EDWARDS VS. BOYD TOMORROW NIGHT

Once more, tomorrow night, the Angle opera house will be the gathering place of the fans of Medford and vicinity, when they congregate to see Frankie Edwards of Oakland, and Bud Boyd of Los Angeles, enter the ring to box ten rounds.

Edwards is the man who gave Bud Anderson, the Medford idol, two of the hardest battles of his career, and report has it that Edwards came very near being returned the winner over Bud in their last encounter at Klammath Falls last June. In fact, "Chick" Wilson and a few more of the local sportsmen who journeyed to see the bout were of the opinion that the ball was a welcome sound to Anderson at the close of the first round and Edwards still maintains that Bud is one man whom he can beat.

Without a doubt, Edwards is the cleverest boxer that has ever been seen in this city, and his work during his training here, has been a revelation to the followers of the old game of hit and get away.

Boyd, while not as clever as Edwards, is touted by those who have seen him in action, as a comer. He is fairly clever, aggressive and can hit hard from any angle. "He has had about twenty bouts and has as yet to taste defeat. True enough, he has never met any top notchers, but who knows but that he may be another Bud Anderson in our midst, for he has all the qualities that made Bud Anderson such a favorite with the fans of Medford. Boyd is a credit to the boxing game as he is a boy of exemplary habits and has yet to taste his first drop of liquor or tobacco.

There will be two first class preliminaries between local boys making eighteen rounds in all. The first preliminary will start at 8:30 sharp, the second immediately after, and the main event will be over by 10:00 p. m., thus bringing to a close a day relished by every true sportsman. "Horse racing in the afternoon and a boxing contest at night."

A large delegation is expected from Grants Pass as the special train carrying home the Grants Pass visitors, will leave about 11 p. m.

Seats are now on sale at the Nash Hotel and judging from the advance sale of tickets, the biggest house in the history of the game here is looked for as reservation are coming in from Grants Pass, Ashland, Phoenix and other towns around.

SCHOOL EXHIBITS WANTED AT STATE FAIR

L. P. Harrington, industrial field worker for school fairs, says as follows: "Jackson county schools can fill the booth reserved for them in the new industrial school exhibit building on the state fair grounds at Salem, if those who are interested do what they can to assist in assembling the good products which the young people can show.

All who believe in the practical education of which this kind of work is the result should give their support. All who are in favor of having boys and girls know how to do common things should help the young people to prepare for this exhibit.

"Rogue River and Phoenix have had their fairs and their products, on exhibition at the county fair, are a credit to the districts as well as the children who made them. Gold Hill, Talent, Jacksonville and other places have not yet held their fairs. When they are held the best products should be reserved and sent in with a general county exhibit, for the state contest at Salem, Sept. 29 to Oct. 4.

The young people will still have more than two weeks to prepare their articles for the state fair contest. Articles may be entered for individual prizes and at the same time with the county display. The boys and girls of Medford and vicinity as well as all places where fairs have been held should have their articles ready. A word to Supt. J. P. Wells, or to our supervisors, Arthur Chase or E. R. Peterson will help in getting this exhibit ready. Jackson county should make a fine showing at the state fair."

THE ROAD BOND ELECTION

THE road bond election again proves that Jackson county is the most progressive county in Oregon—that it leads the way for the rest of the state to follow. Not only the men, but the women, are progressive, as they demonstrated by their votes.

Nor is the progressiveness confined to Medford. Every section of the county, except those isolated regions that need good roads most, voted for the bonds by a big majority. For the first time in years, Ashland joined the procession and blazed the way for the burial of prejudice in a community of interest movement that will unite the county in the future.

The paved highway, with its new road over the Siskiyou, means much for Oregon, still more for the county. It opens the way for an era of improvement and development that in future will make the Rogue River valley the most prosperous and populous portion of Oregon.

SPECIAL ROAD LEVY INVALID

SALEM, Ore., Sept. 10.—A bungle was made by the last legislature in its attempt to pass a curative act making all road taxes voted under the road law of 1909 legal, according to the opinion of the supreme court, handed down today in the case of Menasha Woodenware company, appellant, vs. Coos county, road district No. 6, of that county, and others. Owing to the bungle the curative section doesn't even apply to the road law at all. It applies to chapter 202, laws of 1909, which is an act to provide for a state sanatorium for the treatment of tuberculosis. The court holds that the error is fatal to the curative section of the 1913 law, which is section 2 of chapter 316.

Other cases are pending in which the same question is involved, whether the curative act of 1913 made road taxes levied under section 6321, Lord's Oregon Laws, valid.

Helen O. Dillon vs. A. Louise Beason et al.; appealed from Jackson: action to recover damages for breach of covenant in a deed; affirmed.

Putnam vs. Pacific Monthly company, appealed from Multnomah; rehearing allowed.

THINKS TORSO THAT OF WIFE

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—Samuel Altman of Richmond, Ind., who is here seeking his wife, Lillian, believes the headless torso of a woman found at Cliffside, N. J., is that of his missing wife, who disappeared about August 26.

Altman says his wife had the letter "L" tattooed on her left shoulder blade, as did the mystery woman. Much of her linen was marked "A".

Mrs. Altman's weight corresponds to that of the dead woman, and a scar on the abdomen, he says, completes the identification.

CAMINETTI SENTENCE PUT OFF 'TILL MONDAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 10.—Sentencing of Maury I. Diggs and F. Drew Caminetti, recently convicted of violating the Mann white slave act, was postponed today by United States Judge Van Fleet until next Monday morning, September 15. The postponement was made at the request of Government Prosecutor Theodore Roche, and was also agreed to by the defense attorneys.

The defendants were scheduled to be sentenced today, but Roche asked that it go over until the trial of Diggs and Charles B. Harris, a Sacramento attorney, on charges of subornation of perjury, is finished.

A Fisherman's Petition

(By C. J. Judd.) O Amunias! Father of all lies, Inspire me here beneath these summer skies, While I recline among mendacious guys, That I, too, may depict the phantom rise Of that "lost fish" of most enormous size.

Give me the patience to sit calmly by, While amateurs with veterans vie, Recounting deeds performed with rod and fly, Then help me tell the final, crowning lie!

Russian Aviator Killed

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 10.—Lieutenant Druschman, a Russian army aviator, was killed here today when his aeroplane turned turtle 90 feet in the air.

ELKS' CARNIVAL ATTRACTS CROWD

Dainty booths, rooms of mystery and remarkable Murphie families, raffles, delicious refreshments and a delightful ball made the Indoor Carnival given by the Elks' wives at the Natatorium Tuesday night one of the most enjoyable affairs of the year. The carnival will be held again tonight, and an even larger crowd is expected to attend, as most of those present last night expect to come again tonight.

The hall was made a perfect bower by bunting and flowers. Card tables were screened off and booths where ice cream, home-made cake, candy, lemonade and other delicacies could be obtained. A country store, cozy, filled with home-made products, was kept by Mrs. L. Beveridge. Mrs. Fabrick owned it, but Mrs. Beveridge proved a good tenant, as almost the entire stock was sold out.

Mrs. B. G. Worthington and Mrs. Claud Miles kept a beautifully decorated candy booth where delicious home-made candies could be obtained. Miss Banks and Mrs. Bertham kept a pennant booth that had emblems of every kind in stock. A fish program was conducted by Mrs. Hamilton, Mrs. Gay and Mrs. Crolley and afforded great amusement. The fish pond was one of the successes of the evening.

Mrs. Young conducted a mysterious booth that was so filled with mysteries that one came out shaking with fear or laughter. Too tall what took place in the Mysterious booth would spoil one of the best features for those attending tonight.

Mrs. Schultz conducted a punch stand and Mrs. N. S. Bennett served ice cream from another booth. Coffee and sandwiches were also served.

The Murphy family consisted of two large Murphies, Mama and Dad, and ten small Murphies. These little Irishmen bore the names of Mr. and Mrs. Spud, and the Spud family.

IF MEALS HIT BACK AND STOMACH SOURS

"Pape's Diapiesin" Ends Indigestion, Gas, Dyspepsia and Stomach Misery in Five Minutes

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache, you can get blessed relief in five minutes.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases of Pape's Diapiesin, then you will understand why dyspeptic troubles of all kinds must go, and why they relieve sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. "Pape's Diapiesin" is harmless; tastes like candy, though each dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but, what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many "Pape's Diapiesin" cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be enthusiastic about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever take it for indigestion, gases, heartburn, sourness, dyspepsia, or any stomach misery.

Get some now, this minute, and rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion in five minutes.

DISBAR LAWYER FOR I. W. W. RIOTS

SALEM, Ore., Sept. 10.—Robert O. Graves, an attorney of Marshfield, today faces disbarment proceedings before the supreme court on charges that he was organizer and leader of a mob which deported three Industrial Workers of the World leaders from Marshfield several months ago.

The supreme court ordered Graves to appear before the bar of that tribunal October 14.

The order was issued following the filing of an affidavit by C. H. McLaughlin alleging that Graves led a crowd of six hundred men who violently seized and marched J. W. Edgeworth, Wesley Everett and Fred Roberts through the streets to a gasoline launch in which they were conveyed across Coos Bay. It is charged that the men were beaten and kicked and compelled to kneel and kiss the American flag.

BLACK HAND BOMB WRECKS FOUR BUILDINGS

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—Twenty persons were cut and bruised by flying glass here today when a bomb exploded in the Italian section of the city, wrecking the front of four buildings and throwing thousands of residents into a panic. A gas pipe also exploded and for a time a disastrous fire was threatened.

COMB SAGE TEA IN HAIR TO DARKEN IT

Grandma Kept Her Locks Dark, Glossy, Thick With a Mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. The old time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's treatment, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the musky mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft luster and appearance of abundance which is so attractive; besides, prevents dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair.

HAPPY WOMAN

Plenty of Them in Medford, and Good Reason for It. Wouldn't any woman be happy. After years of backache suffering, Days of misery, nights of unrest. The distress of urinary troubles, When she finds freedom.

Many readers will profit by the following: Mrs. Jane Sevey, 1023 Ninth St., Medford, Oregon, says: "I first used Doan's Kidney Pills while living in Idaho. I had suffered a great deal from kidney trouble, and nothing seemed to help me. I had intense pains in my back, hips and kidneys, when I started using Doan's Kidney Pills, but was soon relieved and finally cured by this remedy."

The above statement must carry conviction to the mind of every reader. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Sevey had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N.
