

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Fifteen steel coaches for the Portland, Eugene and Eastern passed north on a special train last night.

George A. Emery, general agent New York Central, spent Monday in Medford.

Southern Pacific operators are happy over a ten dollar per month increase in salary. All get $85 a month now.

There is a photographer in your town. H. N. Mackey, Main and Central, Medford, Ore.

The Southern Pacific company announce change in time October 5, the details to be announced later.

Fred Day, claim agent of Southern Pacific was in town Monday.

Home-made bread at De Voe's.

Frank Cain, formerly of the valley garage, has returned from Alaska where he spent the summer as engineer at Madden and Hanley's cannery. He is visiting H. B. Patterson.

E. W. Carder returned Monday from a business stay of several months in San Francisco.

Kodak finishing, best in town, at Weston's.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kanzman and Mrs. Carder returned Monday from a camping trip on Butte Creek.

Don't forget to visit the Home Millinery where buy your fall hat. 1101 West Ninth street.

George Morrison, the printer, returned Monday evening for a week's visit with Medford friends. Mr. Morrison is business manager for one of the leading newspapers in Reno, Nevada.

Rolled barley, bran, shorts, flour and hay at the new feed store, 397 South Front street, near corner Front and Eleventh. Lowest prices for cash. Will deliver to any part of city. Order by phone. Phone 263. Lee Watkins & Co.

The Public market received an order for a large shipment of plums but was unable to fill it, being too late in the season. The order came from the Walter Hill Commission company of Phoenix, Arizona.

The next regular meeting of the city council will be held next Tuesday, October 7. Important matters to be discussed will be the selection of a mayor, and the adjustment of the city's tangle with the electric light company.

Crater Lake pictures, a book of 12 pictures, hand colored, the finest ever made of the lake, for sale at Gerking & Harmon's studio. Call and see them. 228 East Main street, phone 320-J.

Dick Donald, manager of Bud Anderson went to Ashland last night on business returning this morning. Bud is due to arrive in Medford next Friday, accompanied by Trainer Depuis, a new acquisition. After filling a short theatrical engagement Bud will be guest of James Kershaw on his goat ranch, for a week, then leaving for California for his match October 29 with Joe Azevedo.

The high school football team is practicing nightly and the prospects are the brightest in years. A 196 pound Jap is trying for a line position. The Klamath Falls high school team wants to secure a game with the local team during the week the White Sox and Giants play here, and in all probability will be accommodated.

E. D. Weston, commercial photographer, negatives made any time or place by appointment. Phone M. 1471.

L. K. Lindsay of Redding, Cal., is in the city for a few days on business.

Andrew Jeldness left this morning for the Blue Ledge, after spending a week in Medford.

"Insurance your best asset." Have the best. Place your insurance with Holmes, the Insurance Man, right if he writes it.

William Snyder, a carpenter was operated upon at the Sacred Heart hospital by Dr. E. R. Seelye Monday night for appendicitis. Harry Kramer, day clerk at the Medford Hotel was operated upon in the afternoon by Dr. Pickel, for the same ailment making two in the same day.

Henry Callaghan, who is operating claims in the Blue Ledge district will be down for the winter in about ten days.

Private music lessons from 50 cents upward to three dollars per lesson, according to subject and teacher chosen. Medford Conservatory, College Bldg., 31 North Grape.

Henry Phipps, who has been in Eastern Oregon has returned to this city for a visit with friends and relatives.

Weeks & McGowan Co
UNDERTAKERS

LADY ASSISTANT
Day Phone 997
F. W. Weeks 192-J-2
A. E. Orr 978-M

Dr. J. L. Helms and wife are spending the week at Salem attending the state fair. Albia and David Harum, owned by Dr. Helms, are both entered in the fair races.

Bill Bates is contemplating a duck hunting trip to the Klamath Lakes in the near future. Duck shooting in that section is reported unusually good this year, with Klamath hunters monopolizing the sport.

Wynne Scott, one of the most up-to-date portrait artists on the Pacific coast is taking charge of the portrait department for the Gerking & Harmon Photo company, 228 East Main street.

Harry H. Hicks, formerly a newspaperman in this city, but now a resident of Seattle, arrived in the city this morning for a short business visit.

Peter Applegate, former county recorder, now engaged in mining on Elk creek, was in the city Tuesday attending to business matters and visiting friends.

Dr. E. Kirchessner of Riverdale is in the city today on professional business.

Milk and cream at De Voe's.

A. Coslet of Eugene is attending to business matters in Medford and visiting this week.

Earl Leslie of Los Angeles is spending a few days in Medford.

The green hay destroyed in the Union livery stable last Friday is still smouldering and steaming, and the city has been appealed to by residents of that district asking that the nuisance be abated.

$1500 to loan on first class security. R. A. Holmes, the Insurance Man.

Anderson Kaye of Corvallis is visiting friends and attending to business matters in Medford this week.

J. L. Wheeler, Jr., of Ashland and T. H. Bentost of Redding were Monday arrivals in Medford.

Don't fail to see Mrs. L. A. Belderi Bon Ton and Royal Worcester demonstrator at F. K. Deuel & company's for 3 days.

J. A. Miller and wife of Palouse are Medford visitors.

J. S. Owen, A. R. Owen, J. S. Owen, Jr., S. F. Owen and F. G. Owen, millionaire lumber men of Eau Claire, Wis., arrived in Medford Monday and left later by auto to inspect timber holdings in the Rogue river and Klamath districts. They are owners of much western timber, including a large belt of redwood at Crescent City.

Find out what model you need of Mrs. L. A. Belderi in the Bon Ton Corset at F. K. Deuel & Co.

C. S. Woody of Kansas City, representing eastern bond buyers is here to figure upon the purchase of Jackson county road bonds. He represents the principal road bond house in the country.

J. C. Burch, president of the Portland Beaver Cement company is in Medford making plans to start work on the Gold Hill plant.

See windows on Royal Worcester and Bon Ton Corsets. Three days demonstration. F. K. Deuel & company.

H. B. Cole, of Coleson, S. I. Wilson of Talent and I. O. Robin of Grants Pass are Medford visitors.

E. A. Peifer of Milwaukee, F. S. Henderson of New York, L. F. Goodman of Boston, and B. M. Harris of San Francisco are registered at the Medford.

The cold nights and warm days are causing the leaves to fall from the shade trees along the city streets.

covering the sidewalks, and the street department is busy urging property owners to keep the sidewalks clean and free from leaves.

Plowing has been begun by the farmers of the valley, but this work will not be in full swing before the middle of next month.

George Thomas of Jefferson is spending a few days in the city.

Miss Alice Vernon of Santa Barbara, Cal., is visiting relatives in this valley.

Alva Walker is in Salem this week attending the state fair. He also visited the county fair at Eugene.

An effort is being made to have a dark background placed behind the Crater Lake sign on the city hall, so that passengers on trains can see it when the sun is shining.

P. J. Munson of Sacramento is in the city for a few days attending to business matters.

Bruce Spencer is in from his ranch at Weiser for a few days.

Peter Butz of Button, Cal., is in town for a few days buying his winter's supply. Mr. Butz expects to trap this winter.

Pickers and packers are plentiful, and the orchardists are experiencing no difficulty in harvesting their crops, there being no shortage in the labor market. Another batch of men arrived Monday night from the Watsonville, California district, where the apple crop was away below the average this year. More laborers are in the city now than at any time during the last six months.

O. R. Pankey of Central Point was a business visitor in Medford yesterday.

A call has been issued by City Recorder Foss urging all voters to register for the amendment election to be held the fourth of November.

Partisans of the Giants and Athletics are beginning to warm up to the world series. "Dad" Beveridge and Edgar Hafer, as of yore, are picking the Giants to win, and Dave Woods and Judge Kelly are arguing for the Mackmen. The rest of the fans are evenly divided in their choice, and the interest is beginning to heat up, so what must it be in New York and Philadelphia.

Walter Hess of the Big Sticky spent Monday in this city on business.

R. H. Parsons of the Hillcrest orchards has returned from a trip to Washington, where he with other parties invested in a cattle ranch.

The seniors of the high school held their first class meeting of the year Monday afternoon and elected George Gates, president, Helen Purucker, vice-president, and Joan Anderson, secretary and treasurer.

A. E. Swarthout, who has been with the Morning Sun for the last two years left Monday night for Salem to visit with friends and take in the state fair. He expects to make his future home either in Portland or Southern California.

A. W. Sibley of Ashland, an operator in timber land is in the city today.

Mrs. B. M. Collins of Jacksonville and Miss Mattie Ray of Applegate spent today in Medford shopping and visiting friends.

Harry Manning will leave Wednesday for San Francisco to attend to business matters, and expects to be gone until the first of November.

A. S. Furry of Phoenix is in the city attending to business matters.

E. W. Carder has returned from a trip to San Francisco, where he has been for the last ten days on business connected with mining interests.

J. W. Myers of Central Point and Jack Aitken of Rogue River, county fruit inspectors are in the city today for a short stay.

W. Wolf, H. H. Hall and M. Forman of the Applegate district spent Tuesday in the city.

PRE-COOLED PEARS
BRING $3.15 NEW YORK

A car of Blue Triangle Bartlett pears, kept for three weeks in cold storage at the precooling house of the Rogue River Fruit & Produce association, sold in New York Monday at auction for $3.15 a box, close to the high mark for Bartletts this season.

The pears arrived in perfect condition and demonstrates the wisdom and profit of holding fruit in cold storage until market conditions improve.

SPECIAL FEATURE AT ISIS
TONIGHT AND WEDNESDAY

"The Flight of the Crow," an intense and absorbing drama of exceptional plot and denouement, a story of high society and the hobo fraternity of the underworld, featuring Miss Kathryn Williams as the millionaire's daughter and Henry Otto in the role of the crow. Pathé Weekly No. 38, "Quaint Spots in Cairo, Egypt, and 'Zebbs' Musical Career," make one of many strong bills seen at this popular photo-play house. These pictures will be shown Tuesday and Wednesday.

FEDERAL COURT MEETS IN MEDFORD TUESDAY

The federal district court will meet in annual session for the southern Oregon district next Tuesday, October 7, in the Moose hall, on West Main street. Judge Wolverton will preside.

We Fit With Care
the Feet of Women

and there's nothing quite so important to the customer.

A poorly fitted shoe will lead to all kinds of trouble—corns, bunions, fallen arches.

The "John Kelly" shoes are particularly renowned for their fitting qualities.

Let us measure your foot—and fit you to one of those new styles shown in the window.

Comfort and style in every pair.

Schmidt's

"Good Shoes"

OPPOSITE POST OFFICE

HUNTERS PAY FINES TO ESCAPE TRIAL

Dr. E. R. Seeley, M. S. Biden, Claude Miles, William Muller and R. W. Gregory appeared through their attorney, J. R. Lafontaine, before the federal court at Portland and entered a plea of guilty to the charge of setting fires in the national forest. They were given the minimum fine of $5 each.

The defendants stoutly deny their guilt, but found it cheaper to make a nominal plea of guilty than to stand trial. The prosecuting attorney explained the case to the court, together with the claims made by the defendants, who were accused by Forest Ranger Gribble of leaving a camp fire burning while out hunting.

DRY FARMING EXHIBIT WINS BLUE RIBBON

George Little living one and one-fourth miles southeast of Jacksonville on Elmer Hill, won the blue ribbon general exhibit of farm products at the Jacksonville fair which was held last Saturday. His exhibits were those produced by dry farming and were excellent. The exhibit consisted of: watermelons, cantaloupes, Turkish melons, nutmeg, squash, onions, turnips, tomatoes, sweet corn, Mexican corn, seed collection, tomato vine seven feet long; potato vine 5 ft. 3 in. long, and rye 6 ft. 6 in. tall.

TALENT TO CONSTRUCT NEW BRICK BLOCK

Albert S. Ames of Talent, acting as trustee for eastern parties, has signed a contract with Drew & Handy of Medford for the erection of an $8000 brick block on the Steele lots north of the Talent lumber yard.

The building will be 70x90 and will be divided into two storerooms, each 35x50, which will be occupied one by the Talent Mercantile company and the other by the Talent Drug & Furniture company. It is expected that work will commence immediately and the building is to be ready for occupancy December 7 at latest.

E. L. Dobell and H. B. Frairs and wife of Chicago are recent Medford arrivals.

10 CENT "CASCARETS" IS YOUR LAXATIVE

Best Liver and Bowel Cleanser and Stomach Regulator in the World Work While You Sleep

Get a 10-cent box.

Put aside—just once—the Salt Pills, Castor Oil or Purgative Waters which merely force a passage way through the bowels, but do not thoroughly cleanse, freshen and purify these drainage organs, and have no effect whatever upon the liver and stomach.

Keep your "insides" pure and fresh with Cascarets, which thoroughly cleanse the stomach, remove the undigested, sour food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never gripe, sicken, and cost only 10 cents a box from your druggist. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never have Headache, Biliousness, Coated Tongue, Indigestion, Sour Stomach or Constipated Bowels. Cascarets belong in every household. Children just love to take them.

DR. RICKERT'S
Suite 1-2 Over Deuel's
Medford, Ore.

FINISH BYBEE BRIDGE BY OCTOBER TENTH

The Bybee bridge will be completed by October 10, according to word received from Contractor Perham by Judge Tom Velle. A night crew will be put on and the work will continue steadily until completion.

MRS. MANGES ESCAPES OPERATION

How She Was Saved From Surgeon's Knife by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mogadore, Ohio.—"The first two years I was married I suffered so much from female troubles and bearing down pains that I could not stand on my feet long enough to do my work. The doctor said I would have to undergo an operation, but my husband wanted me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound first. I took three bottles and it made me well and strong and I avoided a dreadful operation. I now have two fine healthy children, and I cannot say too much about what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me." —Mrs. L. E. Manges, R. F. D. 10, Mogadore, Ohio.

Why will women take chances with an operation or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held