so he will spend a couple of months renewing old acquaintances.

G. M. Ingorsoll and wife, who have been residents of Rogue River for a year, returned to their old home at Keokuk, Iowa. They were well pleased with their home here, but they had some property there that would not take care of itself, hence the return east. They will be back.

Our people would be well pleased if a certain dentist of Grants Pass would do his getting drunk at home instead of coming here to do it, and not only that, but if he must go into a telephone office and swear at a lady we would rather he would do that at home. It would save him the trouble of picking himself up after our telephone manager had thrown him out.

We do not quite understand this people here. They appear to be like the old fellow who was "always waiting for sompbn to turn up" but he hated to dust around a little himself. Monday evening was the regular meeting of the commercial club, and it was noted around the "creamery" would be talked up. Every one is "looking for sompbn to turn up," but only four could be pried out to try and turn something up.

The L. O. O. F. hall was the scene of a pleasant evening Monday, May 26, the occasion being a surprise by the D. of R. for our grand D. D., Sister Margaret Chisholm, who is going to leave us, moving to Gold Hill. Sister Chisholm assures us she will stick to the home lodge, too. The Rebekahs assembled at the hall and went in a body to Sister Chisholm's home. After enjoying her surprise for a time, they escorted her to the ball, where ice cream and cake were served, and a good time enjoyed.

"Hiking Nell," the woman hobo, lit last night and the police tied her up and called up the poor farm, but the other end of the wire said "He her loose," and along the tie she went.

There are 22 children of school age along the river near Foote creek, one goes seven miles to school, the rest stay at home. A petition is out for a new district so all may go to school next year.

Dr. W. P. Chisholm moved his family to Gold Hill yesterday. Dr. Smith is going to Creswell to practice medicine, so Dr. Chisholm is merely taking up the work where he left it several years ago.
