Some Fine Ludwig Pianos

are attracting the attention of all who see them at our store. These splendid pianos contain so many improvements and in style and finish are so far ahead of anything of the same wholesale cost that one marvels at the low prices we ask for them. WHY CAN WE SELL OUR PIANOS SO LOW? Because we buy at the lowest cash price. Because we care not pianos out on trial. Because we demand a payment down on the instrument. Because we have no agents. Because we make no unnecessary expense. It costs thousands of dollars to have from 50 to 75 pianos about the country on trial, all of which must be made up by those who purchase. All the latest music at half price.

CITY NOTES

HILLS APPROVED.—The auditing committee of councils met last night and approved the bills that had accumulated during the preceding fortnight.

INSPECTING THE WATER SUPPLY.—Tomorrow the board of health will enter upon its annual inspection of the water supply. The works of the Provisioning Gas and Water company will be visited first.

POVERTY SOCIAL.—A poverty social will be given by the Guild of St. Hilida of St. Luke's church in the parish house this evening. Those attending not attired in rag time costume will be fined four cents. All are welcomed.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING.—Louis Whitman, of Jones street, North Scranton, accidentally shot himself in the right leg over the knee, Friday, while cleaning a revolver. He did not know it was loaded. Dr. John B. Corser attended the man.

A NEW BRIDGE.—The Delaware and Hudson Railroad company is having a bridge erected over its tracks leading from Green place to Stover's packing house, and the city is fortunate. The structure will be fifty feet in length and thirty feet in width.

DIRECTORS OF BOLT WORKS.—The directors of the nut and bolt works held a meeting in the board of trade rooms yesterday afternoon and considered matters pertaining to the erection of a plant. There will be another meeting Wednesday afternoon.

AN AUCTION SOCIAL.—The members of the "Little Gleamers" band of the Calvary Reformed church, under the direction of Mrs. W. G. Welch, will conduct an auction social at the above church tonight to dispose of articles left over from their fair. The public is cordially invited.

LECTURE ON "MEMORIAL DAY."—Henry Austin Adams, the brilliant lecturer, will come to St. Thomas' college hall on Tuesday evening May 26, under the auspices of the Clark's Summit Catholic church, of which Father Preley, formerly of Scranton, is pastor. His subject will be "Memorial Day."

STILL ANOTHER.—W. D. Heger, who has been in the employ of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad company for thirty-four years, and for the last ten years general purchasing agent for the company, has tendered his resignation to take effect at once. Mr. Heger resides at East Orange, N. J.

ANOTHER BURGLARY.—The residence of Frederick Warner, 510 Wyoming avenue, Green Ridge, was entered Saturday at 7 o'clock by a burglar. A valuable meerschaum pipe, a mackintosh and other articles of men's apparel were taken. The burglar left untouched much silverware and other valuables.

MEMORIAL SERVICE.—A memorial service will be held in All Souls' Universalist church on Pine street between Adams and Jefferson avenues next Sunday morning at 10.30. All Grand Army and Republic men and all interested are invited to be present. A business meeting at All Souls' Universalist church Friday evening.

NOT A STRIKE.—W. E. Smith, the South Washington avenue merchant, has been accused by a burglar that there was not a strike of his clerks at his store. The demand of his men to close his store every night of the week, but Saturday, at 7 o'clock, he states, was unreasonable from the fact that Friday nights he has to keep open late to accommodate the silk mill trade. He made sufficient concessions, in his opinion, regarding closing hour, and his clerks resigned and were paid off. There the matter ended, Mr. Smith states.

SCHOLARS AND MEMORIAL DAY

G. A. R. Committee Wants the Pupils to Participate.

Certain teachers of the city with their pupils are desirous of showing their patriotism by participating in the services to be held in the several cemeteries on Memorial day, but felt that authority to do so should be secured from the superintendent. In response to a request from the Joint Memorial day committee, the following letter has been received from Mr. Howell:

Scranton, Pa., May 19, 1899. Mr. Fred J. Anselmi, Chairman Joint Memorial Day Committee, 129 and 310 Grand Army of the Republic, Scranton, Pa.

Dear Sir: Any teacher in the city of Scranton is at full liberty to use her school as judgment dictates to commemorate the memory of dead soldiers. I am glad to know that some of the teachers are inclined to participate in the memorial services to be held in the various cemeteries.

If we can serve you in any way we are yours to command. Yours truly, George Howell.

PROGRESS OF PARK ORDINANCE

Mayor Signs the Resolution Directing Its Advertisement.

The resolution directing City Clerk Lavelle to advertise the ordinance appropriating $30,000 for the improvement of Nay Aug park was signed yesterday by Mayor Moir. The ordinance itself is now nearing final reading in select council.

The mayor also signed resolutions permitting the property holders on Price street, between Sumner and Bromley avenues, to construct a private sewer, and directing the chief of the fire department to cause the erection of a hydrant at the corner of Seventh and Scranton streets.

Smoke The Pocono Cigar.

FIRST CIRCUS DAY OF THE SUMMER

BUFFALO BILL'S WILD WEST A BIG ATTRACTION.

All of Scranton and the Region Roundabout Took a Day Off to See the Horsemen and the Indians and the Hundred and One Other Interesting Things That Colonel Cody Has Gotten Together—Had to Stop Selling Tickets for Afternoon Performance Shortly After 2 O'clock.

There was but one disappointment in connection with Buffalo Bill's show yesterday—the exhibition enclosure could not accommodate all who wanted to attend the afternoon performance. This is no press agent's "jolly" but an actual fact. Shortly after 2 o'clock the enclosure was closed up and thousands of people had to be turned away.

It was one of the greatest show days Scranton has ever known. It seemed as if the whole city and all the country roundabout turned out en masse to see the parade in the morning and the nearly all who saw the parade followed it to the show grounds. It is estimated that over 20,000 persons witnessed the two performances.

Unlike the occasion of Buffalo Bill's visit three years ago, when a veritable cloudburst occurred at night, the day all through was ideal. It was one of those days when one is in doubt as to whether or not he should wear his light overcoat.

One very commendable thing that was very generally noticed in connection with the show, was the absence of the festive fakir. The management will not allow them to follow the show and permanently employ a Pinkerton man, the celebrated John Rogers, to look to the observance of this rule, which is about smelling out crooks. The red lemonade and peanut man is not molested, of course. A show without them would not be a show.

Of the performance given by Colonel Cody it might be said in the outset that its title needs alteration. "Rough Riders" Congress and Wild West" would be more appropriate, it would seem. The Rough Rider end of it so far surpasses the other that it clearly overshadows it.

NEW FEATURES THE BEST.

Once upon a time the Deadwood stage coach, the emigrant train and the settler's cabin incidents were thrillingly interesting, and without doubt they are that even yet to many, but to the spectators taken as a whole, the congress of horsemen and the soldier evolutions is by far the main feature.

And what a feature this is! The grand review of the "Rough Riders of the World," a truly prodigious number, in itself worth the price of admission if considered only from the spectacular point of view, without any consideration of its educational side. Everything was there just as represented in the announcements: Indians, cowboys, Mexican soldiers, Arab, Arab, scouts, guides and the associates of fully equipped cavalry from the armies of America, England, Germany, Russia, Cuba and squads of Hawaiians, Porto Ricans and Filipinos. The Philippines attracted the most curiosity, but it was when the congress of Rough Riders dashed into view and circled about to their place in the big group of horsemen that the enthusiasm was let loose. It was the first opportunity Scranton has had of showing its appreciation of these heroes and the assemblage produced a grand show.

There was no mistaking that the applause was not intended for mere circus performers. The same might be said of the ovation which greeted Colonel Cody's appearance. The reproduction of the storming of San Juan hill was the most interesting and thrilling number on the programme, and was especially interesting because of the fact that most of the performers had actually participated in the famous charge. In the attacking party were the 10th and 12th regiments of the Rough Riders, Twenty-fourth infantry, Ninth and Tenth cavalry, Grimes' battery, Garcia's Cuban scouts and cowboys in charge of the pack trains.

EXCELLENT REPRODUCTION.

They entered in marching order and after a short bivouac on the arena disappeared by an opposite exit. Then curtains at the far end of the exhibition quadrangle were removed disclosing a block house and breast works manned with Spanish riflemen and artillery. The American soldiers came upon the scene from a side entrance in single file and deposited as skirmishers. The first shot discovered them, fired his rifle and retreating behind the breastworks gives the alarm. Then begins a terrific fusillade of rifle shots punctuated with the periodical rattle of the machine gun on the American side and the popping of the cannon at the block house. Men on all sides and are hurried to the rear on stretchers, but the American line advances slowly but firmly until within easy distance of the fortification when with a wild yell they rush across the interval, and the Spanish pell mell ahead of them, tear down the red and gold and run up the stars and stripes.

Another of the most interesting features is the artillery drill by veterans from Captain Thorpe's Battery D, Fifth regiment, United States Army. The quickness with which the guns were handled and with which the men handled themselves was a revelation to the civilian. Everything moved like clock work.

AMERICAN CAVALRYMEN LEADS.

In the horseman's feat the American cavalrymen were easily the peer of all the others. What the Cavalry did with the aid of heavy saddles, stirrups and foot and hand straps, the Yankee soldier duplicated or surpassed on a horse devoid of all trappings except a bridle. The cowboys of course, excelled in the riding, but they did not compare with the boys in blue in fancy feats. One of the feats performed by the cavalrymen was to mount at full gallop from the ground across one horse on to the back of another that was galloping along on the opposite side. And this was done with the aid of only the bridle and rein.

The work of the Mexican lariat throwers, the expert shooting by Buffalo Bill, Army Oulks and Johnnie Baker, the drill by the English and German cavalry and the acrobatic work of a troupe of Arabs were the other principal features.

The typical "Wild West" features, such as the Indian dances, the buffalo hunt, the attack on the stage coach, the cowboy and Indian races and the horse races were better than ever before. All in all it was a great exhibition and deserving of the very generous patronage given it in this city.

MANY SCHOOLS DISMISSED.

Attendance Did Not Warrant Sessions Being Held.

Very few, if any, of the public schools had more than one session yesterday and at some of them no session at all was held. The "circus day" rule is that the principal of the building can use his own discretion as to whether or not the schools be kept open. The attendance didn't warrant an afternoon session at any of the schools as far as Superintendent Howell had heard and at only a few of them was there, in the discretion of the principal, an hour's session held.

Superintendent Howell when seen yesterday afternoon didn't appear greatly vexed at the reports of "no session" that came into him from all quarters. "I would not want," he said, "to be quoted as saying that I give my approval to this thing of dismissing school to see a circus, but I will say that I always see 'hope' of a boy who will go without his breakfast five miles down the pike at daybreak to meet the circus."

GOOD POLICE RECORD.

Very Few Arrests Were Made by the Police Yesterday—Two Supposed Crooks Were Gathered In.

Scranton is not so bad to judge from yesterday's police records. Up to midnight, in the central city, not a single arrest had been made for drunkenness and there was only one instance of infraction of the peace that called for police interference.

This was a case where two Oliphant youths reached the wrong door of 209 Center street and were kicked down stairs by the woman's husband. When the street was reached the Oliphant youths set upon the husband, the wife refused to defend her defender and a fight ensued. The result, Sergeant Reese G. Jones and Patrolmen Parry and Karius, after hearing the story of the belligerents and several of the early spectators decided that the Oliphants were the offenders and took them to the station house.

Another remarkable thing is that not a single case of picking pockets or other such work was reported, and the police were notified of only one lost child. This was a 2-year-old boy named Clarence Moxley, of Dilton, who was taken away by a woman, a resident of this city, and then, according to the story of some little boys with whom the little fellow had been playing, started to walk to his home in the country. The police had received no word of him up to a late hour.

Two alleged crooks, one of them a supposed pickpocket, and the other a cheap jewelry fakir, were gathered in during the day. The first was arrested on Lackawanna avenue while the parade crush was on. Detective Moir and Lieutenant Davis. He was spotted by John Rogers, the Pinkerton man, who accompanies the Buffalo Bill show, and pointed out to the local police.

Riding along Capone avenue on a car yesterday at noon, Patrolman Lona Day, who was detailed on detective duty, saw P. H. Anthony, a local fakir, going into a saloon. Suspecting that he was up to some game the officer souped off the car and followed him in.

Anthony sized up the detective for a "rube" and tried to sell him his gold watch, slinging the old song about money and how it was to be had. When searched at the station house a large quantity of other "gold" jewelry, such as charms, chains, rings and the like, were found on the fakir's person. He was allowed to go upon making a deposit of his money after the usual morning. There is very little fear about headquarters that he will be around to redeem the fiver.

A fakir who was selling buttons and badges without a license and who opened his eyes after a long time in jail, was taken into custody at Chief Robling's order and locked up. He was released later upon his promise to get out of town.

"HOOKS" NIGHT AT THE FAIR.

Big Attendance and Big Receipts Attest Their Popularity.

Despite the counter-attraction of a circus the firemen's fair last night on the occasion of the Hook and Ladder company's inning had the largest attendance since the opening night and it is estimated the returns will exceed those of any other night, not excepting the Phoenix night, when the high water mark was reached. The "Hooks" were honored with the largest escort that has as yet turned out. It included the Niagara and Eagle companies of Pittston; the Neptunes, of Dunsmuir; the Naugus, of Phoenix; Phoenix Chemicals of the central city, and a delegation from the Franklins and Ira Tripps from the West Side.

Before going to the fair the companies paraded through the principal streets to music by Bauer's band and the Gay Aug. The band gave a delightful concert at the fair.

NORMAN WHEELER ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

FIRE TWO BULLETS INTO HIS RIGHT EAR.

No Cause Assigned for the Rash Act, but It Is Believed He Was Brooding Over His Position and Shot Himself in a Moment of Temporary Insanity—Is Rapidly Sinking Into an Unconscious Condition and but Little Hopes of His Recovery Are Entertained.

Norman Wheeler, of 822 Keyser avenue, who was a carpenter in the employ of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company for the past forty years, attempted suicide shortly before 6 o'clock last evening by shooting himself in the head with a .22-calibre revolver.

No cause is assigned for the deed, but it is believed by his relatives that the act was committed in a moment of temporary insanity.

Wheeler had not been feeling very well for some time. He feared the loss of his position under the company owing to the discharge of so many old employees, and brooded considerable over the matter. He resigned on Saturday and this, with his illness, is assigned as the reason for the shooting. Yesterday afternoon about 1 o'clock Wheeler left his home and went to the central city, returning about 3 o'clock. He seemed in good spirits and sat on the porch smoking his pipe for some time afterwards. He also walked about the house and lawn several times, but did not seem worried over anything, although he appeared somewhat restless, Mrs. Wheeler said. There was no one about the house except Wheeler and his wife, and about 5.30 o'clock the wife left the house to go to a milkman's nearby to procure some milk for the evening meal.

FIRE TWO BULLETS.

Wheeler was sitting on the porch when his wife left the house, and when she returned about twenty minutes later, he was sitting in a chair in the dining room with the revolver in his hand, having fired two bullets into the right ear. Mrs. Sanderson, a neighbor, heard the shots fired, but did not pay any attention to them, supposing it was some one in the open field nearby, and the first person to discover the man was Mrs. Roach, another neighbor, who had gone into the house to procure some yeast.

The latter notified the man sitting in the chair with the revolver in his hand and ran out of the house to the front yard, where she met Mrs. Wheeler returning from the milkman's. Several of the neighbors were summoned and they removed the injured man into an adjoining room and placed him on a couch and everything possible was done to stop the flow of blood.

Dr. F. G. Heddoe was telephoned for and when he arrived Wheeler was still conscious, but would not say anything, except in an undertone which was hardly audible.

LOGGED IN THE HEAD.

An examination revealed the fact that both bullets had lodged in the head and the ear was burned by the shooting. Everything possible was done and the man was resting comfortably in a semi-conscious condition at 9 o'clock, when Dr. Heddoe and Dr. Roberts held a consultation. They decided not to probe for the bullets, as the chances are Wheeler will not recover, owing to his extreme age, which is 72 years.

The revolver with which the shooting was done was a young American safety-hammer, .22 calibre, and was purchased by Wheeler yesterday while in the central city. When found it contained three loaded and two empty shells.

In a conversation with a Tribune man last evening, Mrs. Wheeler stated that her husband had no reasons for shooting himself that she knew of, as his home life had always been happy and the only thing that might have caused him to do it was the loss of his position. She stated that she was the fact of his fear of being discharged from the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company. This statement is borne out by the fact that last Saturday Wheeler tendered his resignation.

He went to John Hoffman, outside foreman at the Hampton mine, where he worked and told him that he did not intend to be discharged from the company's employ after having worked for them for forty years, and would not again resume his position.

REMOVED HIS TOOLS.

Yesterday he went to the shop and secured his tools and removed them to his home. Wheeler has two sons and one daughter residing in this city. They are William Wheeler, of West Elm street; Adam Wheeler, of Luzerne street, and Mrs. Ella Swartz. He is a member of Ezra S. Griffin post, No. 139, Grand Army of the Republic, and has resided on Keyser avenue for about twenty years.

Mr. Nelson, who has held the office ever since it was created, is a candidate to succeed himself.

ARRESTED ON SUSPICION.

George W. Loomis Held for Attempted Burglary.

George W. Loomis, whom the police suspect of being the burglar that attempted to enter the residence of Dr. Murray, on Wyoming avenue, Friday night, was picked up on Lackawanna avenue yesterday morning by Patrolman Haggerty and locked up to await an investigation.

The attempt to rob Dr. Murray's residence, it will be remembered, was frustrated by a servant girl who discovered the thief in the act of entering a window.

UNUSUALLY HEALTHY WEEK.

Only Twenty Deaths Reported to the Board of Health.

Scranton experienced a remarkably healthy week during the seven days ending May 20. Only twenty deaths, twelve less than the average, were reported, and the number of new cases of transmissible disease was but ten. Six of these latter were diphtheria; three, scarlet fever, and one, croup.

Bought a Gold Mine.

George W. Hall, of this city, and Frank Jermyn, of Scranton, have purchased a relative of the latter the Don Castor gold mine in El Dorado county, California, and they will erect a stamp mill at once. The purchasers will leave for that place in about three weeks and Mr. Jermyn will remain permanently. A test yielded one value of $15.00 a ton. Mr. Knight, uncle of Mr. Jermyn, owned the mine for nearly half a century.—Wilkes-Barre Record.
