

TRADING IN BONDS WILL BE RESUMED IN N. Y. SATURDAY

Transactions to Be Allowed at Minimum Prices—Urgent Investment Demand in Short-term Note Market.

Trading in bonds at minimum prices will be resumed on the floor of the New York Stock Exchange on Saturday.

There is much to be done in the way of mechanical work in order to facilitate bond dealings.

The decision to resume bond dealings at minimum prices has been adhered to in spite of the fact that a number of bond dealers asserted that since reports of this action became current a large volume of selling orders has been received.

Anticipation of this bond trading has been reflected in increased dealings through the Stock Exchange Clearing House.

There has been so large in the past week that the Clearing House Committee has divided itself into subcommittees to handle different lines of securities.

The New street curb market was active and strong as shown by the following bids: American Can, 20 1/2; Sugar, 19 1/2; American Telephone, 11 3/4; United States, 4 1/2; preferred, 19 1/4; Amalgamated Copper, 4 1/2; Northern Pacific, 9 1/2; Steel, 13 3/4; Atchafalpa, 8 3/4; New York Central, 11 1/2; Third Avenue, 21; Lehigh Valley, 15; and Pennsylvania, 10 1/4.

The short-term note market reflects urgent investment demand. Lake Erie notes, which were sold a month ago at a 6 per cent. basis, are now on a 4 1/2 per cent. basis, and there has been substantial improvement in prices in all other notes.

Steel business is in larger volume, but increased orders have been induced by price concessions, a feature always noted in the first stage of improvement in this industry.

Copper metal is also stronger and sold above 12 cents. There is no sign of any real preparation of copper metal from producers, and trade is now in good condition.

Cotton held, with net gains of 3 to 6 points, and the dealings in that staple indicate an adjustment of trading to existing conditions.

Sterling exchange was firm, demand, $4.85; cables, $4.88 1/2.

COTTON SHIPMENTS HELD UP

Failure to Get Insurance May Cut Off German Supply. Unless the British Government declares specifically that shipments of cotton to Germany will not be interfered with, marine insurance underwriters will not place any risks on the commodity.

The steamship Carolyn, which has been chartered to carry a full cargo of cotton from Savannah to Bremen, is being held up because of the failure to obtain war risk insurance.

STORIES FROM BATTLE FRONT SHOW MINOR HORRORS OF WAR

A story of a boy leading a bayonet charge is told by Corporal Isherwood, D. C., 35 Manchester, one of 150 wounded who recently arrived at Cardiff. He said: "On October 20th the Germans were all around us, and their fire enfolded our trenches. First our lieutenant was wounded, then the sergeant, and we were left without a single officer to command the platoon."
