Accompanied by Terrible Itching—A Complicated and Most Distressing Case—Well-Known Remedies Failed to Cure—Doctor Thought an Operation Necessary—Then

CUTICURA PROVED ITS WONDERFUL EFFICACY

"I am now eighty years old and one morning, three years ago, I was taken with a hard pain in my right side. In two days I had an attack of piles (hemorrhoids), bleeding and protruding. The doctor gave me some medicine and an ointment for them which helped me some but I had to keep using them all the time. Then I changed to the P... remedy; but if I did not use it every day, I would get worse. The doctor said the only help for me was to go to a hospital and be operated on. At this time, about a year ago, I went to use the S... remedies. I tried them for four or five months but did not get much help for my piles. During this time sores would come on a fleshy part of my body. They bothered me all the time. I would get one healed and another would come. These sores changed to eczema, accompanied by a terrible itching. It seemed as if I could not keep my hands from tearing my flesh. This and the pile trouble brought on an inflamed condition. Then I got the Cuticura Remedies. I washed the affected parts with Cuticura Soap and warm water in the morning, at noon, and at night, then used Cuticura Ointment on the irritated surfaces and injected a quantity of Cuticura with a Cuticura Suppository Syringe. I also took Cuticura Resolvent Pills three times a day. It took a month of this treatment to get me in a fairly healthy state and then I treated myself once a day for three months and, after that, once or twice a week. It is fortunate that I used Cuticura. The treatments I had tried took a lot of money that I would have saved by using Cuticura Remedies sooner, but I am wiser now. I am supplied with a full set of the Cuticura Remedies and would not feel safe without them. G. H. Henderson, Hopkinton, St. Lawrence Co., N. Y., Apr. 26, 1907."

AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

Will Ship Relics.

A valuable collection of pessels, mortars, arrowheads, flints and spoons made from horns, relics and the civilization in vogue during the palmy days of the original red owners of North America, will be sent to the Smithsonian institute in the near future by C. W. Weigel, local agent of the Northern Pacific railway company, says the Kennebec Reporter. The relics have been found around the country adjacent to this city and some of them probably have been dug, in years past, from the graves of dead Indians in the old burying grounds along the banks of the Columbia river.

Mr. Weigel is the owner of one of the finest collections of Indian relics and curios in the west. He has been for years gathering the garments worn by primitive red men, and today he has coats, vests, headresses, belts, etc., which represent years of toil on the part of squaws, and which are now valued at hundreds of dollars. The entire collection, according to men capable of placing an estimate, is worth easily $10,000.

Child-Dragged by Horse.

Agnes, the 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Brichoux, who live in the First ward, was very seriously injured about 9 o'clock yesterday evening by being dragged a distance of several blocks by a horse, says the La Grande Star.

The little girl had the horse out feeding on a plot of grass and was holding the animal by a rope. She had tied one end of the rope around her ankle. The horse became frightened and started to run. The child was dragged a distance of several hundred feet before it could be stopped.

Dr. Bacon was hurriedly summoned and he did what he could to alleviate the child's suffering. The doctor was unable to determine the full extent of the injuries. The little girl's back was almost denuded of the skin and frightful cuts and bruises were inflicted. At a late hour last night she had not regained consciousness.

Herd Law Invalid.

Prosecuting Attorney R. H. Kipp has decided to not attempt to further enforce the herd law relating to livestock running at large in Whitman county, says the La Crosse Herald.

Mr. Kipp says that the constitutionality of this law was passed on by the

OUR COTTON INDUSTRY.

Useful and Highly Prized Examinations from Cotton Seed—Once Almost Useless.
A thousand things pleasing, useful, meritorious and highly prized in the mechanics and arts have within the past 30 years emanated from the frowzy cottonseed, at one time considered practically useless by the cottongrowers in the sunny south. Step by step have these things been attained. Days and months have the chemists toiled to reach the goal of success. Millions of dollars were expended to extract the virtues that were known to exist in the little brown embryo that ignorance wasted and continued blindly wasting until science intervened and turned the river of waste into a sea of gold.

Columbus found cotton in use by the natives when he touched America's shores in 1492. Cortez mentions it as being rudely manufactured into cloth by the Mexican Indians. The snow-white bolls were found growing wild in Texas and the lower Mississippi valley as early as 1536. Virginia colonists cultivated it as long ago as 1621. No one dreamed then that it would be a world commodity—no one thought of the value of the seed.

The American Cotton Oil company, No. 27 Beaver street, New York, with factories in various states of the union, export annually cottonseed oil and other products obtained from the seed to the amount of $50,000,000.

This great American industry is not chiefly supported by foreign trade. Its greatest market is at home. More than half of the production is consumed in the United States, where the purity and wholesomeness of the oils and the usefulness and values of the cake, meal, linters and hulls are making new friends and wider markets year by year.

A Grand Family Medicine.

"It gives me pleasure to speak a good word for Electric Bitters," writes Mr. Frank Conlan of No. 436 Houston street, New York. "It's a grand family medicine for dyspepsia and liver complications; while for lame back and weak kidneys it cannot be recommended too highly." Electric Bitters regulate the digestive functions, purify the blood, and impart renewed vigor and vitality to the weak and debilitated of both sexes. Sold under guarantee at Tallman & Co.'s drug store, 50c.

Kennebec Berry Crop.

The unequaled fruit land in the vicinity of Kennebec has fairly earned the right to the distinction of being not only the best fruit district, but the earliest in the state, says the Kennebec Reporter. During the strawberry season, which is now drawing to a close, the ranchers of this vicinity have shipped to the markets of Puget sound, Spokane, and Montana about 10,500 crates, each containing 24 boxes

Judge Warren of Lincoln county

while holding court in Adams county, at which time the court sustained a demurrer to the information on the ground that the law was unconstitutional, stating at that time that he based his ruling principally upon the ground that it was an unlawful delegation of legislative powers and was in the nature of class legislation.

Mr. Kipp agrees with the ruling of Judge Warren and believes this law to be unconstitutional, and therefore does not feel justified in taking a test case to the supreme court. There have been many complaints coming to the prosecuting attorney's office, about half of the people complaining against the enforcement of the law and the other half desiring that it be enforced. This is the only county in the state that has ever tried to enforce it, and the prosecuting attorney must now give it up or take cases into court under a law that he himself considers unconstitutional, and therefore he has decided not to endeavor to enforce the law any further.

Two New Papers.

The Washington Farmer Publishing company is considering establishing two weekly newspapers on the line of the St. Paul railroad, one at Othello and the other at Beverly, says the Spokesman Review.

The home office of the company is at North Yakima, where it has been publishing the pioneer agricultural paper of this state, Northwest Farm and Home. The veteran editor, Leigh R. Freeman, has published in the west 9 years, 24 years of which he has been at North Yakima.

Drilling for Oil.

The drilling machinery ordered by the Madras Oil & Gas company, arrived here last Saturday, and will be put in place to commence drilling at once. It will take several weeks to erect the tower and get the machinery in place, but the officers of the company state that the preparations are being rushed as much as possible, and that actual drilling on the first well will soon begin.—Madras Pioneer.

No Humbug.

No humbug claims have to be made for Foley's Honey and Tar, the well known remedy for coughs, colds and lung troubles. The fact that more bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar are used than any other cough remedy is the best testimonial of its great merit. Why then risk taking some unknown preparation when Foley's Honey and Tar costs you no more and is safe and sure. Pendleton Drug Co.

Kansas Wants Help.

As a result of the recent call for help in harvesting the Kansas wheat crop, men are flocking into southern Kansas in droves and it is likely that the farmers will have plenty of assistance in preserving crops. Harvesting in southern Kansas and northern Oklahoma will probably begin in earnest next week, and the harvest hands will gradually work northward. In central and western Kansas the harvesting will begin about the middle of the month, and in northern Kansas and Nebraska the waving fields will begin to fall before the reapers early in July. The gathering of the harvest clans is highly picturesque, as usual, and includes men in all walks of life, from the hobo who is impressed into service to the college student who is "out for a lark" or who "needs the money."
