DELAWARE ACADEMY.

The Trustees of this Institution, have the pleasure of announcing to the public, and particularly to the friends of education, that they have engaged IRA B. NEWMAN, as Superintendent and Principal of their Academy.

The Trustees invite the attention of parents and guardians, who have children to send from home, to this Institution. They are fitting up the building in the first style, and its location from its retired nature is peculiarly favorable for a boarding school. It commands a beautiful view of the Delaware river, near which it is situated, and the surrounding scenery such as the lover of nature will admire—it is easily accessible the Eason and Millford Stages pass it daily, and only 8 miles distant from the latter place, and a more salubrious section of country can nowhere be found. No fears need be entertained that pupils will contract pernicious habits, or be seduced into vicious company—it is removed from all places of resort and those inducements to neglect their studies that are furnished in large towns and villages.

Board can be obtained very low and near the Academy. Mr. Daniel W. Dingman, jr. will take several boarders, his house is very convenient, and students will there be under the immediate care of the Principal, whose reputation, deportment and guardianship over his pupils, afford the best security for their proper conduct, that the Trustees can give or parents and guardians demand.

The course of instruction will be thorough adapted to the age of the pupil and the time he designs to spend in literary pursuits. Young men may qualify themselves for entering upon the study of the learned professions or for an advanced stand at College for mercantile pursuits, for teaching or the business of common life, useful will be preferred to ornamental studies, nevertheless so much of the latter attended to as the advanced stages of the pupil's education will admit. The male and female department will be under the immediate superintendence of the Principal, aided by a competent male or female Assistant. Lessons in music will be given to young ladies on the Piano Forte at the boarding house of the principal, by an experienced and accomplished Instructress. Summer Session commences May 4th.

A list of Representatives from the Northampton district in the Legislature of Pennsylvania, from the erection of the County in 1752, to the present time.

During the period of our colonial dependence on Great Britain, the council which with the Governor, exercised the supreme executive power, was appointed by the administration, and consisted exclusively of its political friends—but the first State constitution formed in July 1776, provided for the election of one person from each county, to serve as a counsellor for three years—the legislative power being vested in a single body or House of Representatives, until the adoption of the second constitution of 1790, when a Senate or upper House was instituted.

MEMBERS OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

1776 Peter Rhoads.
'77 Jacob Arndt.
'80 John Van Campen.
'83 Stephen Balliet.
'86 Robert Traill.

W. C. Livingston (in place of H. King, elected to Congress.)

It will be seen that not one member was selected from that part of the district composed of Monroe, Pike and Wayne counties. By the constitution of '76, a council of censors was directed to be elected—one person from each county to serve for seven years, whose duty it was to observe that the Constitution be preserved inviolate, and that the public taxes be justly laid and disposed of—but one election was held for this office 1783—John Arndt, censor for Northampton county.

The office was abolished by the Constitution of 1790.

A Man who is afraid of "Hard Cider."—We learn through a gentleman who was present at the late public meeting of the Morris County Temperance Society, that a leading VanBuren politician, during the course of a speech in behalf of the benevolent objects of the society, ventured to express much sorrow that a certain political party, which had adopted the use of "Hard Cider," should pursue a course that must prove disastrous to the Temperance cause, and probably throw it back some years, with other remarks of the same purport. The distinguished President of the Society rose when the speaker sat down, and remarked that he had neither time nor inclination to follow him with a reply, but begged leave to relate an anecdote. A few days since, said he, a gentleman whose feelings appear to be sorely grieved that certain politicians should pursue a course to render "hard cider" palatable, dined in Morristown. As there was nothing on the table to drink stronger than cold water, this political temperance man called for a bottle of brandy, and drank repeatedly and freely during his meal; and this brandy drinker, continued the President, is my worthy friend whose stomach has been so turned against "hard cider." The effect of this simple anecdote upon the audience may readily be imagined. The gentleman started to his feet under evident embarrassment, ejaculating—"I take brandy only as a medicine!"

The Good Cause in New Jersey.

The Newark Daily Advertiser says: West Jersey is all alive. Nothing comparable to the enthusiasm which is prevailing there has ever before been experienced in that district. There were no less than three out-door gatherings of the people last week. The meeting at Bridgeton, Cumberland county, on Wednesday, comprised 2000 freemen, and was honored with the presence of 500 ladies. Mr. Baer, the blacksmith, Col. McKenney and Dr. English, were among the speakers. Seven original Van Buren men were severally introduced into the meeting in the space of an hour, as converts to Harrison and Reform. On the next day there was another immense assemblage at Woodbury in the adjoining county, which was addressed by the same speakers, and by Josiah Randall of Philadelphia. During the speech of the Buckeye blacksmith a wagon containing an anvil made its appearance on the ground. Baer's eye twinkled at the sight, and rushing towards it, he seized the hammer and made the sparks fly! A friend who witnessed the scene, says "the way, ten pound ten" was beaten by him and a fellow craftsman, amid the shouts of a multitude was a caution!" Another meeting was held in the evening at the Court House, when Mr. Mc Hivaine addressed the People.

On Friday, our friends in Burlington Co. assembled by thousands in the woods near Vincenttown, Mr. Southard, Mr. Miller, of Morris, the blacksmith and other distinguished speakers being present. In all these meetings, the most conclusive evidence was given that West Jersey will give a sweeping majority for Harrison and Reform. Our friends there are in the highest spirits.

Imprisonment for Debt.

With all the professions of sympathy for the people by the present administration, it was hardly to be expected that Mr. Van Buren would attempt to revive imprisonment for debt. Yet such is the fact. The 29th section of the "Standing Army Bill," has this clause in it—"and when any non-commissioned officer or private shall be adjudged to suffer imprisonment there being no such goods and chattels to be found whereon to levy such fines, the marshal of the district or his deputy, shall commit such delinquent to JAIL during the term for which he shall be so adjudged to imprisonment, or until the fine is paid, in the same manner as other persons condemned to fine and imprisonment at the suit of the U. States may be committed."

We hope the advocates of Martin Van Buren will henceforth cease to call him the friend of the poor. Here is a plain provision to put a poor man in jail, if he is so unfortunate as not to have enough money to pay a fine for doing military duty, from ten to thirty days twice a year, and that too, perhaps out of the bounds of his own state. He is ranked too, with all kinds of criminals and offenders of the U. S. laws, and may be dealt with as "other persons condemned to fines and imprisonment at the suit of the United States!"—Somerset Whig.
