

Heavy Vote Recorded; Penrose, Cut, Runs Behind Brumbaugh Germans Fall Back on Yser—Vesuvius Spreads Panic Wide

CITIZEN ARMIES CLASH TODAY WITH BALLOTS FOR WEAPONS

DIRECTOR POKER SMILES HOPEFULLY AS HE SCANS THE BALLOT

The man who kept the police force out of politics cast his vote in the same division as Doctor Brumbaugh. The cheerful look he wore when looking over the ballot was in anticipation of victory.

DOCTOR BRUMBAUGH AS HE APPROACHED THE POLLS

The Republican candidate for gubernatorial honors wore a confident air as he stepped forward to cast his vote at 35 West Haines street, Germantown, this morning.

DIRECTOR COOKE

Another member of the Mayor's family, who cast his vote at 285 West Haines street.

MAYOR BLANKENBURG CASTING HIS "SPLIT TICKET" WHICH HE REFUSED TO TRADE

He placed his vote in the same ballot box which later received the vote of State Senator McNichol at the polling place of the 17th Division of the 10th Ward, at 21st and Summer streets. He declined an offer of 100 votes for the loan bill if he would cast only one vote for Penrose.

DR. MOSES STERN CLOSES HIS CAMPAIGN

The only candidate in the world on the "Lib. Sun. Law" ticket, otherwise Liberal Sunday Laws, is right here in Philadelphia. He hopes to go to Congress, but others say there is no chance.