PIONEERS AND THEIR SUCCESSORS.

PIONEERS of Oregon are holding their annual reunion in Portland. Many whitened heads, many stooped shoulders, many vacant places in the ranks testify to the ravages of time since they blazed the way into the wilderness to found a commonwealth.

All Oregon delights in honoring the pioneers. They did their work well. They prepared the way for we who have come after them to reap the fruits of their early struggles.

But what are we, who have taken the places of these fathers and mothers of accomplishment, doing that the future may honor us as we honor the pioneers? Do we think that half a century of vegetation will entitle our whitened heads to homage in the future?

Because a person has existed for a long time in one place does not entitle him to be the recipient of ancestor worship in the future, as in Japan. He or she must do something worthwhile, as the pioneer did, to be rewarded by recognition.

What are we doing to benefit humanity, to develop our locality, to make the world better for existence? Some of us are chasing pennies, some swapping jackknives, some are speculating and some idling, some perpetually knocking, some obstructing, some backbiting and scandal mongering, many are growing littler mentally as they are growing older physically.

Do those who spend life's fleeting hours in such occupations, imagine for a minute the future will honor them as the present honors the pioneers? What have they pioneered except the well-worn paths of greed and retrogression?

One must do something better than grab his bread and fleece his brothers to receive the gratitude of futurity. What memories for old age to dwell in and for the rising generation to point to, do the lives of the pioneers' successors hold? How many are worth while?

RITCHIE THREATENS TO TELL TRUTH REGARDING NOLAN

SAN FRANCISCO, June 20.—"Just one more word from Nolan and I'll tell the real cause of our trouble," said Willie Ritchie here today, in discussing his break with his former manager, and Nolan's alleged references to him since that time as an "ingrate."

Ritchie is good and hot under the collar, following the reading of a statement attributed to Nolan after their final parting at Graney's place yesterday afternoon, when Nolan refused to shake hands with the fighter.

At the Wednesday night conference, it was agreed between them that once they came to a final settlement there would be no mud slinging engaged in and that they would remain friends. The last words spoken in the conference room came from the third party, called in to act as an arbitrator.

"Well, boys," he said, "I hope we will continue to be friends."

"Why, certainly," said Nolan and Ritchie, almost in unison. Nolan forgot his part of the agreement Thursday afternoon after Ritchie had signed $3,000 over to him in settlement of all claims that Nolan may have against him and after calling Ritchie an ingrate before a crowd, he gave out an interview in which he scored the champion.

"Nolan is a closed incident in my life," Ritchie said in San Rafael today, "and while his remarks were unbecoming, to say the least, I will pay no attention to them. If he again attacks me, I will defend myself by telling the world a lot of things. I would dislike to be forced to do this, but if there is any more mud slinging on Nolan's part I am going to take a hand in it myself."

RECKLESS AUTOIST GETS PRISON TERM

TRENTON, N. J., June 20.—Daniel A. Dugan, junior, whose father, Judge D. A. Dugan, of the Orange district court, is a personal friend of President Woodrow Wilson, must serve a sentence of from five to ten years at hard labor, according to a decision of the state supreme court which affirmed today the lower court's conviction of manslaughter for killing Lee McDermott, a boy who tried to cross the street in front of Dugan's automobile. The accident occurred Christmas Day, 1911.

THINKS SUICIDE MYGATT INSANE

PORTLAND, Ore., June 20.—Mrs. L. M. Allen, mother of Mrs. Ruth Frances Allen, because of whose resistance to his advances Edward Mygatt jumped to his death at Tacoma early today, declared this afternoon her belief that Mygatt was insane.

At her home here she said Mygatt had been seeking to marry her daughter in spite of the fact that her husband is living, though he has disappeared.

"Mygatt has written to his people in Independence, Mo., that he and Ruth are married," said Mrs. Allen. "This, however, is not true. He also claims to be the father of her baby, but the father is away in the east somewhere—we don't know where."

Mrs. Allen said her daughter, whose name also is Allen, has persistently refused to have anything to do with Mygatt. She declared his parents are people of wealth in Independence.

PREDICTS UNIVERSAL WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE

BUDAPEST, June 20.—New York State will grant women the vote in 1915. Massachusetts will do likewise about the same time—possibly before 1915, and other New England commonwealths will be quick to follow the example set by the Empire and the Bay state. This was the claim made here today by Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the great International Woman Suffrage Alliance which is holding its seventh annual convention here with 1000 delegates representing twenty-eight countries, in attendance. Mrs. Catt declared that the fight in America is about to be won, and that from now on women who are fighting to have a hand in making the laws by which they are governed will center their efforts on the Empire state. In explaining the campaign mapped out for the suffragists of America, Mrs. Catt described how success in New York State would have a wonderful moral effect on the New England states. She declared also that the south would be more ready "to fall into line" after New York is won. "The far western commonwealths," said Mrs. Catt, "have capitulated. Woman suffrage is no longer an experiment. Too much good has followed it. The states east will capitulate and surrender to the inevitable when New York sets the pace. We are certain to win in the referendum of 1915." The congress which has been in session five days will adjourn next Sunday.

FATS SECURE FAMOUS PLAYERS

The postponement of the Fat-Lean game, which J. Pluv, by P. J. O'Garra, his local deputy, put over until Monday, has given the Fat's chances another boom. J. A. Westerlund, the new Fat backstop has been doing road work for the past three days and now claims he will be ready to weigh in at 3:00 p. m. Monday, two hours before the battle. He anticipates no trouble in making the necessary poundage for a place on that team.

Dr. E. R. Seeley, whose timely hitting two years ago pulled the Fats out of the fire, has also been signed up by the Fats and will probably be seen at his old position at short.

Every effort will be made to make the costumes of the players suitable to the occasion. Gus Newberry was about town this morning trying to buy some umbrella covers and there is a rumor out that Gus will appear in black silk tights, improvised from umbrella covers.

H. C. Kentner, whose costume carried off the prize two years ago declares that his appearance this year will make the New Orleans Mardi Gras look like a procession of Benedictine Monks.

HANKY-PANKY STARS RIDE IN OVERLAND

William Montgomery and Florence Moore, the two big stars in the Lew Fields musical comedy "Hanky Panky" which will appear at the Page theatre Friday, June 20, own an Overland automobile which is an unusual proof of the efficiency of that car. They have owned it three years and for two years have driven it all over the country with "Hanky Panky", driving their car between towns whenever possible and loading it on the baggage car of the company's special train only when the length of the inter-city jumps made it absolutely necessary.

It can readily be seen that in this way they have subjected the car to an unusual test, for they have had to make long jumps between towns, over roads which they could not pick or choose and under any conditions. In the two years they have depended on their Overland they have never been late for a performance, for the car has taken them through on time and never failed them.

Montgomery has made some notable trips in his car and broken several records. He covered the distance between Boston and Albany, 387 miles, in 11 hours, through the mountains a part of the way, and broke all records for the distance between Buffalo and Detroit, over Canadian roads. He drove from Rochester to Buffalo in a blizzard last January and arrived before the special train carrying the company.

While in Medford Mr. Montgomery will store his car in the garage of C. E. Gates, the Overland man, who has been informed by wire that Mr. Montgomery and his remarkable car are headed this way. Upon their arrival here they will be shown over the valley by him.

Montgomery always makes his own repairs when necessary and has not had a mechanic bother with his car for two years. He understands it perfectly, and it rarely needs attention.

INDIAN AND WHITE PARTNERS IN CRIME

SPOKANE, Wash., June 20.—Search is being made in the territory around Spangle today for an unidentified Indian and white man who erred his eighty-year-old mother and and foot in his ranchhouse, overpowered his eighty-year-old mother and then took Frasse's young sister into an adjoining room, evidently intending to do her harm. JACKSONVILLE STORE ENTERED BY BURGLARS

A burglar forced entrance by the back window into Williams & Co.'s store (formerly Nunan's) at Jacksonville Saturday night and secured a quantity of merchandise, some clothing and a little currency left in the cash drawer, amounting to a few dollars. There are no clues.

SWORD FISH ATTACKS SHIP, PIERCING HULL

PORTLAND, Ore., June 19.—The schooner Kona left drydock today after repairs to her hull caused by the angry attack of a swordfish in mid-ocean had been completed. The Kona recently arrived here from Auckland, N. Z. The fish, evidently mistaking the boat for its enemy, the whale, struck the vessel such a vicious blow that it left its weapon sticking clear through the outer skin. The sword was snapped off and plugged what otherwise would have become a serious leak.
