CONSERVATIONISTS FIGHT CONTROL BY STATES

PORTLAND, June 3.—The Oregon State Conservation commission has gone on record as unreservedly opposed to the transfer of the national forests to state control, in a public statement just issued. It is intended to widely circulate this report in pamphlet form. Unanimous endorsement of the report is given by the commission, which is an official state body, created by the legislature and appointed by Governor West. Members of the commission are: J. N. Teal, Josephine Hirsch, B. F. Irvine and F. F. Henshaw, Portland; William P. Mann, Baker, and C. B. Watson, Ashland. By the adoption of the report the state declares itself squarely opposed to the efforts of several western governors and congressional delegates, including Lafferty of Oregon, who are trying to invoke the states' rights doctrine and secure federal cession of all western public resources to the western states.

PORTLAND LIKED THE PANTAGE VAUDEVILLE

The Oregonian has the following comment to make on the Pantages show which will be at the Page theater Wednesday and Thursday: Menlo Moore's Mother Goose girls provide an artistic act, with a picturesque setting. Pretty girls, taking the parts of well-known characters in fairy land, sing and dance their way into the hearts of the audience, while Robert Rice is equally effective as a grotesque queen of the fairies.

"Love's Young Dream," the only playlet on the bill provides unusual situations for comedy. Papa, portrayed effectively by Emil Hoch, is mistaken for the butler by a young blood who claims his daughter. In consequence he has to listen to all sorts of disparaging talk about himself, but bides his time, which never comes, for the youth with great sang froid turns the tables on him and gives him no chance to retaliate.

In "The New Recruit" Browning and Lewis make a great hit with the audience. The one is a sergeant, 'tother, one of those simpletons who always manages to say clever things with an air of idiocy about them. A really good act. Then there is some clever aerial work combined with humor by McPhee and Hill that is not too far-fetched, with an Italian street scene to complete the bill.

HIKES ACROSS CONTINENT EATING FRUITS AND NUTS

NEW YORK, June 3.—Fruits, nuts and vegetables will compose the diet of Henry Sain, 25 years of age, who will start June 9 on a "hike" from Coney Island to San Francisco. He will carry messages from Governor Sulzer and Mayor Gaynor to Mayor Rolph of San Francisco.

MARRIED.

Earl Kiser and Miss Leona Deane were married at the bride's home on Siskiyou Heights Saturday evening. A number of the young people's friends were present and the house was beautifully decorated with flowers and greens. Dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. Kiser is the daughter of H. G. Deane, and a popular member of Medford's younger set. Mr. Kiser is a member of the Medford fire department and has many friends. Monday evening the other fire boys gave the young couple a ride through Main street on the hose cart.

Julia Dean, it is reported, has obtained a divorce from her husband, Ormo Caldara.

TRIES TO COMMIT SUICIDE ON TRAIN

An unidentified woman became insane upon Southern Pacific train No. 16 Saturday and was with difficulty restrained from throwing herself from the window of the moving train with suicidal intent says the Ashland Tidings. She was taken from the train at Ashland and taken to Granite City hospital, where she still is. Ed Hughes, who boarded the train at Dunsuir, states that the woman was, as nearly as could be learned, en route from Los Angeles to Portland. She stated that she had left her husband for another man and that the latter had left her, taking her boy and $100,000 of her money. At one time she said the boy was 10 years old and at another that he was 16. She attempted several times to leave the train and Mr. Hughes states that it was all that three women and himself could do to keep her from jumping through the window. The train crew telegraphed ahead and Dr. Parsons, the company physician, and the chief of police met the train and took her to Granite City hospital and placed her under the care of Dr. Swendenburg. Mrs. E. A. Hunter, who boarded the train at Hornbrook, assisted in caring for her and offered to have her taken to her own home, but it was thought wiser to place her in the hospital.

WILLAMETTE RIVER STILL ON RAMPAGE

PORTLAND, Ore., June 3.—The Willamette river continued to rise today and before the end of the week it is expected to reach 23 feet above normal. Merchants along Front street have vacated their basements and are selecting storage places higher above ground. No damage has been done, as the high water is caused, to some extent, by the backwater of the Columbia river.

CONVENTION OF W. O. W. MEETS HERE TODAY

The Women of Woodcraft, nearly a hundred strong, arrived in Medford last night for their annual convention. Lodge members from the territory south of Eugene are here including a large delegation from Klamath Falls. The program for today is as follows: 9:00 a. m. Business session at the I. O. O. F. hall. 12:00. Lunch. 1:00. Election of Officers. 3:30. Tour through the valley in autos, furnished by Commercial club members. 5:30. Dinner at the I. O. O. F. hall. 8:00. Evening session. Exemplary.
