

Social and Personal

Dances and Weddings

A SUPPER DANCE CLUB has been formed here, for which invitations were received this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Richardson Thurston, of New York, are the guests of Mrs. Thurston's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. Leeds Barroll, of 1299 Charlton street, Mount Airy.

A club dinner dance was given last night at the Huntingdon Valley Country Club. Among those who entertained at dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Sidney E. Hutchinson, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Earle White, Mr. and Mrs. Francis L. Kramer, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles West Churchman, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Whitaker and Mr. and Mrs. Corbett Lovinger.

During the evening there were several contest dances. Among the winners were J. Walter Steele and partner, Mrs. Henry Miller Watts and partner, Theodore Voorhees and partner, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles West Churchman won the cup for dancing the old-fashioned waltz.

Mrs. Edward Dearden, of Merion, will give a dinner party tonight at the Philadelphia Country Club in honor of Miss Mary McNeely, whose debut was made last week.

Mrs. Thomas P. Hunter, of 1835 South Rittenhouse square, will give a luncheon followed by a dance on Monday at the Bellevue-Stratford, for her daughter, Mrs. J. Lewis Davis, a recent bride.

After the opening of the opera and today's great game and the constant round of debutante parties, it would seem as if Society would rest a bit, but the giddy whirl of daily doings for the little debs still goes on and on.

A lovely bud, who will be presented on Monday, will be Miss Cornelia Carter Ledy, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Ledy, at their home, 1319 Locust street.

That same evening Edward Roberts will give a rabbit party for Miss Ines Drayton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Evans Roberts.

Miss Marjorie Taylor, daughter of Mrs. Nathan A. Taylor, of Chestnut Hill, will be honor guest at a small dinner-dance, which will be given by her uncles at his home in Merion.

On Tuesday Mrs. Austin Stevens Heckacher will present her daughter, Miss Anna Massey Heckacher, at a large tea at her home, 2213 Walnut street. John Kay Mohr will entertain at supper at the Mask and Wig club, after the opera, in honor of Miss Marie Louise Wansbrough.

Miss Mary Evelyn Chew will be introduced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David S. B. Chew, at the Rose Gardens of the Bellevue-Stratford on Wednesday. That evening Mrs. John Sanders Reed will give a small theatre party for Miss Anna Mary Walthour.

MISS MARGARET HANDY BURTON

Miss Burton is the debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Burton. She was introduced to society at a dance given November 19 by her parents.

honor of Miss Jean Morris Lillie and Miss Katherine Tenney.

Four debutante parties will be given on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Walter Clark will give a dinner-dance for their daughter, Miss Christine N. Clark, at their place, Keewaydin, in St. Martin's.

Miss Ruth Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brinton Cox, will be guest of honor at a theatre party and supper and dancing, which will be given by Miss Rosalie Brown Dolan.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Smith, of 434 East Mount Airy avenue, entertained a number of guests yesterday at their home.

After the opening of the opera and today's great game and the constant round of debutante parties, it would seem as if Society would rest a bit, but the giddy whirl of daily doings for the little debs still goes on and on.

At the Merion Golf Club, William Wallace Atterbury will give a small dinner-dance, in

MISS JEAN CHRISTIAN BULLITT

Miss Bullitt is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Logan M. Bullitt, of Torresdale and 126 South 23d street, and is among the season's debutantes. A number of entertainments have been planned in her honor.

DEBUTANTE AFFAIRS

Miss Mary S. Wurts to be Honor Guest at Dinner-dance Tonight.

One of the most attractive dinner-dances of the season will be given tonight by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stewart Wurts in honor of their daughter, Miss Mary Stuart Wurts, who was formally introduced at a tea given by her grandmother, Mrs. John Wieler, at her home in Germantown on October 19.

Miss Wurts will wear a lovely gown. The bodice will be formed of lace and tulle, and the short skirt will have a circular tunic of tulle.

Miss Ellen Judd Bean will be honor guest at a theatre party which Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. McCall will give, and which will be followed by supper at the Bellevue-Stratford.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Fowler, of Oak Lane, are being congratulated upon the birth of a daughter, Jane Fowler. Mrs. Fowler before her marriage was Miss Helene Springer.

George Jarvis and L. Bliser, students at Princeton University, spent Thanksgiving as the guests of Mrs. H. H. G. Sharpless and Miss Henrietta Sturgis at "Laburnum," Chestnut Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Lloyd, of 223 Harvey street, have as their guests Mrs. William J. Lloyd, Mrs. William H. Easton and Doctor Easton.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad E. Grove, of 6921 Quincey street, will entertain today at dinner at the Union League after the Army and Navy games. Their guests will include Miss Elizabeth Steele, of Annapolis; Conrad E. Grove, M. D., their son, who is a third classman at the Naval Academy; Miss Mary Grove and her fiance, Andrew McCown.

Mrs. Daniel G. Murphy, of 311 North 35th street, has returned from Johnstown, Pa., where she visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hart Don.

CHILDREN'S CONCERT

Original Affair to be given by Five Children in Chestnut Hill.

A number of children in Chestnut Hill, future beaux and belles of society, who range in age from 7 to 10 years, have arranged a concert for the benefit of the American Red Cross Society.

The program will open with Piano solo, "Autumn Fires," by Alfred Zantinger. Violin solo, "Dale Benson Purves Duet," by Sarah C. Zantinger, Mary V. B. Zantinger, Piano duo, "The Skaters," by Austin M. Purves, Jr., and Clarence C. Zantinger, Jr. Recitation, "The Message of the Flowers," by Sarah C. Zantinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Bodine, of 113 Springfield avenue, will give a dinner at the Bellevue-Stratford Saturday, December 5, in honor of Miss Constance Gummy and Miss Gertrude Gummy and their fiancés, Robert W. Cope and J. Ramsey Van Roden.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Reese, of 4420 Walnut street, have issued invitations for a dinner-dance on Friday night, December 11, at the Adelphi.

Mr. and Mrs. William Yerkas, Mr. and Mrs. R. Craig, Miss Arnie Bromley and William Coghlan will attend the game this afternoon, and will dine afterward at the Bellevue-Stratford.

Mr. and Mrs. William Carrell, of 3928 Rhawn street, will give a dinner at their home Monday evening. Covers will be laid for 12 guests.

Charles Refferts will entertain the Frankford Fife Club Monday evening at his home on Rhawn street.

Mrs. Seymour Davis is in Charge of English Relief Society for Belgians Here.

The women of Philadelphia, society matrons and maids as well as those whose interests lie more in philanthropic and charitable channels, have turned their attention with one accord to the starving Belgians, made homeless and destitute because of the exigencies of war, and every day sees some new plan evolved to secure relief funds, and some new name added to the list of those endeavoring to secure aid for these sufferers.

A PRETTY out-of-town wedding will take place this evening, at 7 o'clock, at the home of N. R. Jardine, 229 Union street, West Chester, when his daughter, Miss Mary Jardine, will become the bride of Aaron Ross Crane, of Chatham, N. J.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will be attired in a soft white satin gown, trimmed with chautilly lace, with a court train extending from the shoulders.

The bridegroom will wear dainty white lingerie frocks, with pink ribbons, and will carry baskets of pink sweet peas.

Mr. Crane will have Elmer Reynolds, of Madison, N. J., as best man.

A reception at the home of the bride will follow the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Crane will leave on their wedding trip. They will be at home Tuesdays in January, at 239 Union street, West Chester, Pa.

Mr. Crane was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania, and was a star on the varsity football team.

The marriage of Miss J. Vera Johns and Henry Porter Griffith, of Philadelphia, will take place this evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Harlan Johns, Wilmington. The ceremony will be performed by Dr. George Edward Reed, ex-president of Dickinson College, now pastor of Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, Wilmington.

A wedding of much interest was that of Miss Imogene M. Greble, daughter of Mrs. William R. Greble, of 196 West Toga street, and Horace J. Gentel, of 218 North 19th street, both descendants of well-known Philadelphia families.

The ceremony was performed on Wednesday night at the home of the bride's mother, by the Rev. William A. Motley, assistant rector of the Church of the Holy Souls, 19th and Tioga streets. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Frank Greble, and attended by her sister, Mrs. Henry Tirardo, as matron of honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Reese, of 4420 Walnut street, have issued invitations for a dinner-dance on Friday night, December 11, at the Adelphi.

Mr. and Mrs. William Carrell, of 3928 Rhawn street, will give a dinner at their home Monday evening. Covers will be laid for 12 guests.

Charles Refferts will entertain the Frankford Fife Club Monday evening at his home on Rhawn street.

Mrs. Seymour Davis is in Charge of English Relief Society for Belgians Here.

The women of Philadelphia, society matrons and maids as well as those whose interests lie more in philanthropic and charitable channels, have turned their attention with one accord to the starving Belgians, made homeless and destitute because of the exigencies of war, and every day sees some new plan evolved to secure relief funds, and some new name added to the list of those endeavoring to secure aid for these sufferers.

Mrs. Seymour Davis, of 1016 South 46th street, who returned last spring after a year spent in Continental Europe, and who is thoroughly conversant with the conditions abroad, has been requested by Chief Justice Sir John Matthews and Lady Matthews, of Tunbridge Wells, Eng., to represent the English Society for the Relief of the Belgian Refugees in this city, and to secure materials for their comfort.

The appeal calls for woolen materials, garments knitted or of woolen cloth, caps, mittens, shirts and even blankets, and so generous has been the response that Mrs. Davis shipped to England today a box containing 600 pairs of woolen socks, and another box is being rapidly filled, to be forwarded to the sufferers before Christmas.

to the throat in military fashion. A standing collar and wide cuffs of seal form the trimming. With this Mrs. Mustin wears a close-fitting hat of slate-colored velvet and tulle, trimmed with a tiny bunch of fruit blossoms on the side.

Miss Marjorie Edwards wears a street suit of stone-blue cloth. The military coat, which fastens close up around the neck, is becoming to Miss Edwards and has a band of marten fur as cuffs and collar. A chic red velvet hat, worn a little on one side of the head, also has a band of fur.

The Misses James will entertain their "500" club on Monday evening at their home, 1208 Ritner street. The game will be followed by a luncheon. The members of the club are Miss Anna Djourup, Miss Helen Brooks, Miss Blanche Dove, Miss Estelle Dove, Miss May Lynch, Miss Gladys Monavalga, Miss Gertrude Loney, Miss Belle Lernerhrit, Miss Irene James, Miss Marie James, Miss Augusta James, Miss Evelyn James and Miss Muriel James.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Davis, of 2312 South Garnet street, in the Girard Estate, will entertain at dinner on Tuesday next, followed by cards. Their guests will be Lieutenant Commander R. S. Keyes, U. S. N., and Mrs. Keyes, Lieutenant Commander G. A. Bissett, U. S. N., and Mrs. Bissett and Lieutenant G. A. Luta, U. S. M. C., and Mrs. Luta.

Lieutenant Commander G. A. Bissett, U. S. N., and Mrs. Bissett will have as their guests over the week-end Lieutenant A. S. Sheppard, U. S. M. C., and Mrs. Sheppard, of Newburyport, Mass., and Commander E. L. Bissett, U. S. N., of Harrodsburg, Ky., who came to the city this morning for the Army-Navy game.

Miss Helen A. Dunn, of 1224 North 18th street, gave a dinner Thursday for the Penn-Cornell game. Her guests were Miss Alyce Hackett, of Phoenixville; Miss Anna Hahn, Elsie Huber, William O'Malley, Fred Schilling, of Allentown; Edmund Butler, of Brooklyn, who was captain of the Cornell team of 1912, and Granberry Miller, of Brooklyn, who also played on the Cornell team in 1912.

Mrs. Daniel Kennedy, Miss Helen A. Dunn and Miss Alyce M. Hackett, of Phoenixville, will spend the week-end in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Richter, of 2336 Oxford street, will receive on December 6 from 3 to 6 o'clock in celebration of their 25th wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Mary C. Sandman, of Tioga, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss May Isabelle Sandman, to Joseph P. Carroll, of this city. Owing to the recent death of Mr. Sandman, the announcement was made privately, only the immediate families being present. No date has been set for the wedding.

The J. F. Social has been reorganized for the winter. Miss Bessie Devlin will entertain the members tomorrow night at 2212 North Potter street.

Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Trifield, of 3718 North 17th street, will give an at home from 3 to 9 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in celebration of their 25th wedding anniversary, which occurred on November 28. The house will be decorated with autumn foliage and chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Eleanor Ashworth Morris, of 219 Rochelle avenue, Wiesahickon, is entertaining over the week-end Miss Lillie Keith, of New York, a classmate at St. Joseph's College, Chestnut Hill.

The Boys' Club recently organized at the home of Mrs. Charles B. Bennett, on Manahan avenue, has elected the following officers: President, Gilbert Bucher; vice president, Jay Gneis; secretary, Raymond Innes; treasurer, Norman Steinkrup. Among other members are Paul Fleming, Leonard Van Fossen, Charles Hinkle, Joseph Wrigley and Alvin Soley.

Dr. and Mrs. Lewis Diamond, of 323 Frankford avenue, will give a musicale, followed by a luncheon, this evening in honor of Miss Elsie Carman. Among the guests present will be Miss Rose Singer, Mr. and Mrs. H. Jacobson, Mrs. R. Diamond, Miss S. Diamond and Dr. and Mrs. Lewis Diamond.

Morris Ringold, of Milwaukee, Wis., is spending the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. S. Ringold, of 303 Frankford avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Mosler, of 2967 Frankford avenue, gave a dinner on Thanksgiving to a number of their friends. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Bell, of Logan; Mr. and Mrs. Kolp, of Logan; Mr. and Mrs. T. Mosler, Miss Mary Mason, of Chester; Mrs. R. Taylor, Miss Helen Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. C. Mosler.

Mr. and Mrs. Volney G. Bennett, of Haddon Heights, are now occupying their new residence.

Mrs. Mary Ethian, formerly living at 8th and Cooper streets, has sold her suburban home in Moorestown and is now in apartments at 4th and Walnut streets, West Philadelphia, for the winter.

Mrs. H. J. Stiles, of Cleveland, Ohio, who formerly lived in Merchantville, is visiting relatives in the suburbs.

Mr. A. K. Bennett, of Merchantville, has joined his wife and daughter in California.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Milton Richard entertained at dinner last night, in honor of the approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Sarah Elizabeth Eckard and Edward O'Herron, of Pittsburgh. The marriage will take place next Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eckard, 206 Boulevard. Mr. Eckard is a well-known druggist of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Thompson have as their week-end guests Mr. and Mrs. William P. Poynter, of New York, and Miss Betty Carson, of the same city.

Miss Katherine Holden, whose engagement to Baron von Meyer was recently announced, looks well in a tulle dress of deep blue cloth with a collar of monkey fur, the latter of which has become so fashionable this season. With this costume she wears a Tommy Atkins hat of black velvet with a cockade at the left side.

A rather smart costume of emerald green broadcloth is being worn by Mrs. Charles H. Howell. The coat is braided in self tones and is trimmed with black silk tassels. With this the matron wears a small, close-fitting black chapeau.

Walking through the square recently, Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury's costume attracted one's attention because of its smart lines. The coat was of sealink, shaped like a smock, with the fashionable circular swing to it, and fell barely to the hips over a skirt of terra-cotta colored cloth, which was short and was finished at the hem with a wide band of seal. The matron's hat was a sailor of black, trimmed simply with gaura feathers.

Mrs. Christopher Fetsell, who has returned from her wedding trip, is wearing a smart-looking walking suit of gray-green cloth with taupe-colored fox stole and muff. Her hat is of black velvet, sitting sharply at the left side. Mrs. Fetsell was formerly Miss Francis Florence Folk.

Miss Frances Stoughton wears an afternoon costume of gray velvet. The coat is cut away in the front and made quite long in the back. Silver fox forms the collar and cuffs. The skirt is made on plain lines. Miss Stoughton's hat is of black velvet with a violet plume encircling the crown.

Green broadcloth has been chosen by Mrs. Henry C. Mustin for a street suit. The skirt has the conventional overskirt made long in the back and cut short and square in the front. The coat is quite short and buttons close up