

GIRLS' WANTON LIFE BARED BY DIGG'S COUNSEL

Nasty Scandal of Relations Long Existing Between Two Girls and Defendants in White Slave Case Is Brought Out in Cross-Examination

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 13.—Merely attacking her character previous to the Reno affair and forcing her to have every clandestine act and intimacy with her paramour, Maury I. Diggs, former state architect, now on trial for violation of the Mann white slave act, Miss Marsha Warrington, 20-year-old Sacramento girl, at noon today was being subjected to a grueling cross-examination by Attorney Nate Coghlan for the defense.

Coming on such sharp contrast with the consideration under which she was shielded as much as possible by Special Prosecutor Theodore Roche, who dwelt only fleetingly on the actual acts alleged as the basis for the indictment of Diggs, the Warrington girl was visibly shocked and numb. Her answers at times came gaspingly—a simple "yes" or "no," which often had to be repeated at the request of Judge Van Fleet to be heard at all.

Every secret relationship with the defendant seemed to have been gathered by the defense and hurled at her remorselessly, from her admitted introduction to Diggs on a Sacramento street corner under a fictitious name, through many early indiscretions, and finally to wild joy rides about Sacramento county and frequent visits to other California cities, where all night stops at hotels were made by Diggs and Caminetti, Miss Warrington and Miss Lola Norris.

It was brought out by Attorney Coghlan that Miss Warrington and the other three had not only frequented the roadhouses adjacent to Sacramento, but that San Francisco, San Jose and Stockton had been the scenes of recurrent escapades. The office of Diggs had been made a frequent rendezvous for admitted intimacies, according to the girl's testimony.

During this fire of cross-examination Diggs leaned forward eagerly, shuffling uneasily in his chair. Caminetti was leaning over his shoulder anxiously, while the father of Diggs sat listlessly and aimlessly making pencil marks on a piece of paper. Miss Lola Norris, a year younger than Miss Warrington and the next witness to be called when Miss Warrington's cross-examination is finished, will be subjected to the same searching examination, it is declared, as the cost of hearing out the Warrington girl's story for the prosecution.

COLUMBIA BRIDGE BONDS WIN ELECTION

VANCOUVER, Wash., Aug. 13.—Indications today were that the measure bonding Clarke county for $500,000 to construct, in conjunction with Multnomah county, Oregon, a bridge over the Columbia river, passed by a vote of better than seven to one. No election ever held in the county created so much interest. The last session of the Oregon legislature passed an act enabling Multnomah county to bond itself for $1,500,000 to pay its share in the building of the bridge, which will when completed, be a part of the Pacific highway.

SHOT HER HUSBAND TO SAVE OWN LIFE

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 13.—"I shot to save my own life," was the explanation today of Miss Victoria Love, who late yesterday probably fatally wounded her husband, Francis Love, following a quarrel in their apartments. "Soon as my husband came in," Mrs. Love told the police, "he started to call me down before a neighbor. After she left he drew an automatic revolver and I shot him before he could shoot me."

PEACE PREVALES IN MEXICO CITY ASSERTS LIND

President's Emissary Reports Everything Satisfactory—Americans Leaving Mexico in Large Numbers—Secret Conference with Huerta.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—With Americans departing from Mexico on every steamer, the United States today is rapidly gaining the advantage in the situation, according to advice received at the state department, if John Lind, the president's special emissary, fails to bring quiet, the present embargo on the importation of arms from this country may be raised without serious danger of any extensive massacre of Americans.

Lind, it is now admitted, must soon move toward some plan for peace, but it is believed certain here that if he does so try he will be rebuffed. However, both President Wilson and Secretary Bryan still believe that Lind will be able to show Huerta how he can make certain concessions and still "save his face." Lind may even confer privately with Huerta if such a conference can be arranged. In his dispatches to the state department Lind reports that all is satisfactory in Mexico City. He seems to be hopeful of the ultimate success of his mission. The house committee on foreign affairs expects to ask President Wilson for a conference on Mexican affairs. It wishes to secure the same information as is to be given the senate committee on foreign relations.

GIRL BALKS AT EXPOSING NATURE

CHICAGO, Aug. 13.—Refusing to expose her naked curves on calf and knee in a flesh-colored bathing suit, Eloise Brighton, artist's model, "crabbed the show" at the national styles exposition here. She balked at a Buster Brown bathing suit, which was expected, when filled with girl, to be the big noise of the show. But there were others—250 of them—who filled out the various "creations." Many of these were cut short, both high and low, and when spotlights were turned on the diaphanous gowns in which some of the models were arrayed the crowd "could scarce forbear to cheer."

STATE TO RUN OPEN PRINT SHOP

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 13.—Holding that a union contract would be a violation of the rights guaranteed by the state federal constitution, Attorney General Crawford today rendered an opinion holding that it would be unconstitutional for the state printer to enter into a written contract with the Typographical Union to operate the state printing office as a closed shop. State Printer R. A. Harris, who announced yesterday his intention to sign up with the union, stated today that he would accept the ruling of the attorney general.

CHAMPAIGN, YOUTH ACCUSED OF MURDER

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Aug. 13.—The coroner today held an inquest here on the body of Harold Shaw, a university of Illinois student, who was murdered and buried on the Penman farm near here. Gust Penman, a son of the owner of the farm, is accused and is sought by deputies. The slayer left Shaw's feet exposed when he buried the body. Neighbors testified that young Penman borrowed a snare Sunday morning, and it is thought the crime was committed shortly before that time.

WIFE PLEADS GUILT TO SAVE GOV. SULZER

SULZER IMPEACHED BY ASSEMBLY; NOW BEFORE SENATE

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 13.—Governor William Sulzer, who was impeached by the state assembly this morning, appeared at the capitol today accompanied by Samuel Thomas, his legal adviser. It is understood Sulzer plans to sign the pardon of a prisoner after Lieutenant Governor Glynn takes charge. Then if the warden of the prison refuses to recognize the pardon a test case will be inaugurated to see who really is governor. "This will be a fight to a finish," said Thomas. "This assembly will be Tammany's graveyard. It never can survive what it has done today."

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 13.—With the assembly of the state legislature adopting the resolution providing impeachment proceedings against Governor William Sulzer on charges of misconduct in office, New York state is expected to have two rival governors when the senate this afternoon receives the impeachment articles from the lower house.

As soon as the senate convenes, a notification committee from the assembly will inform the senate that the assembly, at 5:16 o'clock this morning, by a vote of 79 to 45, adopted the impeachment resolution. A committee of five, representing the assembly, already has prepared the articles of impeachment. If they are also adopted by the senate, the state constitution provides, Sulzer must relinquish office until he is vindicated of the charges or permanently ousted from the governorship.

Sulzer to Resist Governor Sulzer is expected to resist suspension and undoubtedly will attempt to continue to occupy the executive offices. In this event it is expected that Lieutenant Governor Glynn will call out the state militia to protect his office, the constitution providing that he shall automatically assume charge of the affairs of state the moment the legislature adopts the impeachment resolution.

It was learned here today that Senator Frawley, head of the committee which investigated the charges against the governor, called secretly at Governor Sulzer's office last night. He is said to have looked repeatedly over his shoulder as if watching to see whether he was being shadowed. Frawley remained with the governor but ten minutes. The visit gave rise to reports that a reconciliation had been effected, and that the charges against Sulzer would not be pressed, but Frawley emphatically denied this.

TRAINMEN AGREE TO SUBMIT STRIKE TO FEDERAL BOARD

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 13.—As a result of several conferences, all four of the railroad brotherhoods—the conductors, trainmen, firemen and engineers—will stand together and submit their demands of the Southern Pacific to the government board of mediation, represented here by Assistant Commissioner, G. W. W. Hanger. Officials of the company have consented to this arrangement, as the demands of the four organizations are practically identical respecting suburban electric lines. Commissioner Hanger stated today that he is now conferring with representatives of each of this organization and with officials of the Southern Pacific but he is unable to predict how long it will require for a settlement, should his efforts at conciliation be successful.

TWO KILLED WHEN TREE CRASHES DOWN ON WAGON

THE DALLES, Or., Aug. 13.—Arthur H. Smith, a sawmill operator at Wahkiacus, Wash., and his wife are dead today and D. E. Cox, an employe, is suffering from perhaps fatal injuries as the result of a large tree falling on the wagon in which they were riding. Although terribly mangled, Cox dragged himself a mile and a half to a farmhouse and reported the accident. The tree had been burned at the base and toppled across the road just as the wagon reached the spot.

TELEGRAPHERS OF SOUTHERN PACIFIC REJECT INCREASE

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 13.—Negotiations are still being conducted here today between a committee representing the Order of Railway Telegraphers and officials of the northern, central and southern districts of the Southern Pacific regarding a demand of the telegraphers for a flat increase in pay. General Superintendent D. W. Campbell of the northern district, which includes Oregon; General Superintendent J. M. Davis of the central and General Superintendent H. Z. Platt of the southern districts are here representing the company.

If the general superintendents refuse to grant the demands, the committee will appeal to the general manager. Southern Pacific officials declare there is every prospect of reaching an agreement.

It is understood that an offer of an increase has been made, but that the operators held out for more. The telegraphers have not joined forces with the other orders which are seeking an adjustment of the rights of electric lines, but are conducting their negotiations separately.

180,000 Fry for Restocking Local Streams, Bulk of Which Will Be Taken to Butte Falls—Finley Coming to Secure Steelhead Films.

William L. Finley, state fish warden, wires the Rogue River Fish Protective association that the state fish car will arrive in Medford with trout fry for distribution in local streams on train 15 Friday afternoon. Anyone wishing to transport fry to the Applegate or Little Butte can receive the same by applying to L. Bundy, secretary of the association, and having automobiles or other conveyances ready for hauling the fry on arrival. There will be 180 cans of fry aboard and those not taken here will be placed in Big Butte Saturday, the P. & E. hauling the car there. The association wired recommending that all the fry be taken to Butte Falls, on account of failure by owners to screen irrigation ditches in the Little Butte and Applegate sections.

Mr. Finley wired that if steelheads were biting he would bring down a moving picture man to take photos of steelhead fishing, the films of which will be shown throughout the nation. He was told to bring on the camera and local anglers would do their best to make the steelheads perform in circus fashion.

SURGEON BRINGS HOPE TO CHILDLESS

LONDON, Aug. 13.—Surgical transplantation of organs which will bring hope to childless women was predicted by Dr. Voronoff of Nice in an address to the congress of medicine here. Voronoff claims to have enabled a barren ewe to give birth to a lamb which is still living. "I assert," he said, that my experiments may be applied to human beings. Indeed, it is easier to graft certain organs of humans than in animals. A new era is dawning for human surgical operations. The whole organ will be transplanted. Sterility will be transformed into fruitfulness, and those now condemned to die of incurable diseases will be given a new lease of life."

WILSON FAVORS CREDIT SYSTEM TO AID FARMER

President Promises to Secure Early Action on a Complete Rural Credit Scheme to Benefit Agricultural Interests and Fill Real Wants.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—In an official statement issued today President Wilson declares that he favors "a complete and adequate system of credits." The statement explained that such legislation was not attached to the currency bill because there had been no time in which to prepare a plan. The president promised to secure early action on a complete rural credit scheme.

The president's statement said: "There has been too little federal legislation framed to serve the farmer directly and with deliberate adjustment to his real needs. We long ago fell into the habit of assuming that American farmers enjoyed such an immense natural advantage over the farmers of the rest of the world and were so intelligent and enterprising and were so at ease upon the incomparable soils of our continent that they could prosper no matter what handicap they carried. "We never exaggerated their capacity or opportunity, but neglected to analyze their burdensome disadvantages. One of the chief disadvantages has been that the farmers have not been able to secure extended bank accommodations which they need every year without paying burdensome rates of interest and saddling themselves with mortgages and obligations of every kind. "Other countries have systems of rural credits, put in operation not only for relieving the farmer but also to put his enterprises on a footing easy of accomplishment. Our farmers must have similar means afforded them. This is our next great task and duty."
