TERRIBLE RESULT OF COQUETRY

Salvation Army Captain Murdered in Spokane.

UNREQUITED LOVE THE CAUSE

A Refusal to Marry Leads to the Death of Miss Ida Bennett—The Murderer Commits Suicide.

Associated Press.
Spokane, May 5.—Daniel W. Haskins walked into the Salvation Army barracks at 3 o'clock this afternoon, drew a revolver and fired two shots into the heart of Captain Ida Bennett. He then fired two more into his own brain. They fell within a few feet of each other and died immediately.
Haskins had made repeated threats against Miss Bennett's life, and when he walked into the hall one of the soldiers cried out, "Look out, captain, or he will kill you." Before Miss Bennett could seek safety in flight, however, the deed of destruction had been finished.
Haskins was a sailor of Captain Bennett's and she had refused to marry him. He had been nursing this grief for a long time. The affair got into the papers some time ago. Haskins declaring that Miss Bennett had played the part of a coquette with him and had deliberately broken his heart. Miss Bennett defended herself in the columns of the Review, and then declared that Haskins was insane; that he had threatened to kill her, and that she felt only a feeling of sorrow for his delusions.
Captain Bennett has been for several years a member of the army, having worked in San Francisco and Helena. She was a woman of commanding figure, and possessed a winning and earnest manner.
L. C. Weller, who knew Haskins, said: "Haskins was 43 years old. He came from Arkansas, where he had been a deputy United States marshal and sheriff. Here he was a laborer. He came here about four years ago, and has three children. About four months ago he began attending the Salvation Army meetings, and there met Captain Bennett, and fell desperately in love with her. I think she encouraged him by making him believe she intended to marry him."
The murdered girl was born in San Bernardino, Cal., where her parents now reside. She was formerly a teacher there.

THE WALL STREET PANIC.

It is Believed That the Worst is Over, and There Will Be a Rally.

New York, May 5.—There were lowering and portentous clouds over Wall street this morning. Brokers and bankers hastened to that financial storm center, each determined to be as near as possible at the head of the procession. Nobody could tell before the opening what history lay just over the side of 19 o'clock, when pandemonium should be let loose. Those in, were strained and anxious faces, while those out, hovered about from habit and were scarcely less anxious.
Before three-quarters of an hour after the opening, the slump in Codge stock became too great for S. V. White to stand and he went down before the storm. He is the grain speculator whose going to the wall a year or so ago caused such a sensation. White says the drop in sugar was one of the leading causes of his failure.
The failure of Ferris & Kimball was next announced.
The failure of W. L. Hatton & Co. was next announced.
In the afternoon the battle slackened off a trifle in intensity. There were spasms of riotous bidding and selling, however, for a time, and then the action again became more rapid. Rarely in the history of the stock exchange, were such wild fluctuations witnessed. One of the largest houses on the street was said to be in trouble and certain to fail. While this condition existed, dazed brokers were throwing over stocks regardless of price. It was estimated that up to noon, the London purchases aggregated fully sixty thousand shares. This increase in foreign exchange caused a drop in sterling rates to 4.86 and 4.83 but money continued close from 11 to 12 per cent. The confidence displayed by foreigners caused home operators to take courage and a general rally ensued.
Money rose to 30 per cent; then came another thunder clap, in the suspension of W. L. Patton, and call loans advanced to 40, causing stocks to weaken.
At 1:30 money had fallen to 18 to 20 and by 2 o'clock to 6. Owing to heavy offerings of funds by commission houses, stocks became comparatively calm.
At 2 p. m. sales were listed of stocks to the amount of 445,000 shares; unlisted, 202,000 shares. Stocks were then somewhat feverish but in some instances above last night's closing.

Ferris & Kimball went down under a load of industrials.
After the gavel had fallen and the battle was over for the day, men went away in quieter spots and looked the situation over. In well informed financial circles the feeling grew that the worst had been seen, and from that time on matters would improve. On this theory, which had to some extent obtained before the close, and the fact that certain houses whose names were freely mentioned as being in trouble early in the day had pulled through all right, numerous purchases were made right through the list. There has been a revulsion in sentiment and prices have gone up almost as rapidly as they dropped early in the day.

After scanning the situation after the close of the day a member of one of the most conservative banking houses said: "I don't care to have my name published, but you may say for me that I think the worst is over now. When White failed the last bubbles were punctured and we reached the bottom. We are ready for a pretty sharp rally and shall probably have others with some slow liquidation. I do not look for any more failures. There may of course, be some, but they will be of the small fry order and will have no appreciable effect on the market. There will be a great deal of money lost of course, in this great decline, but a good deal has been in the margins which will show up on the exchange. Many members of the exchange, I do not doubt, sustained losses, but they will be able to stand them. In my opinion the stock exchange is now a bargain counter. If this is not a bargain day, then there never will be one on the exchange."
This rumor obtained at 10 a. m. that S. V. White would be taken care of by certain ones of the sugar magnates. This, however, could not be traced to any reliable source.

By common consent the turning point of the tide was credited to the exertions of Drexel, Morgan & Company, and the Vanderbilts. It is generally believed that several important houses at the close of business were confronted with what appeared to be inevitable failure, owing to the enormous losses in the last week, and the practical paralysis of their credit promised liquidation that unless stayed would have swept them off their feet, but the night and early morning had been employed by every strong interest which realized that the weak must be saved at any cost.

CHINESE EXCLUSION LAW.

Will Be Tested in the United States Supreme Court.

New York, May 5.—Three Chinamen will be arraigned in the United States court tomorrow to test the constitutionality of the Chinese Six Companies act, which is known as the Chinese Exclusion Law. This action is taken under an agreed case brought by the Chinese Six Companies, of California, and the United States government. In order that a quick decision may be reached the United States supreme court will convene at Washington on Wednesday for the final argument.

REGISTRATION IN THE EAST.

New York, May 5.—Returns from the Chinese registration in this city show about 150 registers; Brooklyn, 140, while in Boston not one registered. Of 2000 Chinese in Massachusetts, only 25 certificates were issued.

SUBJECT TO DISCOUNT.

Tacoma, Wash., May 5.—The Ledger will publish an article tomorrow showing that a gigantic conspiracy exists to flood the country with Chinese. Every Canadian Pacific steamer for months past has brought a horde of Chinese. It is found that the number publicly reported to be on the steamers was less than half the number actually on board. The Empress of Japan reported 400, when she had 1000. Many of these came into the United States by bribing the United States officials. The price is said to be $125 per head.

EXPENSIVE STRIKE.

Vinton, Iowa, May 5.—The executive committee of the order of Railway Telegraphers are examining the books and accounts of the grand officers. There are serious charges that the grand chief has recklessly squandered the money of the order to the extent that the treasury is empty and money had to be borrowed. It is stated that between $40,000 and $50,000 was spent in the Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Northern and Rock Island strikes. Other irregularities are also charged.

COLONIAL BANK SUSPENDED.

Melbourne, May 5.—The Colonial Bank of Australia, colony of Victoria, has suspended, consequent upon the general feeling of apprehension regard the Australian bank.

Governor Lewelling's private secretary testified that W. H. Moffit approached him. He proposed that the populists give Hudson enough votes to make him state printer, and in return the populists would be given enough stock in the capitol to control it.

PENNOYER'S OPINION.
Thinks Cleveland is in Collusion With the Chinese Minister.
Portland, Or., May 5.—Governor Pennoyer, referring to the failure of the Chinese register, said:
"The refusal of the Chinese to register was undoubtedly the result of collusion between the president and the Chinese minister to disregard the law. The citizens of Oregon first learned of this compact from the hieroglyphic proclamation of the Six Companies posted on Chinese wash-houses, in Astoria. The president is justly responsible for whatever trouble may arise. If he had announced his purpose to enforce the law there would have been a complete registration. The Chinese minister has apparently dictated the policy of the administration, and he was probably not aware of the act that state governors are not presidential straps.
Articles of impeachment have been preferred against a president for less offense than Mr. Cleveland's refusal to strictly enforce the exclusion law."

Washington, May 5. Congressman Outwaite, of Ohio, is the latest to verify the report that congress will convene in extra session in September next. Outwaite does not take any stock in the statement that immediately after the apportionment of the house committee a recess will be taken until the first of December.
"It is my opinion," said the Buckeye statesman, "that congress will be in continuous session, barring the usual Christmas holidays, from September until the following June."
It should be added that Outwaite saw President Cleveland this morning, and he made the above statement after the interview.

The Government is Not Responsible for the Panic.
Washington, May 5.—The panicky condition of Wall street today, though interesting to officials of the treasury department, did not, they say, immediately concern them, as the department is unable to aid the situation there. That the trouble is not seriously thought of, is shown by the fact that Secretary Carlisle only remained at the cabinet meeting about fifteen minutes, and then went home. The matter was not even discussed. The feeling among the treasury officials, though they do not openly express it, is that Wall street speculators brought the present condition upon themselves, and the government is not in any way responsible for it. It is said that the treasury department, that the time has passed when the government can aid Wall street. There was a time when by purchasing bonds, relief might have been rendered, but that condition has gone by, as the government is not in a position to take such action. As far as the treasury department was advised, at the close of business today, no gold had been taken from the sub-treasury at New York for export on Saturday. Small offers of gold continue to come in and be accepted.

Washington, May 5.—A statement has been compiled from the records of the postoffice department showing the number of presidential postmasters appointed during the first two months of the present administration, and also the number appointed during the corresponding period in Harrison's administration. The statement shows that during the last two months, 155 presidential postmasters have been appointed as against 264 appointed during the corresponding period in Harrison's administration. The statement also shows the average terms served by 29 postmasters removed by Harrison to be two years and eight months, while the average time served by 28 postmasters removed during the two months just passed, is shown to be three years and four months.

Olympia, Wash., May 5.—Governor McGraw, who received a similar dispatch from Secretary Gresham, to that forwarded to Governor Pennoyer, has replied as follows:
"No official or other information has been received at this department as to threatened danger to Chinese. Every precaution will be taken that their rights may be carefully guarded."

Chicago, May 5.—The Great Bicycle relay from Boston to Chicago ended this morning. The journey was made under the most difficult circumstances, and was completed in a little less than 122 hours, or nearly 22 hours behind the schedule.

Ottawa, Ont., May 5.—The Automatic Telephone and Electric Co., of Canada, incorporated by the Dominion Parliament last month, proposes to run a copper-metallic trunk line direct from Halifax to Vancouver, over 3,500 miles long.

Caracas, Nev., May 5.—Soldier Walker whipped Sacramento Turner before the Carson club last night in 15 rounds.

Boston, May 5.—Francis, Henshaw & Co., stock brokers, suspended this morning.

Chicago, May 5.—The work of installation at the World's Fair is progressing with such marvelous rapidity that a great change is to be noted even since the opening day.
The council of administration today took action on the exhibition restaurant charges, adopting resolutions instructing all restaurant managers in the fair grounds to re-submit a full and complete schedule of prices and submit the same to the executive committee for approval.

Tacoma, Wash., May 5.—The coroner's jury today found that John Dillon, who died in a lodging house on Pacific Avenue early on Thursday morning, came to his death by medicine containing poisonous drugs, prescribed by a man known as Dr. Day. The autopsy revealed that deceased's vital organs were in a healthy condition. The stomach and contents were sealed in a jar for future analysis. Dr. Day cannot be found in the city and it is thought he has fled.

Chicago, May 5.—A local paper declares positively that the World's Fair will be open on Sundays. It will be opened without a formal announcement. It has been the rule to have them open Sunday and Chief Tucker of the bureau of admissions, receiving no order to the contrary, will continue the custom. He has made arrangements accordingly, ordering all ticket-takers and guards to be on duty.

Chicago, May 5.—Lower clouds, prevailing rain, made the attendance at the World's Fair very light today.

Chicago, May 5.—Lower clouds, prevailing rain, made the attendance at the World's Fair very light today.
