

He Never Had Your Chance

In this man's day there was little chance for the chap who started out in life as a workman with no special training. He was foredoomed to work for small wages until finally disqualified by old age. With YOU it is different. If you are not getting ahead as fast as you should in your chosen occupation, the I. C. S. will help you. A record of over 16 years of remarkable success in training thousands of ambitious wage earners for better positions and increased earnings enables us to state positively that we can help you, no matter how scant your time, money, or education may be. Don't neglect any possible chances for advancement. Send this coupon NOW.

COMPLAIN OF HOT FREE LUNCH

Snow Shovelers Want Better on the Bread Mayor Shank Furnishes.
Indianapolis.—Two hundred men, employed temporarily removing snow from the streets at 20 cents an hour, were given a free lunch of bread and coffee by Mayor Shank. Some complaints were heard that there was no butter for the bread, but the mayor jollied the men, ate with them and declared that the menu was fine. Few of the men had either overcoats or gloves.

RABBI WISE FAVORS SUFFRAGE

Holds It Is Up to Opponents to Advance Their Arguments.
Kansas City, Mo.—"It is not for those who advocate woman suffrage to give reasons, but for those who oppose it," declared Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, addressing an audience composed mostly of young women at Westport high school here.

"There are reforms of law needed by the working women of America which never will be had until women vote. They will effect these reforms as soon as they have the opportunity." "That was shown in New Zealand where the first use to which women put their suffrage was to vote laws that regulated their working hours."

VALLEJO WANTS WARSHIP BUILT AT MARE ISLAND

Labor Unions, Merchants' Associations and Chamber of Commerce Open Campaign.
Vallejo.—Labor Unions Booster Committee met with the Merchants' association and Chamber of Commerce for the purpose of mapping out plans in the battleship fight for the Mare Island navy yard. It was first decided to get the advice of Senator Perkins and Congressman Knowland, then to secure leaders in each house of congress to father the bill to have a dreadnought built at this navy yard after which all power and influence possible will be brought to bear on every senator and congressman throughout the United States to secure his vote for the bill. A committee of one from each of the bodies represented was appointed to take care of the preliminary steps until such time as the different organizations meet and select their permanent committeemen.

FOURTY POISONED BY PLE.
Delicacy Is Kept in Tin Pan for Day and Then Warned for Dinner.
Valley City, N. D.—Forty persons at Max Bass, N. D., are suffering from ptomaine poisoning from eating pie at a chicken pie supper given by a church there. The pie was left in a tin pan for an entire day before being warmed to be served. All will recover.

'HOPE' BOOSTER A SKY PILOT.

Glen Condon, Oklahoma Sporting Editor, Turns Evangelist.
Tulsa, Okla.—Glen Condon, sporting editor of the Tulsa World and one of the best known sport writers of the southwest, announced through the press that he will become an evangelist. He intends to follow the style of "Billy" Sunday in his new work, and will use every possible publicity aid to accomplish results.

"Red" Condon, as he is familiarly known, was the first newspaper man to bring Carl Morris to the attention of the public as a possible heavy-weight champion and he acted as announced at all of the fighter's battles in Oklahoma.
He said his conversion is the result of a speech he made at the dedication of the Salvation Army citadel here recently. His debut as an evangelist will be made at a local church within a few days.

WASHINGTON'S TOWER BIRD.

His Lair in Postoffice Building Shows as for Years Gone, He's Home Again.
Washington.—The duck hawk is back. Every winter for nine years it has been a personal privilege to record the return of this bird to its "lair" in the postoffice tower. Other local names of the duck hawk are peregrine falcon and wandering falcon, which mean much the same thing. The scientists say this hawk's real name is falco peregrinus anatum. It was eleven years ago that the falcon chose the gray tower of the postoffice department building for his winter home. He has been here every winter since. Pits have been laid to slay him and to trap him, but his cunning has risen superior to that of man. He is a fine old bird, says a correspondent of the New York Post. Last winter the story of his life, as far as it was known to Washington, was given to the country in a magazine article. Since then visitors to the post office department have asked after the health of the bird and have expressed more interest in him than in the postoffice cat, which appears only in a marble picture, a freak of nature very catlike, in the wall of one of the building's lower corridors.

Members of the biological survey are "curious to know" if the duck hawk of today is the duck hawk of eleven years ago. This much is known a peregrine falcon, occasionally accompanied by another of its kind, has been in the postoffice tower every winter since 1899. Is it the same bird? No one knows, no one can tell, for one duck hawk is like unto another duck hawk in feather, in habit and in the general glory of a bandit's life. The chances are, however, that the bird of eleven years ago and the rare old fellow who is feeding on the fat of tame birds and wild birds and tame mammals and wild mammals are one.

REFORM. NO! FITZSIMMONS.

Former Champion Declares Wife Can't Make Him Stop Drinking.
New York.—If Julia May Gifford, wife of Bob Fitzsimmons, has really placed the ex-champion pugilist on probation not to drink any more Jersey applejack or other exhilarating beverages, as Milwaukee dispatches say she has, then all is over between them and the divorce courts can get busy.
This was the ultimatum delivered by Bob:
"If she said she was through with me forever, if I did not reform," said the veteran brawler, "I am through with her forever."

Give Women One Day in Prison.

Golden, Col.—Mrs. Concetti Forgiene and her daughter, Stella, were sentenced to one day's imprisonment in the county jail and to pay a fine of $1 each as accessories after the fact in the murder of Mrs. Marie Laguardia, for which Mrs. Angelina Garamone was convicted here December last. Testimony given by the Forgiene aided materially in the conviction of Mrs. Garamone, who was sentenced to a life term in the penitentiary.

Weston to Have Saloon.

Weston, Ore.—At a special meeting the council decided to grant a license to one saloon at Weston at $1200 a year. The vote was a tie, three councilmen favoring one saloon and three more than one. The question was decided by the vote of Mayor H. A. Brandt. Billiard, pool and card tables will be prohibited, and no chairs will be allowed. The bar must do business in one room only, with no screens to shield its patrons.

Elect Sunnyside S. S. Officers.

Freewater, Ore.—The Sunnyside Methodist Episcopal church, with the Rev. Charles MacCaughy as pastor, held a meeting this week of the Sunday school board. Officers for the year were elected. They are: Superintendent, L. E. Steward; assistant superintendent, Mrs. Frank Ransome; secretary, Grant Mortan; treasurer, C. Karker; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Kristian Rodgers.

Milton Farmers' Bank Elects.

Milton, Ore.—The Farmers' Security Bank at Milton held its annual meeting of stockholders Tuesday and elected directors for 1912. They are: Directors, H. A. Williams, S. D. Peterson, W. E. Jones, S. S. Shields, T. A. Williams and Robert McEwan; officers, president, J. H. Coffman; vice president, Frank B. Kent; cashier, W. W. Wasser.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND

For over three decades a favorite household medicine for COUGHS, COLDS, CROUP, WHOOPING COUGH, BRONCHITIS, HARD and STUFFY BREATHING. Take at first sign of a cold. Quick, safe and reliable. The Bee Hive on the carton is the mark of the genuine. Refuse substitutes.

Mrs. Anna Polzer, 2526 Jefferson St., So. Omaha, says: "I can recommend Foley's Honey & Tar Compound as a sure cure for coughs and colds. It cured my daughter of a bad cold and my neighbor Miss Benson cured herself and her whole family with Foley's Honey & Tar Compound. Everyone in our neighborhood speaks most highly of it as a good remedy for coughs and colds."
