

PHILLIES PLAY DOUBLE-HEADER WITH PIRATES TODAY—ATHLETICS VISIT DETROIT

PENNSYLVANIA'S HOPE FOR SUCCESS ON THE GRIDIRON THIS YEAR CENTRES IN THIS GROUP OF HUSKY ATHLETES. The coaches, trainers and advisors are working like Trojans in an effort to develop a great football machine out of this band of aspiring Brickleys. The most difficult matter for the coaches now is to form a backfield that will be able to hold its own.

BY DEFEATING PIRATES TWICE TODAY PHILS CAN MOVE PEG

Double-Header Scheduled for This Afternoon at National League Park—Post-Season Barnstorming Tours Will be Taken by Only Eight Local Men.

While it is mathematically possible for the Phillies to overtake the Chicago club and move into fourth place, the odds against such a contingency are great. There is practically no chance between the local National League club and a first division place as there is between the Athletics and the Boston Red Sox...

by Comiskey around the globe last winter. Those men have had enough traveling, and the majority of them realize that a rest throughout the winter months will do them more good than playing. Yet the Western trip, which will be named the Athletics-Phillies tour...

It is noticeable that the bulk of the players who are to be barnstorming the West after the world's series are not the ones who accumulated fame at the home and foreign.

ATHLETICS WANT TO CLINCH FLAG AT EARLIEST DATE

Mackmen Begin Three-game Series in Detroit Today—Players Are in Good Shape to Conquer Western Clubs.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 17.—Barring an accident, the Athletics will have completed their 31 games in the West by today. The Athletics are here today to open a three-game series with the Detroit Tigers.

C. H. S. PAIR BEATEN

After working their way through the entire field in the Eastern Clay court tennis championships in doubles, Arthur Kerr and Robert M. Brookfield, the Central High pair, were at last forced to accept defeat yesterday on the United Country Club courts.

Blmira Beats Harrisburg Champs

HARRISBURG, Sept. 17.—The Harrisburg Club, champions of the Tri-state League, lost the second game of the post-season series to Blmira, the New York State League title holders, yesterday by the score of 2 to 1.

TWO HARNESS MEETS ARE SCHEDULED TO STIMULATE INTEREST

First Is to Be Held Next Saturday on Chamounix Speedway—Second Is Planned Wednesday at Belmont.

Followers of horse racing are taking an interest in the two events which are to be held in this vicinity Saturday, September 20, and Wednesday, September 23. The third of the fall racing series of the Road Drivers' Association will take place September 19. It will be Keokuk, Iowa, the first of the Chamounix 32-ounce trophy events.

MT. AIRY TO PLAY PROFS

One of the best games of the season between local teams will be played next Sunday afternoon at Chestnut Hill between the Chestnut Hill Professionals and the Mt. Airy club. This is the second game of a series of three to decide the championship of the Northeast section of the city.

COLLINS TO WRITE BIG SERIES FOR EVENING LEDGER

Famous Athletic Second Sacker Will Review Each Game of World's Baseball Classic in Day Following Play.

No man in the country, with the possible exception of Connie Mack, is half so well qualified to write inside baseball as Eddie Collins, the world's premier second baseman and extra-base slugger. Eddie has consented to write a review of each game of the approaching world's series for the Evening Ledger and it is safe to say that his comments on that baseball classic will be more widely read than that of any other writer in America.

THE WORLD'S SERIES WITHOUT EDDIE COLLINS

would be a bit on the order of the cart without the horse. It was after the New York Giants had been so completely routed by the Athletics last October that John McGraw said Eddie Collins was "the most valuable player in the game."

EIGHT WOMEN NOW REMAIN IN NATIONAL GOLF TOURNAMENT

Four Philadelphia Representatives Are Hopeful of Landing Top Honors in Glen Cove Test.

GLEN COVE, N. Y., Sept. 17.—Two women golfers from the West still were in the running when the eight players fighting for the women's national golf championship began their play today in the semi-finals this morning.

RECORD FOR McNICHOL ENTRY

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 17.—The feature of yesterday's Michigan State Fair races was the running of the Philadelphia gelding "McNichol," owned by Senator James P. McNichol, which won the steeple chase and decided the 200 pace, with a new world's record of 2:01.

WEST CHESTER FAIR IS PROVING HUGE SUCCESS THIS YEAR

Record Crowds Have Been in Attendance at the Grounds—Exhibits Attract Lots of Attention.

WEST CHESTER, Pa., Sept. 17.—This is the big day at the fair of the Chester County Agricultural Association and the attendance is even greater than was expected. Last year, the same day, there were about 800 persons on the grounds, but the number today exceeds that by a considerable figure.

BASEBALL CONDENSED AMERICAN LEAGUE

Table with columns for team names (Athletics, Yankees, etc.) and statistics such as runs, hits, errors, and batting averages.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Table with columns for team names (Phillies, Cardinals, etc.) and statistics such as runs, hits, errors, and batting averages.

FEDERAL LEAGUE

Table with columns for team names (Cincinnati, Baltimore, etc.) and statistics such as runs, hits, errors, and batting averages.

BACK FIELD DEVELOPMENT TASK FOR PENN COACHES

Football Experts Concentrating All Thought and Energy Along Those Lines—Harvard, Dartmouth and Cornell Favored in This Respect, as 1913 Quartets are Intact.

By EDWARD R. BUSHNELL. While the coaches at Franklin Field are concentrating all their thought and energy upon the development of a ground-gaining back field, Harvard, Dartmouth and Cornell are giving thanks that their veteran back field quartets of 1913 are intact.

WESTY HOGAN TITLE

Great Improvement Shown by Griffith, Newcomb and Sloan Puts Them in Line for Amateur Singles Championship.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 17.—Interest centers here today on the amateur championship at singles in the Eighth Annual Tournament of the Westy Hogan.

BRYN MAWR SHOW ENTRIES EXCEED FORMER RECORDS

Nine Hundred and Forty-five Horses and Ponies in Ninety-nine Classes to Be Judged September 21.

Analysis of the entry lists for the Bryn Mawr horse show to be held September 21 emphasizes the fact that this 20th annual event will far exceed in size and importance any previous exhibition. There are 99 classes and 445 entries, comprising with a previous record of 32.

LOCAL MARKSMEN ARE ON EDGE FOR WESTY HOGAN TITLE

Five other events of 15 targets each open the program here today. These are considered separately, but the last five of 25 each are to also count for the Westy Hogan race as well as in determining the high score.

EVERS Robbed of Trophies

TROY, N. Y., Sept. 17.—Johnny Evers, first baseman of the Boston Braves, lost many of the valuable trophies presented to him by snatching trophies during his career on the diamond when it was learned here yesterday that his name had been deleted. A check of silver presented to him by the fans of Chicago and several solid silver cups are among the articles missing.