Central Point Church Notes
Beginning Sunday, July 11, the Christian people of Central Point will hold union services each Sunday evening during the summer season. The four churches uniting in this work are the Christian, Methodist, Presbyterian and Baptist.

It has been planned for the four congregations to meet in Central Hall and have each pastor preach in turn as follows: July 11, Rev. J. E. Doran, Presbyterian; July 18, Rev. J. D. Wylie, Baptist; July 25, Rev. Digrens, Christian; Aug. 1, Rev. Smith, Methodist.

For the four following Sunday evenings in August each respective pastor in turn is arranging to invite in a speaker from outside. Thus giving the four congregations and public an opportunity to hear a goodly number of speakers. In some cases arrangements have already been completed for the outside speaker. Further announcement of this will be made from the pulpit.

The hearty interest already manifested in this united work is most gratifying and it is hoped that all will co-operate for the greater success of the work.

THEIR LOVE STILL REMAINS NEUTRAL

Miss Hope Hunter, daughter of a wealthy Australian cattleman, who proves that love can remain neutral in a war-torn world, by going halfway around the world to marry Lieutenant Frank E. Weed, a German army officer now in New York.

The wedding is scheduled as soon as Miss Hunter reaches the east, the arrangements having been made by cable, despite the objections of her parents. Lieutenant Weed got leave of absence at Cupid's dictation, and the honeymoon will be a trip through the mine-zone back to the Fatherland.

IOWANS PLANNING PICNIC FOR JULY 30

The Iowa society of Jackson county, consisting of 300 or 400 former residents of the great corn state, will picnic at Ashland, Friday July 30. An effort is being made to have every former Iowan in southern Oregon attend and a large delegation will be on hand from Grants Pass and Josephine county points. There will be a program of sports at the picnic, consisting of foot races for men, women, girls and boys, and races for the fat and lean of both sexes. The winners in the women's events will race the winners in the men's events. There will be music, readings and speeches. The favorite Iowa game of pitching horseshoes will be a part of the program. An effort is being made to secure special rates on the railroads.

The committee on sports for the day are: Dr. Howard, E. A. Welch and Mrs. Sheets, and the committee on arrangements, C. D. Hoon, Dr. Rickert and Mrs. Belding.

For the four following Sunday evenings in August each respective pastor in turn is arranging to invite in a speaker from outside. Thus giving the four congregations and public an opportunity to hear a goodly number of speakers. In some cases arrangements have already been completed for the outside speaker. Further announcement of this will be made from the pulpit.
