

Turks Flee From Cossacks—Allies Check Fierce Attack Near Lys Manufacturer, Shot Hunting, Dies—Suffragists Lecture Mayor

THE WORLD'S NEWS FEATURES ILLUSTRATED

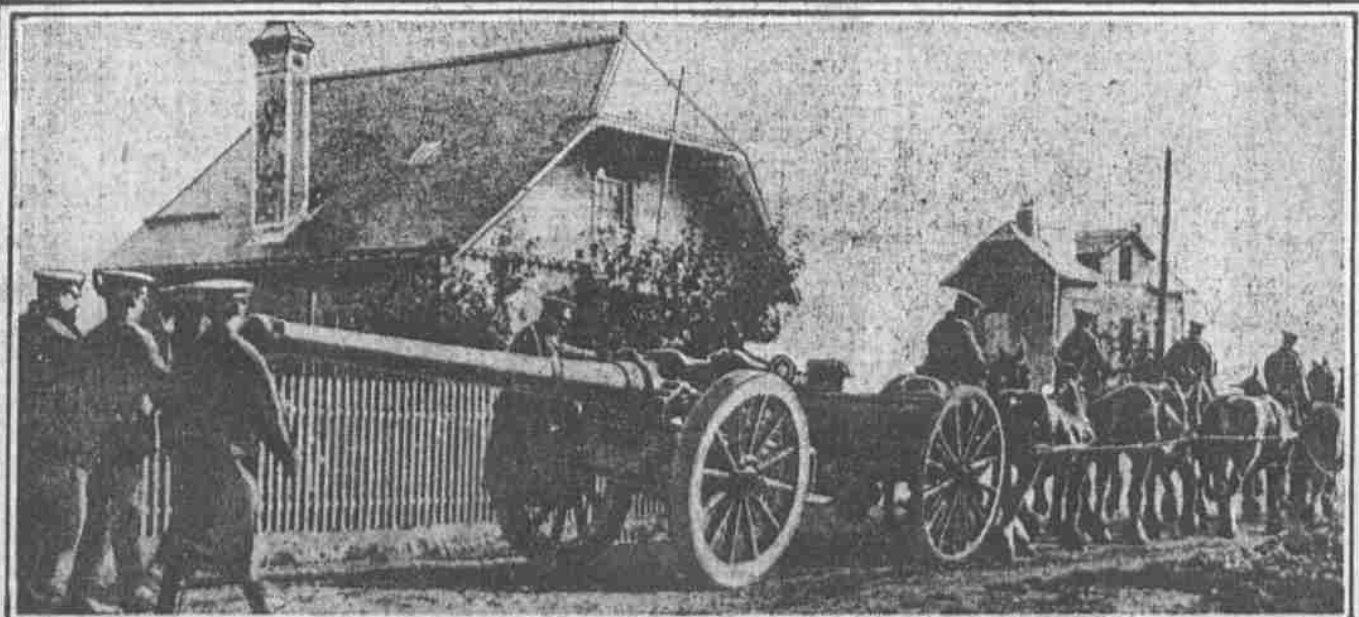

TRYING TO CHECK GERMAN RUSH ACROSS THE FLOOD PLAINS.
One of the now famous Belgian mitrailleuses in action on river.

—Photos. by Paul Thompson.
GERMAN CROWN PRINCE
The reported death of the Kaiser's oldest son is officially denied today.

THE GREATEST MENACE TO THE ALLIES' AVIATORS
This is the most improved type of German aerial gun.

BRITISH GUNS ON MOVE THROUGH BELGIAN VILLAGE
Artillery is being rushed to new strategic position to shell German lines.

—Copyright, International News Service.
FIELD TELEPHONE EXCITES BELGIAN BOYS' CURIOSITY
Youngsters watch eagerly the use of apparatus by King Albert's scouts.

—Copyright, Hearst-Bull News Service.
GERMANS ON WAY TO CONCENTRATION CAMP
The Allies' troops have taken many captives in Belgium. This picture shows a detachment starting for military prison.